TAR DROPS

Mrs. C. K. Cooke returned the past week from a visit to relatives at Franklinton.

Get a load of tobacco ready for the opening sale next Tuesday and bring it on to Louisburg.

Mrs. Mary Bunn died at her home near Pine Ridge on last Saturday and was buried in the cemetery at the old John Weathersby place on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. G. C. Williams, pastor of the Tar River circuit, has moved his family to Louisburg and is occupying rooms at the home of Mr. R. H. Strickland on east Nash street.

Attention is called to the advertisements in this issue of the Union Warehouse and the Cooperative Warehouse announcing the opening sales for next Tuesday.

LETTERS

The following letters under date of Sept. 15th have been received for publication.

Dear B. Y. P. U. Folk: I have been thinking of you quite a bit since I left, and wishing I could be back with you.

I am enjoying being a member of this B. Y. P. U., although, I miss the one at Wood. I am glad that you have reorganized and I hope you will soon be an A 1 Union. It means so much to me to have been in a member of the Wood Union. I can now see many things that I could have done while I was there that I didn't do. I regret that I didn't mean more to you than I did. If I ever have the opportunity of working with you again, I shall try to serve better.

I hope you will like your new teachers this winter. I know you will have a great winter together in both church and school.

We will soon have a new gymnasium in which we can take exercise.

With love and best wishes, I am, ELIZABETH FULLER.

Dear friends:

Although there are quite a few miles between us in reality, yet, in my imagination, I am often with you.

It is needless to tell you that it made me happy to know that the W. M. U. of Wood Baptist church won the banner at Henderson, for you are all aware of the fact that any forward movement at Wood always brings joy to me.

Our revival is in progress here, now Brother Honeycutt, of Landrum, South Carolina is helping pastor Owen during the meeting. For the past few nights, after the preaching service, groups of boys have been going to the mountain side to pray for God's presence and power in our meeting. The girls too, have been gathering in some quiet spot in God's beautiful outdoors in the early morning hours for prayer meetings. One morning there were sixty present.

A wonderful message was brought to us yesterday morning, the topic being home ties. There seemed to be hardly a person in the audience whose feelings were not deeply stirred, and many eyes were filled with tears, when their obligations to mother, dad, other loved ones, were pointed out to them.

The christian atmosphere and influence of Mars Hill College is wonderful, and one should consider it a privilege to be a student here. "I will lift mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh help," seems indeed applicable to this school.

The majority of the boys and girls here, work their way through. It is said that a boy started to school one year with nothing. He worked his way through and came out all the close of school with all expenses paid, and thirty-five cents clear. Isn't that a challenge to any boy or girl who wants an education, whether they have money or not? You know, "what has been done, can be done."

My very best wishes for your suc-

Monday, Mic. field work. Tuesday, Cedar Rock. Wednesday, Pine Ridge. Thursday, Roberts. Friday, Seven Paths. Saturday, office.

Moulton Hays Home Demonstration Club

At the September meeting of the Moulton Hays Club held at the school house, Friday afternoon, it was voted to adopt the North Carolina "ten lessons in food preparation" as the basis of the work this winter. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises led by the president. The home demonstration agent gave a talk on weights and measurements and the five classes of food. The teachers who had arrived to begin school Monday were present and were given a hearty welcome into the club.

White Level

White Levels Home Demonstration Club met at the school house at 2:30 Monday afternoon. On account of the rain only a few of the club members were present. The girls wished to have a club of their own and will meet on the Monday after the second Sunday at 11 o'clock. The Women's Club will continue to meet at 2:30 Thursday after the first Sunday. It was voted to base the winters work on North Carolina's food preparation. Plans for a community Halloween entertainment were discussed and committees appointed. The proceeds of this entertainment will be used in painting the church.

At the next meeting, October 9th, officers will be elected. It is hoped that all members will be present.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, October 6 to 11.

To stimulate interest in the forthcoming section-wide membership campaign of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce the week of October 6th the following prizes have been announced by Chairman Felix Harvey, Jr.

The county that reports its quota raised first on the morning of October 6th, will be given a full page ad in the Manufacturers Record, free; to the first town of less than 1,000 population that raises the largest amount, per capita, population, will be given a full page ad in the Manufacturers Record, free; and to the town of more than 1,000 population, that raises the largest amount per capita, will be given a full page ad in the Manufacturers Record. This, in the opinion of the committee, will serve to put "pep" in the campaign. All the towns and counties are looking for advertising, and this will make it possible for these towns and counties to get some real good advertising free. Chairman Harvey and the steering committee are very much pleased with the responses that are coming from all over the district in the interest of this campaign. "We want the people to think of it as their own campaign," said Chairman Harvey. The slogan, "Do it for Eastern Carolina" is the way to undertake this task he continued. W. B. Harvey, Chairman of the publicity end of the campaign is keeping the public informed as to all details incident to this campaign. There are about seventy newspapers on the mailing list and they are being supplied with the data. Jule K. Warren, prominent lawyer of Trenton and Chairman of the Speaker's Bureau, is going to launch an active speaking campaign, beginning the week of September 18th that will rival the National election promoters that are now holding forth over the country. Everything points to a real successful campaign. A man without a country is in a sad plight, but pity the man without a conscience.

New Giant U. S. Dirigible Makes Triumphant Test Flight in Germany

The dirigible ZR-3, soon to become the property of the United States Navy, made its third trial flight, and the largest crowd ever assembled to greet a dirigible welcomed the ship's return to Friedrichshafen, Germany, after eight hours in the air. The ZR-3 passed over Shaffhausen, Basle, St. Gall, Lucerne and Zurich, the most interesting passengers being the grandchildren of the late Count Zeppelin. Seventy persons were aboard. View shows the Zeppelin plant.
