This Grade Cow More than Doubled her Milk Yield in 2 Years!

Early in August, 1921, a grade Holstein was received at the Larro Research Farm, and given a number—158. In 270 days, which constituted her first milking period, she produced 5,651.2 lbs. of milk. In the first 270 days of her next milking period she produced 10,643.3 lbs. And in the first 270 days of her third milking period she gave 12,157.1 lbs. Think of it—an increase of 130% in milk production in two years! And during her first two years on the Larro Farm her weight increased from 843 lbs. to 1226 lbs.—or 45%. There is real profit in such a cow as No. 158 is today. Yet it does not cost much more to feed and maintain her now than it did when her production was less than half what it is. The important point to you is that many of your own cows may show equally satisfactory results with the same management and care—plus Larro. You can easily prove that Larro is a money-maker by trying it on your herd and keeping records of milk produced per dollar spent for feed.

AN OUTSTANDING SERVICE

The case is reported in the press of a letter, written by a soldier during the Civil War, which was delivered a few days ago to a relative of the one to whom it was addressed.

Such instances are unusual. The postoffice department functions with great precision and provides splendid service for the people.

The circumstance which was given widespread publicity, because it was rare, might be contrasted with the thousands and thousands of cases where mail is delivered promptly.

The postoffice department is in receipt of frequent letters commending the mail service, but none quite equals the record which a Utah woman reports.

For ten years she has been maintaining a weekly correspondence with her sister in England, and up to August 1 of this year, each woman had written 520 letters to each other, not one of which had been lost.

This record reveals a state of perfection that is seldom reached and though it is uncommon, it indicates that the postal service is very efficient branch of the government.

During the holiday season it is put to the supreme test and every one who can do anything to relieve the burden will be performing a worthwhile service. Mailing gifts early is one way in which every person can help.

HE WANTED IT READ

The Franklin Times has often carried short notices calling attention to the value of advertising in this paper but a recent experience of an editor as reported by a paper in South Dakota again shows that newspaper advertising is more effective than that secured through the use of billboards. This experience as given by the Division of Publications of the State College Extension Service is as follows:

"An editor and a merchant were discussing the virtue of billboard advertising. The merchant contended that more people read the billboards than the newspaper. After a lengthy conversation in which neither man would give in, the men parted. The next week the merchant came tearing down the street to the newspaper office wanting to know why the obituary of his wife's mother was not in the paper, especially after he had seen that a copy was taken to the newspaper office.

"Well," said the editor, "I know you wanted the obituary read by the people, so I took it out and nailed it up on your billboard."

PROCRASTINATION

Do it today and do it right. Those who make this a rule of life find success is not so difficult.

Most of the failures in the business world are due to short sightedness and procrastination. Putting it off until tomorrow in many cases means that it is never done, and it is the things that are not done which cause the receipt to dwindle until the business is eventually wrecked.

Doing it today is just as easy as putting it off and it is far more pleasant and produces more satisfactory results.

The world is full of physical and commercial wrecks. The man who is a physical has-been waited too long before he attempted to correct the trouble and the fellow who is down at the heels financially as a rule depended upon a tomorrow that never came. Do it today.
