THE FRANKLIN TIMES

A. F. JOHNSON, Editor and Manager

-TAR DROPS-

-The many friends of the family of Mr. Joseph J. Barrow will regret to know that he continues ill at Lis home on north Ma! street.

-Sheriff H. A. Kearney, Deputy Sheriffs D. E. Cone and J. S. Rowland report the capture of a still and the destruction of about two hundred and fifty gallons of beer in Dunns township on Wednesday night.

-A card from Rev. J. A. McIver, Laredo, Tampico, Mexico, says "am more than 2,000 miles from Louisburg. Its a rather peculiar feeling to be a foreigner for my first time." We are glad to know he is enjoying his presented before the national convention here today, bringing the total names offered to 16. The conventon will meet an hour earlier tomorrow to thresh out platform differences. New York, June 27 .- The names of thresh out platform differences, and after the platform issues have been settled the task of nominating standard-bearer will begin, probably at a night session. -

LIST OF 16 CANDIDATES WHO HAVE BEEN OFFERED FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION

The 16 placed in nomination when the roll closed just before adjournment late today ne as follows:
Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama.

Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas. William G. McAdoo, of California. Willard Saulsbury, of Deleware. Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana. Jonathan M. Davis, of Kansas, Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland Woodbridge N. Ferris, of Michigan. David F. Houston, of Missouri and

Charles W. Bryan, of Nebraska. Fred H. Brown, of New Hampshire. George H. Silzer, of New Jersey. Alfred E. Smith, of New York. James M. Cox, of Ohio. Carter Glass, of Virginia. John W. Davis, of West Virginia and New York.

ELIZABETH KELLY JOINS THE CO-OPS

Distinguished Woman Educator President N. C. Teachers Association To had relegated the McAdoo candidacy Ald Tobacco Growers.

the State Department of Education of the delegates themselves resented and is one of the most prominent fi-

The tobacco association now has speaker removed from the platform.

1800, local units, or community organizations, in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia, nd Miss Kelly will devote herself to the work of dead or time ordered that part of them released a speaker removed from the platform. To these appeals chairman Walsh presented a deaf ear, although he turned savagely on the galleries and will devote herself to the work of dead or time ordered that part of them veloping these local organizations and directing the increasing activities and directing the increasing activities and interest in cooperative marketing of speak by requesting unanimous contion on July 23, the women on the tobacco farms of sent to explain his vote on the 38th for this gathering.

three states. Miss Kelly, who was born and reared on a North Carolina farm, has spent her life in close touch with the soil and the country people. Her sympathies and affection are with the country people and the spirit with which she enters her work with the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association is evidenced by the following letter stating why she has left her high position with the Department of Education to aid the movement for cooperative mark eting of tobacco. Miss Kelly's Message "Years of teaching and supervision in rural schools have kept me close tance to farm people and their problems. No one knows better than I that as a whole, farmers desire opportunities as good as any for their children and for themselves. It is largely a question All other United States Government securities ____ 15,000.00

Other-bonds, stocks, securities, etc. ____ Banking House $25,000.00; Furniture and fixtures $4,000.00 ____ Real estate owned other than banking house of ability to pa ythe required price. With them it is not so much a question of ability and willingness toproduce wealth from the farm as a question of how to retain a fair share of that wealth for the farm.

Amount due from State banks, bankers and trust com-wealth for the farm.

"There must be some way found by which the farmer may not only live himself but may become economically independent so as to insure the products which all other classes of people must use to live. An intelligent system of marketing points the way economic independence for the farm er. With this independence will come good homes, good schools, good church es and other conditions that insure Surplus fund
Undivided profits and perpetuate the welfare of any community. North Carolina is Reserved for interest and taxes accrued 2,300

Circulating notes outstanding

Amoun' due to Federal Reserve Bank (deferred credits)

Cashier's checks outstanding

Individual deposits subject to check

Certificates of deposit (other than for money borrowed)

State, county, or other municipal deposits secured by pledge of assets of this bank or surety bond

Other time deposits primarily an agricultural state and primarily upon agriculture must the state's welfare depend.

"It is onething to boast of our great agricultural wealth and quite great agricultural wealth and quite a different thing to realize that no reasonable or just share of this wealth is insured to the producers. For this reason I am ready to do what I may do by way of helping to establish the principles of cooperative marketing since this seems to offer relief from conditions past and present which tend to keep in bondage a people that should by all rights be more free than any other class on earth."

When you run an as in The TIMES we know that you want a good as, nicely displayed. That is the only kind of an ad we want to give you, but it takes a little time to set good adses get aut of that habit of waiting until the last day before even thinking about your as.

Meadoo Passes 500 Mark (Continued From First Page.)

from all evidence they did not do so. The McAdoo people declared they knew there were more Smith votes on the floor to be brough out when called for and they were playing a game which would force all the Smith votes out before they brought out their own full strength.

NOT OVER YET On the surface, the situation, when the convention adjourned tonight, had not reached the stage for final dealing between the leaders. It was obvious that the McAdoo strength had reach that the McAdoo and Smith strength had reached such proportions that the contest was not going to be decided in open football play, and it was more pastor of the local Baptist church, certain than ever that each side had to the Franklin Times mailed at Nuevo a veto on the other. The deadlock, therefore, was becoming tighter. Night Session

That stormy petral of Democratic politics, William Jennings Bryan, added another tumultous chapter to his long career today when he went before the Democratic National Convention in an attempt to stem the tide of opposition to William G. Mc-

Interrupting an all-day succession of inconclusive ballots for a nominee for the Presidency, the three

Besides Mr. McAdoo, he mentioned seven other Presidential aspirants who would be satisfactory to him, but none of them aroused more than momentary enthusiasm and when the balloting was resumed scarcely a vote had been changed.

Neither did the conferences of the definitely to the limbo.

(S. D. Frissell)

Miss Elizabeth Kelly, President of the North Carolina Teachers Association whe has held a high position in but it was apparent that a large bloc the State Department of Education of the delegates themselves resented a question shout a tay refund in the same and persistent opposition of Wall Street has washed it all away."

Then, while the noise and continued, Dennis F. Dunkton whe has held a high position in but it was apparent that a large bloc the same and persistent opposition of th and is one of the most prominent illustrations and is one of the most prominent illustration. What they regarded as a gratuitious effort to lecture them. Anti-McAdoo delegations broke in with a chorus service forces of the Tobacco Growers of questions about McAdoo's "oil re-Cooperative Association as the head of its new department of women's name was mentioned and tried vainly by preliminary tactics to have the The tobacco association now has 1800 local units, or community organically and they regarded as a gratuitious effort to lecture them. Anti-McAdoo delegations broke in with a chorus of questions about McAdoo's "oil re-tainer" as soon as the candidate's name was mentioned and tried vainly by preliminary tactics to have the speaker removed from the platform.

bank

Overdrafts, unsecured

Misc. llaneous cash items

Other time deposits ____

tions, but Senator Walsh announced from the chair that he heard none, and the erstwhile Nebraskan, now a delegate-at-large from Florida Mount d the platform.

Recalling the spectacular appearance of Mr. Byan before the Baltimore con-vention of 1912 to blast the candidacy of Champ Clark and turn the tide in favor of Woodrow Wilson, the partis-ans of all the present candidates at first listened attentively, curious to sunday know what surprise might be in store Mr. a for them. The speaker began with a children plea for party harmony and moved on amid applause to declare he would name none of the men to whom he objected and wanted only to callatten-tion anew to several he considered tion anew to several he considered eminently qualified.

The first name he mentioned was that of Dr. A. A. Murphree, of Florida State University. Laughter swept the floor and galleries and a few good-natured gibes were shouted at the Commoner. There were ripples of applause as he presented in turn the names of Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina; Senator Robinson, of Arkansas; Senator Robinson, of Arkansas; Senator Robinson, of Arkansas; Senator Rakston of Inturn the names of Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina; Senator Robinson, of Arkansas; Senator Ralston, of Indiana; 'Senator Walsh, of Montana; and E. T. Meridith, of Iowa. Both applause and laughter answered a preplause and laughter answered a preplause and laughter answered a preparation of Mr. Mrs. Bob Denton spent last week with her parents in Chase City, Va. She returned Saturday accompanied by her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Mitchell.

Quite a large number from Wood were present at the Oxford Orphanage Bryan's brother, the Governor of Ne-

Bryan's brother, the Governor of Nebraska.

The name of Mr. McAdoo had been reserved for the last, and the speaker stirred up a demonstration of approval from the McAdoo delegates and a rumbling avalanche of booes and hisses from the Smith supporters in We are glad to know that our Reserved. a rumbling avalanche of booes and hisses from the Smith supporters in the gallery by declaring the former Treasury Secretary was entitled to the nomination, "whether you like him or not, whether you nominate him or not."

One from.

We are glad to know that our B. Y. P. U. is still moving on under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth Fuller. The many friends of Miss Katie Bell Griffin were made sad on Sunday afternoon when they heard of her death which happened at Burkley.

had been changed.

Neither did the conferences of the leaders during an ensuing recess materially alter the situation, and the convention went on into another night session with its disagreement over the nomination still in a jumble. McAdoo and Smith, both unable to make himself heard, to make material headway, kept their respective parties at the head of the list. Davis, of West Virgina, lost a few votes, but remained in third place, and the supporters of Ralston, of Indiana, became more active in presenting the qualifications of their candidate as a compromise selection.

Yarlous Ophilons

Thè entire effect of stay of mix Bryan sought to go on with his speech. Unable to make himself heard, he appealed to Chairman Walsh, who in turn sought without effect to stay of mix realize the fact and some do not, the conflagration. Finding himself place, and the supporters of Ralston, of Indiana, became more active in presenting the qualifications of their candidate as a compromise selection.

Yarlous Ophilons

Thè entire affect to stay of mix Bryan sought to go on with his speech. Unable to make himself heard, he appealed to Chairman Walsh, who in turn sought without effect to stay of mix realize the fact and some do not, the conflagration. Finding himself powerless, the Montana Senator mount ed a chair and shaking his gavel at the long sweep of galleries, souted repeatedly to the sergeants-at-arms and the police to eject a group of spectators who had attracted his attention from a gallery overhanging the stage. But the officers either did not hear or thought it inadvisable to comply. In the midst of the uproar anot immediately apparent. The McAdoo men declared the incident would stimulate a new rally in the lagging fortunes of the former Treasury Secretary, but the Smith supporters as saidBryan had turned the trick for which they had been waiting, and had relegated the McAdoo candidacy definitely to the limbo.

The most vociferous interruptions

a question about a tax refund in the case of Youngstown concern for which McAdoo was attorney.

"Then you are not content to rest your case on oil," Mr. Bryan began, but he was drowned out again by a chorus of booes in which many of the delegates joined.

The farm and home agents of the State College extension division will gather for their short course at the tion on July 23, the agents remaining

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF

The First National Bank

RESOURCES

tances of other banks, and foreign bills of ex-change or drafts sold with indorsement of this

Lawful reserve with Federal Reserve Bank _____

Capital stock paid in

Reserved for interest and taxes accrued

State of North Carolina, County of Franklin, ss:

C. W. EDWARDS, Notary Public.

Deposited to secure circulation (U. S. bonds par value) 50,000.00

p. nies in the United States _______ Checks on other banks in the same city or town as reporting bank

Redemption fund with U. S. Treas, and due from U. S. Treas.___

LIABILITIES

State of North Carolina, County of granama, as:

I, F. J. Beasley, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

F. J. BEASLEY, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 3rd day of July, 1924.

6,521.14

COFFEE Attest:
D. F. McKINNE,
MALCOLM McKINNE,
WM. H. RUFFIN,

At Louisburg, in the State of North Carolina, at the close of business on

Wood Department

LOCAL NEWS

Messrs. W. D. Fuller, Jonnnie Leon-rd and C. E. Denton, Jr., went to Raleigh last Thursday on business, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Shearin and son Raymond visited relatives in Castalia

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fuller and children visited Mrs. C. G. Daniels at Oxford Sunday.

Master Edgar Puller spent last week with his cousin Morgan Daniel at Pro-

were present at the Oxford Orphanage

Cries of "Oil."

Cries of "Oil."

Cries of "Oil."

death which happened at Punkin Centre. The entire family have the sympathy of all the people here.

gorgeous robe a queen ever wore. How important and necessary it is then that we have a perfect pattern. The life of the "Prince of Peace" is the only per-fect pattern which we can follow.

ife justa plain dull background, or we can put into it varied and beauti-ful designs; the forgetmenot of unselfishness, the violet of humility, the lily of purity, the daisy of innocence and the golden rod of sunshine and happiness. Besides the flowers, there are pictures that we might see there, perhaps a child's tear-stained face made to smile again because of a gentle touch, or a loving word; shutin's face brightened because of a visit someone took time to make; a heart made lighter and happier by the kindly word that was spoken and the friendly handshake that was given.

Perhaps, all unknown to us a me-

Perhaps, all unknown to us, some-one is using each of our lives as a attern for his own. would we recogsize the garment that is patterned after our own, if we saw another per-son wearing it? Are we satisfied with the kind of life we are wearing?
NEWA HARPER

THE APOSTLES

Tune. "Jesus Loves Me." esus called them one by one Andrew, Peter, James and John Then came Philip, Thomas too Matthew and Bartholomew

Yes, Jesus called them. 440,076.72 Yes, Jesus called them. 40.70 Yes, Jesus called them. He called them one by one.

10,074.37

$50,000,00

8.821.1

7,703.93

2,342.82

202 863 45

120,891.12

212,817.50

14,277.75 James, the one they called the less 29,000.00 Simon, also Thaddeus 5,706.36 Twelve apostles Judas made 29,286.73 Jesus was by him betrayed.

DO YOU KNOW

1. Who danced before Herod for the ead of "John the Baptist?" 2, Who the first Christian Marty

What disciple was a tax collect

What disciple denied Jesus

wers to Last Week's Questions David.

1. 2. 3. Hannah. The queen of Sheba.

4. The son of the widow of Zare-48,800.00 phath.

GOD IN NATURE

Have you ever thought how hear why wood burns? Of course the heat comes out of the wood when the wood burns, but how does it get in the wood to start with.

only a heaped-up handful of ashes disappeared, but where did it go?
Why do all crows build the sam

Louisburg Telegraph Co.

Standard Western Union rates to all the world. Money in any amount telegraphed to any point.

Very Low Rates. Inquire

War Tax Removed from Telegrams and Cablegrams

Effective midnight July 2nd, this burdensome tax on telegrams will be eliminated. With this burden removed. the time is opportune to consider how greatly a more extended use of the telegraph will benefit your business.

The telegram compels attention, carries conviction, influences decision and promotes business. And it costs but little more than the true cost of a letter to get this proof.

DON'T WRITE-TELEGRAPH!

Call "36"

L. L. JOYNER, Manager.

To The Voters of Franklin County.

North Carolina, Franklin County.

George H. Cooper being duly sworn, says: That to the best is knowledge neither S. A. Newell nor the Board of Commissioners of Franklin County had anything to do with the passage of the bill to abolish the office of Auditor of Franklin County. That S. A. Newell had nothing to do with the drafting or passage of the said bill.

This July 2, 1924.

GEORGE H. COOPER, Representative.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this July 2, 1924. H. M. STOVALL, Notary Public.

My Commission expires Jan. 2, 1925.

North Carolina, Franklin County.

C. P. Harris, being duly sworn, says: That neither S. A. Newell nor the Board of Commissioners of Franklin County had anything to do with the drafting or the procuring of the passage of the bill, at the 1923 Session of the Legislature, abolishing the office of Auditor of Franklin County.

This July 2, 1924.

C. P. HARRIS, Senator.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this July 2, 1924.

B. B. PERRY, Notary Public.

My Commission expires March 7, 1925.

The above affidavits are for the purpose of contradicting a report that is being circulated that I drew and procured the pasage of the bill passed at the 1923 Session of the Legislature to abolish the office of Auditor of Franklin County.

I was not a member of that Legislature, had nothing to do with the passage of the said bill and knew nothing about it until after it was passed.

S. A. NEWELL.

lowed. We may find by looking, "tongues in trees, books in the running brooks, sermons in stones, and good in everything." A' BERT N. CORPENING.

HOME DEMONSTRATION DEPT.

Items of Interest to Those Interested in Better Homes and Better Living in Franklin County. : :

By Miss Cathleen Wilson, Agent

The following is my program for the ming week.
Monday—Office.

monay—onice.
Tuesday—Mapleville.
Wednesday—Special Field Work.
Thursday—White Level.
Friday—3 P. M., Moulton Hayes. P. M., White Level. Saturday-A. M. Office, 6 P. M

Mapleville.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity and means to convey to my friends my sincere appreciation for their able A stick of wood weighs five pounds be impossible to see all of my support-before it is burned. Afterward there is ers, therefore, it is necessary to thank handful of ashes, you through the TIMES. The large support in the recent primary. It will be impossible to see all of my supportonly a heaped-up handful of ashes. you through the TIMES. The large Where is the rest of the wood? It has yote which the people of Franklin County gave me is assurance that the county has confidence that I will ful-Why do all crows build the same county has county had been desired in this great obligation as their representative and the same call? What unseen law or power makes the gay cardinal sing the same song that the cardinals sang the same song that the cardinals sang those who voted for or against me.

A hundred years ago?

J. S. MASSENBURG.

Being. Every phase of her handiwork WANTED—15 Cerds of Split Pine expresses the Divine touch. The great Wood Will pay cash $4.00 per cord. Lawgiver stays supreme and sees that 6-27-2t JNO. W. KING.

the most minute law of nature is fol- STRAYED OR STOLEN-One Black and white milk cow. Weight about 600 lbs. One horn off but peth there. Missed June 22, 1924. Liberal reward will be paid for imformation leading to her recovery. WILLIS YOUNG, LOUISBURG, N. C., R. F.

COMMUNITY MEETING AT MAPLE-VILLE

The following is a program for the community meeting to be held at Mapleville on Saturday, July 12th, 1924 at 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

6:00 Recreational features.

6:30—Supper. 7:30—Community singing.

7:45—Plays and games. 8:30—Addresses:

(a) Miss Elizabeth Kelly. (b) Miss Susan Landon. (c) Dr. J. Y. Joyner. (d) Mr. H. H. B. Mask. The exercises will be interspersed with good music, both vocal and instrumental.

trumental.

This meeting is a joint meeting of the Mapleville and Cedar Rock peo-ple. All are invited to come and bring

A. WHELESS, 10 MRS. C. T. DEAN.

WAR TAX LEMOVED

The public who use the telephones and telegraph lines for the dispatch of cessages will be glad to learn that the war tax was removed on Wedn day night, July 2nd at 12 o'clock. Your attention is directed to the vertisement of the Louisburg To graph Company in this issue.