

TO THE TOBACCO GROWERS

OF
Franklin & Adjoining Counties

I wish to say I have leased the RIVERSIDE INDEPENDENT WAREHOUSE in Louisburg for the coming season with an option on same for 5 years. I have had a great deal of experience in running a Tobacco Sale. In coming before you a stranger I trust I shall soon outgrow this feature, as I want to meet you as fast as I can get to you.

I will appreciate a part of your trade, and if hard work, fair dealing count for anything I am going to furnish that. You know my place of business and when in town drop in and make yourselves at home.

I want you when in town, with or without tobacco, to visit my sales for there is where I get in my best work.

Mr. G. C. Harris, whom you all know, is with me and will be glad to see and serve you. With best wishes, I am

YOURS TRULY,

R. W. HUTCHERSON, Prop'r.

WIGGINS REUNION

On Saturday, August 22 there gathered at the home of Mr. Green Wiggins near Flat Rock church on Louisburg, Route 3, a large number of relatives of the old Wiggins family for an all-day reunion. It was a great day for all who attended, and will be long remembered as a day of pleasure and inspiration. It was indeed a pleasant experience to see so many kindred of the same family coming together to renew the ancient family ties and to do honor to the names of their forebears. There were some to clasp the hands of loved ones for the first time in many years, while there were also some to see their younger cousins, nieces and nephews for the first time.

It was estimated that there are probably nearly three hundred descendants of the Wiggins family, and it was the regret of all present that it was not possible for all of them to attend. However, the number kept growing until when the count was taken in the afternoon, there were present one hundred twenty-six members of the family.

Of the original Wiggins household there are only three now living: Mr. George W. Wiggins, aged 78, of Wake Forest, Route 1; Mrs. T. C. Powell, aged 76, of Wake Route 1; and Mr. Green Wiggins, aged 75, of Louisburg, Route 1. All three of these were present and seemed to enjoy the occasion greatly. The oldest person was Mrs. Freeman, the saintly mother of Mrs. Green Wiggins. Mrs. Freeman is now past ninety-three and is confined to her room but was able to talk to all the guests as they went in to see her. Mrs. Lucy Little, the oldest grand-child in the family, was present with a large number of her own children and grand-children.

After all the relatives had arrived, a beautiful and delightful repast was spread on a long table prepared in the grove at the Wiggins Home. Following the singing of the favorite hymn, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder," the pastor of Flat Rock Church lead the gathering in prayer. After consultation with various members of the family, it was decided that the reunion at the Wiggins home should be made an annual occasion, the time for the meeting to be on the fourth Saturday of Each August.
