NEW CAFE

We wish to announce to the people of Louisburg and Franklin county that we have arranged and fully equipped and newly furnished a modern cafe in a room next to our barber shop.
We have secured the services of Ada Stegall, who is one of the best cooks in town to have charge of the cooking. We expect to serve the best bill of fare that can be made up in Louisburg. You can order what you want and have it served right. We expect to make a specialty of a business mans lunch.

The cafe will be run exclusively for white people and every courtesy and accommodation will be extended those who pay us a visit.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

The tendency of boys and girls to lose their respect for parental authority is the occasion for some alarm regarding the future.

Many parents complain that as their children grow older, they cast off their obedience to the rules of conduct they once followed.

But all too often the child is not to be blamed.

The parent who does not demand respect and obedience in the beginning will not receive it in the end.

Humoring and scolding does not produce either. Instead, it creates selfishness, ingratitude and ultimate indifference.

People we dislike most are people we know least.

When Miss Mattie Lee Cooley, home agent of Northampton County weighed and measured 2,098 children last year, she found that 1427 were under-weighed and only 671 were of proper weight or slightly above. She advised them to quit drinking coffee and to drink milk, and of the 1427 which were underweight, 985 made definite gains. It was remarkable, reports Miss Cooley how the children took an interest in their health when the matter was explained to them.

When we hear a fellow orating on the glories of his past we are inclined to wonder why he is silent regarding his present.

Correct the sentence: "I get 25 miles to the gallon and never have a rattle."

FAITH

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

"AND though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains," Paul said to the Corinthians.
I used to think about this removing of mountains a good deal when I was a child and I was finally convinced that it couldn't be done, but I was wrong. I took it all literally then, but there are other mountains which faith can remove which are quite as high and impassable as those reared by earthquakes or formed by erosion and which stop our progress as completely.
There are mountains of discouragement, mountains of difficulty, mountains of temptation and sorrow which faith in ourselves, faith in other men, or faith in higher and unseen things can make as easy of traversing as a paved highway.

Garver has brains, an excellent preliminary training and a healthy body, but he is doing badly. He distrusts himself and his ability, he is easily discouraged, and will admit without argument that he is going to fail. He has no self-confidence, no faith in himself. If someone could get him to stand solidly upon his feet, to believe sincerely in his own power of accomplishment to develop personal faith, his business and intellectual salvation would be assured.

Strikeman is one of the most brilliant young fellows with whom I am acquainted. He is handsome physically; in college he was among the best in his class, but as a professional man he is neither happy nor successful. He has faith in himself, but little or none in anybody or anything else. He is cynical and supercritical of people, and he trusts very few. He laughs at religion and considers those who find help and comfort in its teachings weakly and superstitious.
His own character is guided largely by expedient rather than principle.
He has nothing higher than his own selfish interests to guide him or hold him in the path of rectitude. He is, of course, discreet, for he has no desire to come under the ban either of the law or of public opinion, but whatever can be done sub rosa is in his mind legitimate. He has his ups and downs, he has his periods of elation followed by the deepest depression, he is pretty largely what the people are with whom he associates.
People do not believe in him because he does not believe in people. They do not trust him; they do not bring him their business. His character is a weak character because it is not founded upon any definite moral or religious principles. He has no faith in man; he has no belief in God. The "evidence of things not seen" makes no appeal to him. He has virtually failed.

But to him who has faith in himself, in his fellow men and in the Creator of all things, the mountains are quite likely to disappear.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LOUISBURG WAREHOUSE LOTS

By virtue of that deed of trust made by W. H. and J. M. Allen to Wm. H.
Ruffin, Trustee, dated Nov. 1, 1920, and recorded in Book 241, page 115-16, default having been made in the payment of the debt thereby secured, and demand for foreclosure, by the holder of the debt thereby secured, the undersigned will on

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1924, at the noon recess of Court at the court house door in Louisburg, North Carolina, offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash that warehouse lot and easements known as the Farmers Co-operative Company's Warehouse situate in the town of Louisburg, North Carolina, and more particularly defined as follows:

First. That certain lot or parcel of land situate on the east side of Main street in the town of Louisburg, bounded and defined as follows: Beginning at the corner of the J. F. Jones lot (now Farmers Co-operative Company's lot) and the C. B. Cheatham lot, formerly the Boatwright Prize House lot (now Allen Machine Company's lot) on Main street an iron stake; thence along the C. B. Cheatham line (now Allen Machine Company's line) S 58 E 234 feet more or less to the corner of the Tar River Manufacturing Company's lot, formerly the Cooper lot (now John S. How-ell's lot) in the line of the S. A. L. Railway Company; thence along the line of the S. A. L. Railway N 26 3-4 W 279 feet more or less, to the corner of said railway on Main street; thence along Main street S 33 1-4 W 144 feet more or less to the point of beginning, it being the lot upon which is now situated an old dwelling house and a part of a brick Warehouse building.

And also together with the afore-described lot an descendible, transferable and assignable easement in and to and upon that strip of lan on the Southeast side or margin of the Depot site of the S. A. L. Railway, more particularly described as follows: Beginning at the Northwest corner of the foundation wall of Main street of the Warehouse now situate on said land, and running thence along Main street 23 feet to the line of the S. A. L. Railway; thence along the line of the said S. A. L. Railway N 26 3-4 E the full length of a Warehouse formerly on said lot 171 feet more or less; thence a line parallel to Main street and the first named line 23 feet to the northeast corner of the foundation wall of the said Warehouse; thence a line parallel to the S. A. L.
Railway line along the foundation wall of said warehouse 171 feet more or less, to the point of beginning, upon which was formerly located a new Jones Tobacco Warehouse building and upon which is now a portion of more than one-half in width of the said brick warehouse building, said easement being, however, limited to warehouse purposes only by the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Ruffin vs. Railroad 151 North Carolina Report, 330, which settled the title to the above described lot and right of occupancy under said easement. The said lot and easement being the same conveyed by Farmers Co-operative Company to W. H. Allen and J. M. Allen.

This Jan. 18, 1924.

1-18-24 WM. H. RUFFIN, Trustee.
The above sale was continued by consent of all parties concerned from week to week until Monday, Sept. 15, 1924, and is again continued by consent of all parties to Monday, Sept. 29, 1924, at about the hour of Noon.

This September 15, 1924.

9-19-24 WM. H. RUFFIN, Trustee.
