All You Need to Win a Shining New Automobile Is Votes

You can procure thousands of Votes by having your friends subscribe to THE FRANKLIN TIMES. The more Votes you secure the bigger your prize will be. It's easy and simple. Call at the TIMES office and learn all about this wonderful offer.

RULES AND CONDITIONS

Any white person who is of good character and a resident of the districts comprising the territory in which The Franklin Times circulates, married or unmarried, young or old, is eligible to join the "Salesmanship Club."

Any one can fill out the Nomination Coupon for themselves or for any one else. The Nomination Coupon is good for 5,000 votes. Only four Nomination Coupons will be accepted for each member.

Nomination Coupons may be secured upon request or may be clipped from any issue of The Franklin Times. However it is not absolutely necessary to fill out the Nomination Coupon as you can enter the club by simply telephoning or writing the Manager of The Franklin Times "Salesmanship Club."

No salaried employee of The Franklin Times, or any member of an employee's immediate family will be allowed to enter to take part in the "Salesmanship Club."

Votes will be issued on all subscriptions paid in advance to The Franklin Times from 12 to 72 months.

Votes positively cannot be purchased.

All remittances must be accompanied by the subscribers name and address.

Votes are not transferable. Under no condition can one member change votes in favor of another member.

There are two ways of securing vote credits: First, by clipping the Nomination Coupon, appears in the paper, Second, by securing paid in advance subscriptions to The Franklin Times.

Cash must accompany all subscriptions where votes are to be credited.

Members may secure votes and subscriptions anywhere they choose. They are not limited or restricted to any one district.

Members should turn in their subscriptions as fast as they are secured, so that these subscribers may receive their papers at the earliest possible moment.

A subscriber once turned in by a member and extended at any time during the campaign or drive beyond the time it was originally turned in for will have the same vote value as though the full subscription had been turned in originally.

All matter printed elsewhere relative to the campaign in today's issue is hereby made a part of the rules and regulations governing the "Salesmanship Club."

Any question that may arise during the "Salesmanship Club" will be decided by the Manager, of the Campaign and the decision of The Franklin Times will be final.

The "Salesmanship Club" will be 6 weeks long, officially beginning with the first official published list of the names of the Club Members.

The Campaign is for individuals only.

The Judges awards are final and in no instance will a commission be paid, in lieu of a prize.

A list of members' names and the number of their votes accepted for publication will be printed from time to time throughout the entire period of competition.

In case of a tie, rewards of equal value will be given those members polling the tie votes.

No statement made by any solicitor or any other person varying from the rules or statements published in The Franklin Times will be recognized by the Manager.

The Franklin Times reserves the right to correct mistakes or typographical errors or to change the plan, or to make any additions to these rules and conditions that may be decided necessary to the interest or welfare of the members. Right is also reserved to add to the list of rewards announced or add additional or extra prizes.

Persons who enter or take part in The Franklin Times "Salesmanship Club," will bind themselves to abide by these rules.

The Franklin Times reserves the right to reject any nomination. The awarding of the prizes at the end of the campaign will be left to representative business or professional men of Louisburg and the territory in which The Franklin Times circulates.

Address all nominations and communications relative to the "Salesmanship Club" to the Manager of The Franklin Times "Salesmanship Club," Louisburg, N. C.
