

A Monument To The Vision and Generosity

OF

FRANKLIN COUNTY

The proposed Franklin County Building, soon to be erected at Louisburg College.

It will cost $150,000 and will increase the attendance at our college by 100.

The campaign is now on in Franklin County for $150,000 with which to build this new wing. Subscriptions are being taken now, payable in five annual installments.

BE ONE OF THE BUILDERS

You will be proud of your generosity for the rest of your days and you will be honored for it.

Memorial rooms will be named for donors of amounts of $1,000 to $25,000. 21 people have already taken Memorial rooms.

Donors of $500 and up will have their names inscribed on a bronze tablet to be erected in the corridor of the building.

All other donors will have their names kept in a Book of Remembrance.
