HONOR

By THOMAS A. CLARK Dean of Man, University of Illinois.

There is apparently in the minds of many people a peculiar significance in being put upon one's honor, whatever that may mean, and a peculiar reedom from responsibility when not spon honor. An act may be recog-tized as objectionable or even as actually evil, but many people feel no compunctions of conscience in comnitting it, unless they are upon their honor. Then they would lose a leg

I remember not long ago having a conversation with a young fellow with eference to certain immoral things of which he had been guilty. He agreed with me ultimately that if the past could be forgotten he would not in the tuture again offend. It was not long, however, until I discovered that he had broken his agreement.

"Did you not promise me," I asked, "that you would not do this thing

"Why, I believe I did," was his reply, "but I did not promise upon my

A few years ago a boy came to my office and asked me to lend him thirtylive dollars. He was playing in hard luck, he was out of work, and if he could borrow the sum of money for which he asked he could get to a distant city and find a job. He would pay the money back in three months, he said. I let him have it, and not hearing from him for a year or two, I wrote him.

"I was not of age when I borrowed the money of you," he finally replied to my letter, "and so I am under no legal obligation to pay." And he has never done so. He was not on his honor, you see

It is a curious thing this honor. Under cartain conditions a man feels bound by it. He must be honest and truthful and upright. He must insist upon honesty and uprightness in others. Then he leaves a room or turns corner, and the whole situation chapges. He may lie or practice decall of even steal, and a few think the Worse of him and he not anything the worse of himself.

It is a false honor, this I have been describing. Real honor is based upon principle, it is the outgrowth of character. It is not influenced by time or situation or circumstance. It is a part of a man's everyday life; it controls and directs his action wherever he is, and it needs no oral or written expres-

Does Your Back Ache?

Bad Backs Bring Suffering to Many Louisburg Folks.

Is that dull, constant backache making you old and miserable? Does your back throb and ache until it seems you just can't keep going? Do you suffer headaches, dizzy spells and urinary disorders; feel weak, tired and worn-out? Then look to your kidneys. Delay may mean serious kidney sickness! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's are resommended by thousands.

Mrs. W. A. Mitchell, Main St., Franklinton, N. C. says: "I used Doan's Pills at different times for pains in my back. My back was so Doan's Pills at different times for pains in my back. My back was so sore, no matter which way I turned, I was in misery. I had terrible headaches, and dizzy spells too, and specks would dance in front of me. Whenever these attacks came on, I used Doan's Pills and they always fixed me up all right."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy —get Doan's Pills — the same that Mrs. Mitchell had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
