CO-OPS SET GOAL AT 200,000,000 New Board in Action

Quickly Follows Wishes Of Members As Expressed In Big Annual Meeting.

(S. D. Frissell)

Adopting the slogan of "200 million pounds of tobacco for 1925" last week, at their first meeting, the newly elected board of the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association, whose new members are all dirt farmers, were quick to get into action with policies recommended at the recent record breaking annual session of 1500 members at Raleigh.

To bring the management and the membership into close contact in carrying on the business of the tobacco association, the board last week agreed to put into effect the resolution urged by the members in annual session which creates an advisory board in each of the 22 districts covered by the association in three states, consisting of the delegates who are elected by the members each year to name their directors.

According to the action of the board these delegates will meet with the director of each district "quarterly" and as often as the director or a majority of the committee think advisable. It shall be their duty to consider all matters of policy and the personnel of the organization operating in their district as advisory.

Another important decision of the newly elected governing board of the tobacco co-ops last week was to carry on all present suits begun by the association and to rigidly enforce the marketing contract in the courts but to deduct no penalties from deliveries of tobacco of the 1925 crop from those who have failed to make deliveries in other years.

By this action of the new board, no member who delivers his tobacco to the association in 1925 need have any fear that deduction will be made from payments to him from next season's crop to meet claims which the association has against him for failure to deliver tobacco of other crops.

The association is looking to large increase of deliveries this year following the assurances of support from its representative members in annual session.

In assuring members who have failed in past years to make full or partial deliveries of tobacco to the cooperative warehouses that no deductions will be made from their 1925 tobacco, the governing body of the tobacco association have taken a definite step towards their goal of 200 million pounds of tobacco in the coming season.

GRIFFIN-SCOTT

Invitation reading as follows have been received by friends: "Mrs. Julia Pleasants Scott requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Mildred Reid, to Mr. Edward Foster Griffin on Thursday evening, the eighteenth of June, at nine o'clock, Methodist Episcopal Church South, Louisburg, North Carolina."

The bride is one of Louisburg's most popular and deserving young ladies possessing a wonderful personality which makes friends and admirers of her many acquaintances. She is the daughter of Mrs. Julia Pleasants Scott and a grand-daughter of the late Capt. W. H. Pleasants.

The groom is a popular and progressive young lawyer, being the Junior partner with Hon. Ben T. Holden. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Griffin.

The popularity of this young couple will cause the coming event to be watched with much interest.

IS YOUNGVILLE DEAD OR NOT?

In last week's Times the people of Youngville said their little town was not dead. If it is not dead it did not do everything that has been done alone. The $40,000 school building was not built by Youngville people alone, but by the country people also.

Youngville might have had a B. Y. P. U. before Franklinton, Oak Grove, Harris Chapel, or Flat Rock, but they did not organize the Harris Chapel B. Y. P. U. Pierce's B. Y. P. U. gave a demonstration program at Harris Chapel about eight years ago and the people organized a B. Y. P. U. but it soon died because there were not enough young people to keep it going.

About two years ago Rolesville B. Y. P. U. organized Harris Chapel B. Y. P. U. and since then Harris Chapel has had a wide-awake union. It had an A-1 B. Y. P. U. for the past year and won an A-1 pennant.

Youngville still has a B. Y. P. U. but like Harris Chapel it has been re-organized. Last fall J. D. Morris, then president of Harris Chapel Union, organized the Youngville B. Y. P. U. After they were organized Franklinton gave them a program.

(The above item was handed us by a resident of Youngville community, who felt a little hurt by his community not having been included in the Youngville write-up last week. We know that Youngville appreciates the co-operation of its entire community, therefore we are giving space to the article, that they may be included in the "Living Dead Town in the State."—Editor.)

HOME DEMONSTRATION DEPT.

Contributed Weekly By Miss Daisy Caldwell, Agent

Itinerary June 15th-20th Monday—White Level Girl's Club. Tuesday—Field work. Wednesday—Wood. Thursday—Mitchiner. Friday—Bunn.

Miss Caldwell, after a vacation will be back on duty, Monday, June 15th.

Franklin County is entitled to have eleven girls at the Club Short Course at State College July 6th-11th. Girls Clubs should get to work at once and have one or more representatives there.

Gold-Sand and Mapleville Clubs are already at work on plans to raise money to pay the expenses of representatives. Expenses for the week will be about $10. No one will be allowed to attend the short course except club members who are up with their projects. If any club girl can go and pay her own expenses she should communicate with Miss Caldwell as it is not at all probable that the eleven places will be filled with girls whose expenses are paid by the club.

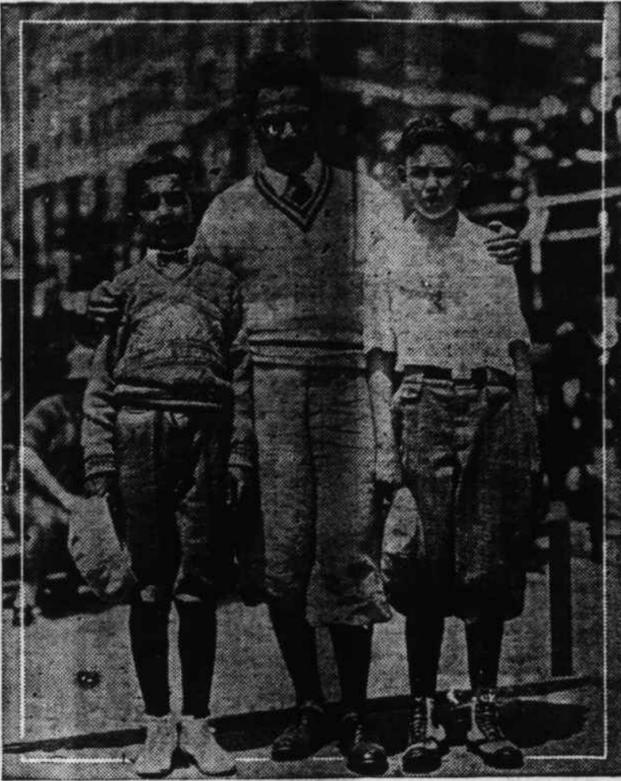

Mapleville Girl's Club Mapleville Girl's Club met with Ruth Perry on Tuesday afternoon. The first part of the meeting was spent in darning and patching. Three girls were appointed to represent the club at the State Short Course. They decided to sell ice cream and lemonade to help defray the expenses.

Banana sandwiches and lemonade were served. About fifteen members and visitors were present at this meeting. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Strange.

If you can't get to the seashore or the mountains come to the Chautauqua, plenty fresh air, inspiring music and enjoyable performances. June 22nd, day and night, balance of week 6-12-11

THE COMING INDUSTRIAL SECTION

For many years, probably due to a prejudice that held over from Civil War days, the people of the North have regarded the South as a part of the United States where they grew some tobacco, some cotton and the white people indulged in abusing the negroes. Few have recognized that the territory covered by the states called the South is, as a whole, the richest in general resources of any section of the Union.

Today the people of the whole nation are awakening to the truth. During the past several years the South has impressed itself on the industrial world. Because of labor difficulties, some years ago certain manufacturing concerns in the New England States turned their attention to the South. There they found conditions favorable to carrying on their manufacturing enterprises without the consent of unions, dominated largely by foreigners.

The Southern States are proud of the fact that the great mass of the population is American. The people as yet have been unaffected by the killing germ of Socialism and Communism. Moreover, noting what these germs have done to certain Northern states, any attempt to transplant them to the South will meet with a proper and violent opposition. While West Virginia is not always counted as a part of the South, yet here the move to inject Socialism and Communism through the United Mine Workers has met with a proper rebuke. Today West Virginia is the salvation of the nation because its mines are permitted to operate and supply coal to the American consumers.

The South is developing some of the greatest hydro-electric power plants in the world. Power will soon be cheap throughout these states. Transportation facilities, both rail and water, are excellent. As reliable American help, cheap power and good transportation are the three essentials to industrial activities, and the South is able to present itself as possessing all of these, naturally industrial growth will result.

The New York Commercial has great confidence in that section of the country because it is yet so thoroughly American, and because its people still believe in this country and our form of government. The New York Commercial has done considerable personal investigating of the truth about the South. It has yet to find an instance where the facts have been overstated save here and there where some individual has become too optimistic.—N. Y. Commercial, June 5.

OF INTEREST TO AUTOMOBILE AND TRUCK OWNERS

In line with its policy of serving the motoring public in every possible way, The Carolina Motor Club has established a branch Automobile License Bureau in Louisburg. Mr. R. C. Beck has been appointed Local Manager of the Club and will handle the plates at his garage. This will be a great convenience to car owners of Louisburg and vicinity.

Mr. Beck stated that all trucks must be registered and truck owners are advised to be prepared to give Model and Motor Number and also information as to when and where they purchased truck. Car owners who have already registered their cars must either show original title when applying for license or offer evidence of correct title number. Those who have purchased cars on installments and whose titles are being held by Finance or Credit Companies must write to such companies requesting their title numbers and the Company's reply stating title number must be shown when purchasing license.

Licenses now being used expire June 30th. Plates for the new year will go on sale June 15th, thus allowing owners 15 days in which to secure new license. Office will be open from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. No tags sold after 5 P. M. Mr. Beck is not allowed to accept personal checks.

MISS FULLER ENTERTAINS

Miss Josephine Fuller of near town gave a party on Friday evening last, in honor of her guests, Misses Sallie Lyon, of Neuse, and Pearl Wiggins, of Wendell.

After spending a while in conversation on the spacious porch where the moon was shining brightly, the guests were served with refreshments consisting of pineapple and banana sandwiches, and ice tea with lemon and cherries.

Everyone declared the occasion one of the most enjoyable of the season. The out-of-town guests were Misses Sallie Lyon, Neuse, Pearl Wiggins, Wendell, Messrs. W. G. Farabow and R. E. Prince, of Fuquay Springs.

LEONARD-HARRIS

The Methodist Episcopal Church was the scene of a most beautiful wedding at six o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June the tenth, when Miss Alice Harris and Mr. Walter Leonard were married by Rev. Mr. Dowd. The church and choir rail were banked with ferns, and clusters of Queen's Anne's lace gracefully arranged amid them made a fitting setting for the ceremony. Mrs. O. Y. Yarboro presided at the organ assisted by Dr. Johnson on the violin. Mrs. Berkeley sang "I Love You" just prior to the entrance of the Bridal party. Promptly at six o'clock Mrs. Yarboro played L'phengrin's Wedding March, and down each aisle came the girl friends of the bride taking their places in the front pews. Following these came the ushers, Messrs. George Ford, and Napier Williamson, William White and Mack Stamps. The bride then entered with her sister, Miss Jessie Taylor Harris, gowned in ecru lace over pink carrying Columbia Roses. The bride was lovely in orchid crepe satin delicately embroidered in corresponding shades, wearing hat to match. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Hameric, from Lexington, Virginia. The impressive wedding ceremony was used. The party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's march, and went to the home of the bride where amid much merriment and many good wishes, the happy couple left in Mr. Leonard's car for a bridal trip followed by the interest and congratulations of their host of friends. The out-of-town guests for the wedding were Messrs. Charlie and Herbert Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Fink, of Greensboro, Mr. Leonard, of Salisbury, and Mrs. John Uzzell.

RESOLUTIONS FROM U. D. C.

Again Death has visited our midst and taken from our Joseph J. Davis Chapter, U. D. C. a valued and honored member. Mrs. Ida Outlaw Pearce was the wife of Mr. John Pearce, who was the second man from Franklin County to offer his allegiance and services to the Southern Confederacy, and Mrs. Pearce always cherished most tenderly the memory of his devotion to this cause.

We realize the many sterling qualities which adorned her character, her beautiful christian faith, her kindly charity for the outside world, and her deep, intense love for her children and grand-children.

She lived for them, and for their good in every way, and her counsels and influence should ever be to them a precious legacy.

Resolved 1st, That we, as members of this Chapter appreciate all that was beautiful in her life, and strive to emulate her virtues.

2nd, That we extend our warm, sincere sympathy to her bereaved loved ones.

3rd, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, and one to the Franklin Times for publication, and one be placed on the minutes of our Chapter.

Mrs. C. K. Cooke, Mrs. R. H. Davis, Mrs. J. E. Malone, Committee.

PARTY FOR MISS HARRIS

Mrs. Frank Rose and Miss Beatrice Turner entertained at nine tables of bridge Tuesday morning in honor of Miss Alice Harris, bride-elect. The spacious porch had been tastefully decorated in larkspur and sweet peas. Mrs. Rose and Miss Turner met their guests and presented each a score card with a dainty bride's picture. After four progressions it was found Mrs. M. S. Clifton held top score and was presented with a lace handkerchief. Miss Harris as guest of honor was given a flower vase, and Miss Clarisse Rose, house guest of Mrs. Rose and Miss Turner was presented with a lace handkerchief. Silver bride's slippers were given as favors. A salad course with iced tea was served. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Norman Y. Chambliss, of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Alexander Veasey, of Goldsboro, Miss Elba Henninger, of Henderson and Miss Clarisse Rose, of Statesville.

IN HONOR OF MISS GLADYS SLEDGE

Misses Edna and Annie Lee Stallings informally entertained with a kitchen shower Wednesday, June 10, from 3:30 to 6:00 in honor of Miss Gladys Sledge. A progressive game of Put and Take afforded the chief entertainment of the afternoon, the highest score being won by Master Therman Stallings, who presented, in a very cunning manner, a rolling pin to Miss Sledge. The booby prize, a miniature rolling pin, was presented to Miss Inez Sykes.

A beautifully decorated express wagon, containing an elaborate display of kitchen utensils, was drawn in to Miss Sledge by Master Therman Stallings.

The refreshments consisted of punch, mint and a salad course. Those enjoying the hospitality of the Misses Stallings were: Miss Gladys Sledge, Sarah Gilliam, Cornelia Boone, Inez Sykes, Leah Cooke, Lucile Inscoc, Edna Viverette, Minnie and Eva Cooke, Martha Gray Dean, Eula, Louise and Lucretia Dean, and Virgie Gupton, of Rocky Mount.
