TAR DROPS

—Its a fine little girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Smithwick.

—Quite a number of Franklin county Co-ops went to Raleigh Tuesday to attend the Co-op meeting.

—The next week will be filled with Commencements. The Graded School finishes today and the College finals begin Sunday.

—In the report of the Court proceedings last week our reporter made an error in the report of the case of State vs C. W. Boswell for fraudulent kidnapping by stating the term of road sentence as 2 years when it should have read 1 year. We make this statement in order that our reports may be correct.

COWS AND CHICKENS ADD MONEY INCOME

Raleigh, May 18.—Four cows and a flock of Barred Plymouth Rock poultry transformed the grain farm of Joe Ridenhour of Rockwell in Rowan County from a poorly paying enterprise into one which keeps the level of work about the same during the year and in addition pays a handsome income to the operator.

The story is told by W. G. Yeager, county agent for the Agricultural Extension Service of State College, who says, "Mr. Ridenhour moved to his present farm about four years ago. He began his farming operations by growing wheat, some cotton, corn and other grains. He kept one cow. Two years of grain and cotton farming convinced Mr. Ridenhour that he needed something to supply him with more money. Casting about for a solution, he and his wife decided to add more cows and start a flock of pure bred poultry. They did. I visited them last week and found that the dependent grain farm, with its seasons of overwork and underwork, has been transformed into an independent farm with the level of work more nearly uniform throughout the year and with an established, weekly, cash income.

Mrs. Ridenhour takes good care of the cream and they now have a good butter trade in Salisbury. They sold 996 pounds from the four cows last year for a total of about $500 in cash. The poultry brought in about half this amount and according to the increase in flocks and the better production now being secured from the cows, they expect to raise their income from these sources to over $1,000 this year."

Mr. Yeager states that this is only a small one-man farm but that it is bringing to its owner success and financial independence. The cows and poultry pointed the way, he says.

H. F. Mitchell, of Rocky Ford, had his entire farm flock of poultry vaccinated for fowl typhoid last week following the report of Dr. B. F. Kaupp of Raleigh, which said his trouble was fowl typhoid. Fowl typhoid is sometimes called "chicken cholera" by mistake. Mr. Mitchell had lost eight hens at the time the vaccination was done. The results of this vaccination is being watched with eager interest.
