"HARD SHELL"

With all due respect to members of the Baptist church, it can be proved that they are somewhat "crabby" about their religion. Most of them are proud to be known as "hard-shell Baptists." The reference is to the "hard-shell crab," which has not molting recently and thus is known by its tough shell in distinction to the "soft-shelled crab," which is minus the advantages of a thick jacket. The term thus has come to stand for that which is crabbing.

HOGS DOUBLE PROFIT ON CORN

Raleigh, July 19.—Corn raised on land that will produce forty bushels per acre will cost around 70 cents per bushel to produce charging for man labor at 30 cents per hour. If sold as corn on the farm at $1.00 per bushel there is a profit of 30 cents per bushel, or $12.00 per acre.

When this corn is properly supplemented with balancing feeds and fed to hogs, the hogs sold at $8.25 per 100 pounds, delivered at the farm, and the costs of the supplemental feeds then deducted, the returns for corn will be about $1.30 per bushel. The profit per bushel is thereby doubled, and the plant food value of about 15 cents per bushel, will remain on the farm, thus paying handsomely for the trouble of selling the corn in this way.

When fed to hogs we have a per acre profit of $24.00 and a return per hour for human labor devoted to producing the corn of slightly over $1.00 or $10.00 per ten-hour day. This is one of the reasons why properly fed livestock is more profitable than the customary method of figuring shows states, W. W. Shay Swine Extension Specialist for the State College of Agriculture.
