The Modern Idea in WATCHES

THE modern idea in watches is FIRST a good "Time Piece". After that comes refinements of manufacture and design. Time has made clear to us, for example, that when a father buys a watch, he wants it to last more than his OWN life. He wants to give it to his son, in turn.

This store has always specialized in "Time Pieces". As the minutes tick off, we care less about adornment than accuracy. Here you will find the dependable makes—proud acquisitions for the generations to come. And there are the daintiest, prettiest watches for women, too—new models, new designs. It will be worth your while to come and see them.

We wish to call your attention to the W. W. W. line of Guaranteed Pearls, just in. Never were such pearls offered at this price and with such a guarantee. Then there are the new White Gold 18-K diamond rings, engagement rings, wedding rings—and mountings we can make for you, if your present rings are frankly "out of style".

MR. SAMUEL C. VANN DIES IN 73RD YEAR

of the life of a community. Flanking the home on the one side is the Methodist church and on the other the Franklin-on Township school. The church, builded before large wealth crowned the wise labor of Mr. Vann, owed its possibility even then to his liberal gifts and personal efforts. Through the years it has held high place in his affections. The school, the most complete in all of its appointments yet built in the State, is his last gift to his community.

As the funeral procession walked slowly down the long walk the church and all of its approaches were crowded with a multitude eager to show their friend honor, while before the school were massed the 800 school children who are the first of thousands to benefit by his great gift.

The pallbearers were men who from their youth to manhood have been closely associated with him and who bore tenderly one whom they loved: J. W. Daniel, L. H. Allison, George Gilliam, P. P. Purnell, J. O. Purnell, R. J. Rose, Dr. A. R. Winston, E. J. Cheatham and Prof. R. B. White. Preceding the body walked his pastor, Rev. E. H. Davis, and Dr. N. H. D. Wilson, for many years close personal friends, who conducted the funeral jointly, and Rev. A. S. Barnes, superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage, and Rev. C. L. Dowell, former pastor of the Franklin Baptist Church. The immense collection of flowers was carried from the house to the grave. To the church were carried only the few from the immediate family. He lay in his beloved church, wrapt in the floral offerings of his children.

No Eulogy Uttered

In respect to his known wish, no eulogy, even indirect, was spoken. Minds and hearts were full of memory. Citizens-thought of good roads smoothed for many passers-by, industries which gave work and opportunity to many, homes made possible by opportune help, educations gained through his assistance; of church erected and supported by his aid, of school possible by his gift, of widows relieved, of orphans fed and taught. Children thought of his smiling face as he gave them their Christmas dollars; the men of his words of faith and hope and gratitude. But no word was spoken. He did not wish his funeral to be an occasion to advertise his merit but his Master's mercies. And so it was.

The hymns "How Firm a Foundation," "Lead Kindly Light," "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand," "Jerusalem, the Golden," and "Jesus Lover of My Soul" were sung at the church or the grave. The lessons appointed by the church were read. Brief prayers were made by his pastor and his friends. His body was lowered into its rest. Flowers were banked over it, over the grave of his wife and far beyond either. The children of the school pressed near to see the beautiful scene. Dr. Wilson read the hymn from the Episcopal Hymnal, "Praise in Thy Graceful Keeping. Leave We now Thy Servant Sleeping," and as the dark of the evening gathered they turned back to take up again life with our their friends. A beautiful service, beautiful in its simplicity.

Large Numbers Attend

It would be impossible to note the presence of all who came to do him honor. Rich and poor high and low, white and colored, young and old, they came from far and near. Among those best known from without the home county were noted: Joseph G. Brown, Dr. Albert Anderson, Rev. A. S. Barnes, Judge J. Crawford Biggs, G. H. Andrews, A. B. Andrews, Raleigh; Hon. R. N. Page, Aberdeen; Dr. R. T. Vann, Durham; Dr. and Mrs. E. T. White, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Canady, Oxford, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wyche, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson, of Roanoke Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. S. Davis, Mr. J. B. Owen, Mr. George Harris, Mr. S. P. Cooper, of Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McCullough, of Charlotte; Rev. Stanley White of Washington, D. C.; Mr. J. M. Gordon and Mr. T. D. Peck, of Warrenton; Dr. and Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson, of Elizabeth City; and Dr. N. Y. Gulley, Prof. R. B. White, of Wake Forest College.

PROOF OF PUDDING IS IN THE EATING

Tucker Clothing Company, Henderson, N. C.
 Dear Mr. Tucker:-
 The overcoat came this morning and the only thing about it that does not look like a $35.00 coat is the figures on the ticket. With coats like this you should sell every man within 50 miles of Henderson. And with good roads and cheap gasoline it would not be poor business to ride even further. Really it is a very exceptional coat and worth $35.00.
 Special Note—This letter is from a customer out of town who sent us his order by mail. The overcoat referred to is one of our regular $25 coats that we have been telling you so much about recently. We have plenty more just like the one mentioned above and they come in the newest styles and colors at $25 each. The above letter is on file at our office and may be seen by any person who wishes to verify this statement.

BUYING GROCERIES from this Store is a Pleasant Economy

By pleasant economy, we mean that you are always assured the utmost in quality at the lowest possible prices. Buying supplies for your table because the price is low is not always economy. But buying Quality Groceries from this store, where the margin of profit is always low, is a real saving, for there is no waste to what you get.

We have just received a car of Flour and can make the price interesting. Also just received a car of Brick.

BUGGIES AND WAGONS

I have a big lot of nice buggies, both open and top, steel and rubber tired that I am offering at prices that will surprise you. I have a lot of Farm Wagons, both one and two horse, and a big lot of harness. Let me supply your needs.

Don't forget to bring your cotton to me to be ginned and get a ticket that may win one of the big prizes that will be given away in December.
