

F. W. JUSTICE FOR SHERIFF

YOUR VOTE WILL BE APPRECIATED

Even the lowly peanut may be improved, finds one Chowan County farmer who selected his best bunches in the field last year for planting this spring. County Agent N. K. Rowell is aiding him to establish a breeding patch this year.

Tom Tarheel says that it is still too early to tell but he believes the crops he planted on the wrong time of the moon are doing just as well as those planted when the moon was right.

The curb market at Greenville in Pitt County opened during the middle of May with the farmers selling $260 worth of produce on the first day. County Agent Reeves reports that this market will have three sales days each week during the summer.

For Board of Education from District No. 5

ASHER F. JOHNSON

Having served you in the capacity of Chairman of the Board of Education since the death of one of the best friends the children of Franklin has ever had—Capt. Arch Perry in February, 1923, I have seen the importance of the great educational work in Franklin County more urgently than ever before, and it has awakened an interest on my part that causes me to ask the support of all the voters in Franklin County that I may do what I can for the children who will be the men and women of tomorrow. It will be my pleasure to see that every dollar spent will produce, as far as is humanly possible, one hundred cents worth of results. I will appreciate your vote and your influence in the coming primary.

Thanking you in advance, I am

ENDORSES COOPERATIVE MARKETING

Raleigh, May 31.—The American Manufacturers Association in session at Atlantic City, May 28, took a strong stand in favor of the cooperative marketing of cotton. The association which is composed of cotton manufacturers of the entire country from New England to Texas adopted resolutions to the effect that cooperative marketing would tend to secure for both the manufacturers and the producers a fair price for cotton. The resolutions follows:

WHEREAS the old method of marketing cotton has permitted an undue pressure on the market at the beginning of the season and has encouraged speculation at various stages later in the season and,

WHEREAS such conditions tend toward violent fluctuations in prices of the staple with attendant hesitation and uncertainty in the dry goods market and,

WHEREAS these evils both in the cotton market and the cotton goods market can only be corrected by an orderly and uniform distribution of the cotton crop.

THEREFORE be it resolved that the cooperative handling and marketing of cotton by its producers can best bring about these results.

RESOLVED further that the American Cotton Manufacturers Association in convention assembled this 28th day of May, 1924 endorses the cooperative idea of marketing as above outlined to the end that an adequate and uniform supply of cotton may be secured for the manufacturers and at as high a price for the producer as the natural and unrestricted law of supply and demand will permit."

Richmond County farmers are already preparing for more fertile lands by having county agent W. H. Barton order 2,970 pounds of vetch seed for fall delivery and planting.
