OUR RALEIGH LETTER (Continued from page two) had its deed of trust recorded and claims the first right to dispose of the property. Judge Midyette grants the State a restraining order and the Attorney General is fighting to have it made permanent.

The Publicity Committee of the North Carolina Orphan Association has mailed an appeal for a Thanksgiving offering for the various orphan homes to 20,000 individual citizens of the State, with the suggestion that each one forward a cash contribution, in some amount, to the orphanage of his choice on, or near, Thanksgiving Day. Or, says the committee, the amount may be forwarded through church and Sunday School authorities and fraternal orders. The pastors of churches, editors of newspapers, public officials and others are admonished to give the widest possible publicity to the movement, which is philanthropic in purpose and state-wide in extent. The amount suggested is one day's income.

LEAF TOBACCO

R. W. HUTCHERSON. Proprietor

LOUISBURG, N. C.,

Farmer Friends:

I wish to say my sales have been very satisfactory to my customers, and if you have not sold any Tobacco with me I will appreciate your next load. I am doing all I can to help swell this market in every way possible. I certainly thank those that have stood by me and hope to make many more new customers before the market closes. Come to see me, you shall not regret it.

Yours Friend,

R. W. HUTCHERSON.
