NEWS FROM FRANKLINTON

The following items of news in our sister town of Franklinton was taken from the Franklinton News.

The Service Co., with H. A. McGhee in charge, has built a garage at the home of Mr. McGhee on the Louisburg road, and are about ready for business. This was necessary, on account of the building which they formerly occupied being used for other purposes.

E. H. Evans entertained a number of his friends at his home near town on Tuesday in honor of daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hockaday, of Benson. A splendid barbecue and brunswick stew dinner with all the accessories, was served. Mr. Evans is a fine host and a good time is always enjoyed at these barbecues, which are given annually.

Miss Eunice Pergurson was hostess at a delightful party at the home of her brother, Mr. J. E. Pergurson on last Thursday night. Games and dancing were enjoyed in the large hall, with music from the Victrola. Ice cream and cake were served.

Those present were the Misses Mary and Annie Bell Thompson, Nealie Winfree, Leonie Strickland, Flossie Winston, Hattie Jackson, Nannie and Eunice Pergurson; Messrs. Oble Garner and Charles Wilson of Forestville, Messrs. Walter Kittle, Sherbert Rowe, Otis Woodlief, Herman Tilleston, Ed Perdue, Jimmie Pergurson and Messrs. Rising and Thompson, and Mr. Carlton Pearce of Youngsville.

The Rev. C. L. Dowell resigned as pastor of Franklinton Baptist church at the morning service last Sunday.

His resignation is to take effect on January 1 which will complete seven years as pastor of the church.

This action on his part was not a surprise to the membership of the church since he intimated some time ago his purpose to do so. But his flock gives him up with grief. Not a man woman or child in his congregation wants him to go. Since he came into our midst his life has been a true interpretation of Oliver Goldsmith's "The Village Preacher".

"Thus to relieve the wretched was his pride,

And e'en his failings leaned to Virtue's side;

But on his duty prompt at every call,

But watch'd and wept, he pray'd and felt for all.

And, as a bird each fond endearment tries

To tempt his new-fledged offspring

He tried each art, reproved each dull delay,
Allured to brighter worlds, and led the way.

Mr. Dowell will move to Forestville, N. C. where he has recently bought a lot and built a house. Forestville will be fortunate in securing him and his fine family as citizens.—Contributed.

High praise for the personnel of the Franklinton Boy Scout troop came this week in a letter from F. A. Stall, athletic director at Camp Junaluska, where the scouts spent several days on their tour of Western Carolina. Mr. Stall writes:

"Lake Junaluska, N. C., Aug. 15, '24.

"The Franklinton Boy Scouts under the leadership of Scoutmaster L. H. Allison have spent a week with me at Lake Junaluska. I have been doing work with boys for the past 25 years; for the past three years I have been secretary of the Bays' Club of the Asheville, N. C., Y. M. C. A., and since 1911 I have been Scoutmaster and Boys' Camp Director and with all this experience with boys, I have only met one troop that compares with the Franklinton Scout troop. The most pleasant week of the summer was spent with your boys. I commend the boys for their obedience, and Scoutmaster Allison for his discipline. Your community is fortunate in having an organization like this one, and it deserves the co-operation of your community.

"I admire all the boys in the troop and learned to love them while they were in camp with me and sincerely hope that they, with Mr. Allison and Mr. Morris, will return next summer."

"F. A. STALL."
Robbers were held in the Franklinton community Thursday. Pearce's Cafe, J. O. Mitchell's Store, Lloyd's Store and Wilder's Store have all been visited under cover of dark and stocks depleted. Authorities have made no arrests in connection with any of the depredations but are working on several clues which give promise, it was said here yesterday.

Cigars, cigarettes and a few staple articles were taken from the cafe and the stores of Lloyd and Mitchell. An inventory would be necessary to determine the exact amount stolen, it was said.

Wilder's Store on route 2 was entered through a side door after failure to break the front entrance. Automobile tires and sugar were removed from this store. Wilder was on his vacation at Morehead City at the time of the robbery. A dog was found in the store next morning but evidence could not be centered upon any one from this incident, it was said in that community, as the canine had been missing for several days and probably was locked in the store before the robbery.

Last week robbers walked away with lard and sugar from a store belonging to Howard Pearce.
