If you want the Commissioners act wisely in the expenditure of public funds you had best be present at the mass meeting Monday and stand firmly for a new court house and jail com-bined. Any other course will be unwise expenditure of public funds.

The Kiwanis Club and the Business Mens Association, who stand for progress have an opportunity to lend their support and influence to the Board of County Commissioners and show them where it is to the public interest to build a new court house and jail com-bined. They should act immediately bined. and meet with the Board next Mon-
