TAR DROPS

Monday week is Court week. The weather the past week has looked very much like snow. Cotton sold for 18 1-2 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday. Mr. W. R. Fulghum, of Cedar Rock brought a number of fine sweet potatoes to the TIMES office Tuesday and placed on display. They are among the largest we have seen this season and one is about the largest we have ever seen. Daisy XX Red Dog, Ship Stuff and all kind hog, cow, horse, pig, hen feed, at JNO. W. THE MAGIC CARPET

Once upon a time in the mystic land of Persia, there was found among the treasures of a king, a wonderful carpet. One had only to sit on it, wish to be somewhere, and away the carpet would fly till the wished-for place was reached. For hundreds of years it carried kings and princes upon the most amazing adventures. No one knows what finally became of it but it may be that its last threads went into the make-up of the first Youth's Companion. For, like the magic carpet. The Companion for 1926 carries you to the land of your heart's desire—up into the Maine woods with the lumbermen; out on the western plains where the warlike Navaho Indians live; far up into the gold regions of Alaska; and away on the Southern Seas in search of treasures and lost islands. All you need for such extraordinary adventures is a young heart and a Youth's Companion. Don't lose time in getting started; subscribe now and receive: 1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues, in 1926, and 2. The remaining issues of 1925. All for only $2. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $2.50. THE YOUTH'S COMPANION S N Dept., Boston, Mass.

There are 2,083 counties in the United States employing farm demonstration agents. This is more people than there are men, women, and children in Louisburg. A good army of workers battling against insects, diseases, bulles, stumps, low prices, improper fertilizers, poor seed, and scrub stock, the farmer's worst enemies.

M. C. Smith, of Hickory Rock, had about 800 pounds of the best grade of his tobacco stolen from the old store house in which he had it packed a few days ago. It was ready to be sold but when he went for it only trash remained. The thief has not been apprehended.

MRS. CLIFTON ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. M. S. Clifton was hostess to the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Book Club and a number of friends on Tuesday afternoon, October twenty-seventh. The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. Watson and after the minutes were read and roll called the following program was rendered. Mrs. R. F. Yarborough read an unusually interesting paper entitled "Looking Westward," which was written in an historical as well as imaginative style. This was followed by an impressive paper "The Ocean-Finder-Balboa" by Mrs. Beck. The duet, Bella Napoli, a song of Venice was beautifully sung by Mrs. Nohn and Mrs. White. Mrs. Boddie then read an account of the sinking of a ship during the World War. "Columbus" one of America's greatest and best known poems was read by Miss Lola Jackson. The last number of a delightful program was two songs "A Venetian Song," sung by John McCormack and "Thank God for a Garden." Mrs. Clifton then served her guests a delicious luncheon.

PERSONAL MESSAGES

Advertisements are open letters to the buying public written in good faith. Though they generalize, advertisements make a personal appeal. The merchant who runs an advertisement in the newspaper over his name addresses you as though he mailed you a letter with his signature attached. The advertisement has an advantage over the sealed letter in that it is brought into the light of day. It dispels any suspicion you may have that the merchant is making another customer a better offer. When a merchant inserts an advertisement, he realizes that he has obligated himself to give the merchandise as represented at the price stated. His name attached puts him on record as standing back of what he says. You can't go wrong reading the advertisements and following their advice. It is the only real way to be informed on what's to be had. You have neither time nor patience to "shop" in every store in town. Select what you want from the advertisements and then buy it. The merchant's name at the bottom is his guarantee that he will keep the agreement made. Learn Where To Buy Better Read The Advertisements Distance may lead enchantment, but not when you are up in the air. Some people surprise themselves by getting along as well as they do.

IT SEZ THAT A PRIZE-FIGHTER MARRIED A LADY WRESTLER. GOSH—I'D LIKE TO SEE THEM ARGUE!

Figure this out! Jones' vines were just loaded with grapes this year but he wouldn't give any away—didn't eat any—he wouldn't sell any and his wife didn't make jelly! Neighbors are wondering what he did with them.

A local barber was stricken in the barber shop last week when one of the patrons gave him a half dollar tip. He was doing nicely in hospital, but has had a severe relapse since the nurse found the coin had a hole in it.

A NARROW ESCAPE: A number of local men were talking in a cigar store about a doctor who had lost so many cases and John said: "I think doctors are the bunk and they can't do anything even tho they did save my life once?" "How did they save your life?" "Well, I was sick and I went to a doctor andhe was out.

PRIZE STORY. The stern school principal frowned over his glasses at the two girlish figures before him. They must be twins, they looked alike, acted and dressed the same. Each was bobbed of hair and both were dressed in pink crepe frocks that reached—not quite to their knees. And what is your name, he asked, indicating the child on the left. Slowly he wrote it down, as she spoke. And what is your twin sister's name? Sir, spoke the other in a husky voice? I AM THIS CHILD'S MOTHER.

NOTICE IN CITY PAPER. Appear smart! City people going to the country should take along one of our illustrated animal books, so they can identify the horses, cows and pigs.

TAIL LIGHTS TOO. Everybody says that in ten years the air will be full of aeroplanes. Now is the time for some enterprising young man to invent a bumper for birds.

Father used to cut his old trousers down so son could wear them but nuther now wears her young daughter's dresses without any trouble at all.

SLOW FREIGHT. Man to conductor—"How long does it take this train to get to Belleville?" Conductor—"A little over three hours!" Man—"That's poor service. This train is slower than a lazy snail." Conductor—"Well you can get off and walk if you don't like it." Man—"No, I'll ride, I'm in no hurry."

NOT SO DUMB. "Mother, who is the biggest woman in town?" "I think Mrs. Smith, who lives down the street is the biggest. Why do you ask?" "Oh nothin, I was just wonderin' if she'll lend me one of her stockings. I'd give it right back after Christmas."

NOTICE Having qualified as Executor of the estate of Mrs. F. B. Freeman, deceased, late of Franklin County, N. C., notice is hereby given all persons holding claims against said estate to present them to the undersigned on or before the 6th day of November, 1926, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please come forward and make immediate settlement. This November 6th, 1925. 11-6-6t W. M. FREEMAN, Executor.

SAVE TIME AND MONEY Why waste time in useless "shopping around" when the advertisements lay before you the choicest wares of every progressive merchant in town? Why use needless effort in an endless store-to-store quest when the advertisements enable you to make your choice of the first merchandise without even leaving your home? Why pay more than you ought when you can stretch your dollar to the elastic limit by taking advantage of the bargains and good buys that are advised in this paper? Why risk dissatisfaction by buying unknown, unbranded goods when you can assure yourself complete satisfaction by buying any advertised product, backed by the integrity of a man or group of men who spend real money to establish their name and to build up public good will? READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS IT'S A SAFE AND SOUND POLICY BUY ADVERTISED GOODS Doctors say we eat too fast and rest of us do. We try to keep our food down by bolting it. Don't help your ch. res on school problems. It isn't right. The children discover that next day. If this country isn't the greatest place in the world to live, why do so many people try to get in? None of us like to be told that we lack civilization in America, but it doesn't do any harm for somebody to tell us now and then.
