

TO CONDUCT TERRACING SCHOOL

In Franklin County March 3rd and 4th

Pruning, Spraying and Blasting Demonstrations Held in County Past
Week By County Agent Harris

Arrangements have been perfected for a terracing school to be held in this county Wednesday and Thursday of next week, March 3rd and 4th, and if the response demands it, will be run Friday and Saturday following. It is hoped that every community in the county will send one representative to this school to learn how to operate a farm level and run off a terrace, so that he can do the desired terracing work in his community. There will be no charges for this course and we solicit your cooperation in obtaining a large class. For further information regarding this school, call to see your county agent.

During the last two weeks pruning demonstrations have been held on the farms of the following people:

W. T. J. Eaton, Banks; Mrs. J. A. Mitchner, Banks; Sol West, White Level; J. H. Fuller, Perry's Mill community; W. H. Perry, Mapleville, community; Judge Timberlake, Youngville; F. W. Wheelers, Louisburg; Mrs. D. T. Fuller, Moulton.

A good attendance witnessed the majority of these demonstrations and the farmers seemed to get the general ideas involved in orchard pruning.

Two blasting demonstrations were held in the county on Thursday of last week, February 18th, one of which was at Mr. Collins farm near Franklinton, and the other on Mr. W. A. Mullens farm near Bunn. A large attendance witnessed each demonstration in spite of the adverse weather conditions. Pyrotol, the explosive that is available from the government was used in the demonstrations. Mr. Holman explosive specialist, informed us the government supply was almost exhausted and urged that we get busy sometime during the year and pool an order for a carload of this material. He also stated that it could be had for approximately half the cost of dynamite and for stump blasting was as good as any explosive on the market.

FREE CLINIC FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Supt. E. C. Perry, with the assistance of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare, has arranged an orthopaedic clinic to be held in Louisburg on Thursday, March 18th, 1926, at Dr. Fleming's dental offices. This clinic will be in charge of Dr. O. L. Miller, of Gastonia, a recognized authority, and a corps of nurses. The object of this clinic is to give all the relief and assistance possible to crippled and deformed children. All services will be entirely free, and it is especially urged that every crippled or deformed child in Franklin and all adjoining counties be brought in for examination and treatment. Wonderful progress has been made in the restoration of children to normal conditions in the past few years and quite a good bit of hope can be held out to all crippled and deformed children. Those reading this article will confer a great favor on all such children as well as the officials of the clinic to spread the information with the idea in view of getting the desired information to all children that they may attend and get relief.

SOCIAL AT BAPTIST CHURCH

On last Tuesday evening February 23, the Fidelis Class entertained the Berea Class in the Sunday school auditorium. The hall was decorated beautifully in green and white, which gave it the spring appearance.

After an hour of fun such as playing progressive conservation and statues, we were then served with chicken salad and coffee. Each and everyone went away declaring that the evening had been quite pleasant.

Those present were: Mrs. Knight, who chaperoned the college girls, and Mrs. Fred Leonard was the general leader, Lawrence Cooper, James Cooper, George Griffin, Julius Timberlake, Albert Wheelers, Eddie Perry, Foss Wilder, Joe Hatton, R. G. Bailey, Crap Bartholomew, Bill Hodges, Blonnie Rackley, Hep Stovall, Steedman Knott, Pete Bunn, Harvey Bartholomew, Alton Knott. The girls present were Misses Jewel Clarke, Doza Upchurch, Nannie and Mariah Perry, Elizabeth Timberlake, Minnie Lancaster, Beulah Cooper, Emma Bartholomew, Eleanor Colite, Mae Cooper, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Fred Leonard, Margaret Mills, Eva Bradsher, Sallie Murphy, Aileen May, Glennie Wilder, Eliza Blackstone, Alice Blackstone, Myrtle Barrow, Minnie Hollowell, Irene Beddingfield, Margaret Ricks, Martha Lee Wheeler, Rena Ricks, Gladys Taylor.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank each and everyone that was so kind to us during the sickness and death of our darling baby, their help will long be remembered and appreciated.

MR. and MRS. S. E. GUPTON.

Hero Captain Returns

Photo shows Captain and Mrs. Fried being given a riotous ovation upon the former's arrival in New York. Captain Fried, together with his men, performed one of the most daring rescues in the annals of the sea, when they fought mountainous waves for three days, finally saving the entire crew of the sinking steamer Antinoe. Two of Fried's own men lost their lives in the rescue.

DISCUSSES TOBACCO MARKET

At Meeting of Kiwanis Friday Night; Also Approved the Y. M. C. A. Plan; Both Referred to Committees

The regular Friday evening luncheon of the Louisburg Kiwanis Club was held at the Franklin Hotel on last Friday night with the members of the tobacco market as guests. The meeting was presided over by President Arthur Mohn. Kiwanians Harry Johnson, Edward Best and William Mills made report on the Y. M. C. A. and Hi Y. to the effect that a committee called together by Harry Johnson had approved the establishment of this work among our boys and it was being referred back to the Kiwanis for it to put the right machinery in motion to meet the financial requirements. The question of securing Prof. Hook to put in full time work among the boys in the summer months was presented by Arthur Fleming and William Mills and endorsed by many. Upon motion, the acceptance of both propositions was referred to a committee for investigation and report.

The meeting was turned over to Arthur Fleming, chairman for the evening, who presented Miss Anna Fuller Parham, who rendered a most excellent instrumental solo, to the great delight of the entire audience.

The chairman then explained that the members of the Louisburg tobacco market had been invited to dine with Kiwanis and to tell Kiwanians about the present status of the local tobacco market and its probable future. He introduced Tracy Stockard, who in a most interesting, but strictly to the point address, told those in attendance that something had to be done if Louisburg expected to keep a good live market. That more warehouse accommodation and more and better storage facilities had to be provided. In speaking of the comparative value of the market to the town in dollars and cents he said the past year was equal to six cotton mills or eight colleges. Mr. Stockard was followed by short talks by R. W. Hutcherson, Dan Curran, Cary Howard, S. T. Wilder, S. M. Washington, T. Cheatnam. Those of the Kiwanians speaking were W. E. White, Jake Friedlander, W. D. Egerton, who were convinced that something had to be done and that Louisburg is going to do what is right.

Tracy Stockard was called back to tell of the plans he had drawn to put this over, which was to form a stock company and purchase a piece of land on the railroad and build a large prize house, dividing it into 3 rooms to accommodate three buyers, and to either enlarge the present sales houses or build new and larger ones, on the same stock plan.

The matter was referred to a committee to work out the plans and make recommendation.

A most interesting meeting came to a close after an extension of time had been granted for the important program.

DEATH OF LITTLE MARY GUPTON

On Wednesday morning, February 17, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Gupton and took from them their darling little baby only five weeks old. She died with the fatal disease pneumonia. She was sick but a short while and her death was quite a shock to her many loved ones but we know all things are for the best for the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh, blessed be the name of the Lord, and we know her going will ad another angle to Heaven and so let us all strive to live up to our christian duties ever loving and praying to meet our loved ones in the bright beyond where there will be no parting nor sorrow.

Thou art gone our precious darling to the one who waits above with his goodness and his love.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

A FRIEND.

TO PROVIDE BETTER FACILITIES

For Louisburg Tobacco Market Committee Has Matter In Hands; Cotton Market Also Gets Attention; Business Men Have Interesting Meeting

The Business Men's Association had quite an interesting meeting in their quite an interesting meeting in their five present. This was a special meeting called to consider "How can we improve the tobacco housing question." Mr. Stockard and Mr. Clifton made report for a committee appointed at a previous meeting. They had an estimate that a three room storage house, including the land and side tracks could be erected for a cost not to exceed $12,500.00 or the house alone for around $10,000.00. During the discussion which seemed to be agreed that Louisburg was heartily in sympathy with the situation and ready to do what it could, several plans were suggested, one a stock company, another private individual effort, and others. A motion prevailed that the chairman appoint a committee with powers to make full investigation and make recommendation to the association at its next meeting. This committee was composed of W. E. White, F. H. Allen, Cary Howard, A. W. Mohn, F. J. Beasley, M. S. Clifton. Tracy Stockard was asked to give the committee all the assistance he could before he left for his home.

The question of a public cotton yard was presented to the meeting and a rather full discussion was had resulting in an opinion favorable to the establishing a public cotton yard. A committee with F. H. Allen as chairman was appointed to look into the matter and ascertain if more desirable and beneficial arrangements could be made and to report back to the association two weeks hence.

The meeting was a most interesting one filled with enthusiastic interest for the future welfare of Louisburg.

BECK'S GARAGE MOVES TO NEW LOCATION

During the past week Beck's Garage moved from its location on West Nash street to the garage building on West Franklin street—the former home of Beck's Garage. Mr. Beck informs us that he will rearrange and remodel his garage in a most convenient and efficient way so that he can give even better service.

Harold Lloyd

Everybody has early ambitions to be something or somebody when they grow up, but they seldom realize those ambitions. However, Harold Lloyd is an exception to the rule for this comic fellow of the screen wanted to be an actor and we'll say he became one too.

BUSY YEAR FOR JAMBES POST

A Report of the Activities of the Jambes Post of the American Legion For the Year 1925

Mr. Commander and Comrades of the Jambes Post, I am pleased to report that the following activities have been accomplished with success, by the Jambes Post during the year 1925.

Upon learning that the Kiwanis Club of our city opens its meetings with the singing of patriotic songs, and that they have the American Flag always on display at its meetings, we presented to the local Kiwanis Club a handsome American Flag. We showed the Kiwanis Club, by this token, that we greatly appreciate their efforts to promote patriotism, and respect to our Flag.

Early in the year, Charlie Macon, an ex-convict man of our county, fell a victim to tuberculosis, as a result of being gassed in France. At the time, he was residing in Durham. He was unable to work, had exhausted his finances, and had become down and out, both physically and financially. He is married and has several children. He became desperate, and as a last resort, sold his child's interest in the Macon estate for the pitiful sum of $100. Upon learning of this, our Post purchased the deed to his interest in the estate, had it recorded in his wife's name, and presented the deed to her.

Our Post sponsored the National Endowment Fund, for the relief of disabled veterans, their wives and children, and the World War orphans. We were most ably assisted in this work by Mr. William H. Ruffin, who served as chairman of our local committee, and many other generous citizens, who are not ex-service men. Our own members gave liberally to the drive, of both time and money. We cannot over estimate the assistance that was given to this worthy accomplishment, by our Post Auxiliary. Our Post's quota was fully subscribed.

Our Post sponsored the movement, and assisted Comrade Jim Anderson, of Wilson, in selling the business men of our city, the unit Flag System of decoration. This system insures the display of the American Flag in a respectful manner, and is a striking and beautiful display for all patriotic occasions.

We responded promptly to the distress call from Coal Glen, N. C., where a coal mine explosion, entombed a great many miners, and wrought disaster among many families. Our State Commander wired for money to relieve the suffering, and within thirty minutes from the receipt of his request, we had forwarded the requested amount by wire.

An ambition of years was filled with the establishment of the Jambes Memorial Cup, in the high schools of our county. This is a very handsome sterling silver loving cup, which we placed in our high schools as a memorial to our beloved comrades of the World War, who were residents of Franklin county, who made the supreme sacrifice for our God and Country. This cup is a living memorial, in that it serves as a trophy for essay writing. Our Post will choose some patriotic subject each year, for the essay contest, and in this way we hope to stimulate better essay writing in our high schools, and to collect and preserve valuable historical data, concerning the part played by Franklin county in the World War. We also presented a gold medal to the individual scholar, who produced the winning essay. This cup was won in 1925 by Guy Moore, a student of Cedar Rock High School. The subject for the contest for 1925 was, "The Significance of Armistice Day to America." The high school winning the cup will hold it until it is won from them. The funds for the purchase of the cup and medal, were realized from the production of a minstrel, which was a decided success from every angle.

Our Commander, Major Sam P. Boddie, has assisted numerous ex-service men in filling out their applications for Adjusted Compensation, and has secured hospitalization for several disabled ex-service men under the new hospitalization act. Our Commander deserves unstinted praise for his unselfish assistance to comrades in our county.

Our Post has held two very beneficial social functions during the year, at which each legionnaire entertained one or more guests, who are not ex-service men. These affairs have done much to solidify the bonds of friendship between our friends, who were not in service, and the members of our Post.

We are sincerely honored, in having as a member of our Post, a man who has won national honor and recognition. Comrade Kilmus E. Joyner, brought high honor to himself and to our Post by winning third prize in Frederick Palmers contest for the best answer to the following question: "What good did I get out of my service in the war?" Comrade Joyner competed successfully against Legionnaires throughout the whole of the United States and foreign posts. We are also honored by having Adjutant T. K. Stockard, elected committeeman of the Fourth District, State Executive Committee.

On December 2nd, our Post held its annual meeting for the election of officers. After our meeting we entertained the officers of the posts of the Fourth District at a turkey dinner. We were honored by having State Commander Henry L. Stevens with us on this occasion, and representatives of the Confederate Veterans and the Spanish American War Veterans. Our object in having this dinner was to promote closer friendship among the Legionnaires of the Fourth District, and to discuss plans for the furtherance of worthy work for the Legion, that will bring credit to it. This dinner was a most successful and beneficial affair.

On the whole, our Post has enjoyed one of the most prosperous, unselfish, and beneficial years, that we have experienced since our organization.

Signed:
T. K. STOKARD,
Adjutant.

"Dirt Farmer"

T. O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois has a 4,500 acre farm near Oregon, Illinois, to which he applies "dirt farm" methods. Mr. Lowden manages the immense tract, leaving the actual farming to ten assistants, who are both college-bred and sons of the soil.

After our meeting we entertained the officers of the posts of the Fourth District at a turkey dinner. We were honored by having State Commander Henry L. Stevens with us on this occasion, and representatives of the Confederate Veterans and the Spanish American War Veterans. Our object in having this dinner was to promote closer friendship among the Legionnaires of the Fourth District, and to discuss plans for the furtherance of worthy work for the Legion, that will bring credit to it. This dinner was a most successful and beneficial affair.

On the whole, our Post has enjoyed one of the most prosperous, unselfish, and beneficial years, that we have experienced since our organization.

Signed:
T. K. STOKARD,
Adjutant.

DEATH OF LITTLE SAM PERSON

On February 14, 1926, after five days of patient suffering little Sam Person softly fell asleep in Jesus.

God in His infinite wisdom and love gave this radiant personality to us but a brief season.

Yet during the eleven short years he lived, his faithful and consecrated life caused the ideals of his Master to be enshrined in the hearts of many, and gave to all a broader vision of life.

Little Sam had the sweetest disposition of any child I know of his age. He was always thinking of others comforts and needs. If he had anything and thought some other child wanted it, he would gladly give it to them.

He was the most devoted child to his parents, and I think he loved his uncle William just as good as he did his father. For his dear invalid grandmother he could never do enough. He was always ready and willing to do something for grandmothers comfort.

The community has lost one of its brightest boys and everyone that knew him loved him.

We all know it is hard to give him up and we can't understand why these things should be, yet we know that all things work together for good to them that love God.

The funeral services were held at his home near Gold Sand by Rev. William Towe, assisted by Revs. Draper, Bailey and C. B. Howard, and the little grave was covered with beautiful flowers. The pall bearers were: Active, Messrs. James L. Armstrong, Frank Hicks, Owen Tharrington, Wayland Watkins, G. B. Egerton and H. P. Speed. Honorary, D. J. Hunt, S. G. Johnson, J. L. Foster, A. C. Carr, Rob Alston, G. C. Parrish, J. C. Powell and Charlie Egerton.
