

WHAT IS LIFE TO YOU

To the soldier life's a battle,
To the teacher life's a school;
Life's a "good thing" for the grafter;
It's a failure to the fool.
To the man upon the engine
Life's a long and heavy grade;
It's a gamble to the gambler;
To the merchant it's a trade.

Life's a picture to the artist,
To the rascal life's a fraud;
Life perhaps, is but a burden
To the man beneath the hod.
Life is lovely to the lover,
To the player life's a play;
Life may be a load of trouble
To the man upon the dray.

Life is but a long vacation
To the man who loves his work.
Life's an everlasting effort
To the ones who liketo shirk,
To the earnest Christian worker
Life's a story ever new,
Life is what we try to make it,
Brother, What is Life To You!

MISSING DRUGGIST RETURNS HOME IN STATE OF COLLAPSE

Franklinton, Dec. 16.—J. D. Joyner, druggist, who mysteriously disappeared about a week ago, returned home Wednesday night. He does not remember leaving home, but his memory was partially restored to him in Chattanooga or Knoxville, he does not know which. He arrived in Raleigh on the Carolina Special from Asheville, the same train he left on one week previous. He is in a state of collapse, and can remember only partially what has happened. His family and friends are delighted to have him back, though he is in bad shape physically.

The return of Mr. Joyner solves a mystery that disturbed and distressed the town of Franklinton as nothing has done in many years. He disappeared Wednesday, December 2. He left here early that morning, saying that he was going to Raleigh to transact some business with the W. H. King Drug Company, stating that he would be back by 9 o'clock. At noon, he had failed to return, and inquiry was made of the Raleigh firm on which he had said he would call. His friends and family became anxious when it was found that he had not called on the Raleigh firm.

He left his car with the Motor Service Company, stating that he would be back in a short while. He failed to return for it, sending the claim check to his wife instead. He was last seen at the Union Station in Raleigh.

Neighbors and friends resorted to every possible expedient to locate the missing man. Delegations went to important railroad points in the State and searched hotel and hospital records in a vain attempt to find him.

BIGGEST AND BEST CHRISTMAS

If Postmaster General New has his way about it, Christmas day this year is going to be the biggest and the best for all the employees of the postal service and especially for the ever-faithful letter carriers.

He has issued orders to postmasters throughout the country that their offices will be closed all day Christmas except for the dispatch of special delivery letters and parcels and special handling letters and parcels.

In order that the vast army of carriers and clerks may enjoy Christmas day to the fullest extent with their families and friends, the cooperation of every man, woman and child in the United States will be necessary.

Under the leadership of the Postmaster General, a campaign is now under way throughout the country to instill into the minds of everybody the necessity for shopping and mailing early in order that there will be as little congestion at the post offices as possible during Christmas week and in order that both the sender and receiver of gifts may reap the happiness that is contemplated by such an exchange of presents.

Once more the Post Office Department urges the American public to do its Christmas shopping and mailing early. If the shopping is done now the buyer gets just what he or she wants and if the gift is mailed before December 19 it is sure to reach its destination in plenty of time before Christmas day.
