Here Are Some of The Shortsighted Views Of Life:

LIVING beyond one's means for appearance sake.
WITH increased earnings, desire to increase spending.
TOO MUCH SHOW, living for today, making no preparation for tomorrow.
ALL OF THIS may be human nature, but it's the curse of the times.

IT IS THE CAUSE OF
--WANT
--FAILURE
--DISTRESS

THE SURE WAY to be prepared for unexpected misfortunes is to have a bank book in your name showing an increased balance with growing interest credits.
USE OUR BANK; it is here for the use and benefit of everybody in this community.

A REAL HEROINE

Edith May Adams of Barrington, N. J., the first American School girl to be entered as a candidate for the American Youth Award. The American Youth and Teacher Award was established by the Board of Directors of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia as a tribute to the youth and teachers of the nation. Miss Adams is a candidate for the Golden Eaglette, the highest gift in the hands of the Girl Scouts. She was cited recently for exceptional bravery for remaining inside a blazing building helping physicians to give first aid treatment to injured firemen.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Bryce and Braxton Wilder, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilder, of Seven Paths section delightfully entertained a number of their little friends at a birthday party last Saturday afternoon May 15th, from 2 to 4 o'clock in honor of their sixth and third birthday.

Miss Roda Gray Stallings and Margaret Strickland met the guests and entertained them with games on the lawn after which ice cream and cake was served in the dining room.

Pink and white being the color scheme, it was carried out in the table decorations. A large white birthday cake with nine pink candles bordered with pink and white roses formed the center piece.

After the children were served Mr. Arthur Wilder and Miss Mattie Lee Strickland took Bryce and Braxton with their guest for a joy ride, while gone stopped at Webb's Mill and made pictures.

Mrs. Wilder was assisted by Mrs. W. J. Wilder, Mrs. Louella Perry, Mrs. B. C. Strickland, Mrs. E. G. Perry and Mrs. E. S. Wilder.

Those present were Minder and Rachel Moore, Elaine Moon, Ruby Wilder, Hulda Strickland, Nel Strickland, Marie Perry, Eugene Wilder, Carl Strickland, Lonnie Collie, and Victor Perry.

Silage keeps up the milk flow of dairy cattle in winter and the time to prepare for having silage is during early summer, state dairy workers of State College.

The young calf should be kept off pasture until about 3 months old, find dairy investigators. Fresh pasture and a milk diet will cause stomach disorders in the young animal.

Fresh country eggs will not be true to name unless the rooster is removed from the flock and the eggs gathered frequently and kept in a cool place.

PRONUNCIATION AID

June Webster, descendant of the famous lexicographer, Noah Webster, presents a copy of her ancestor's work to the Publicity Department of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition Association to help them in pronouncing properly the name of the big event which opens June 1 to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. There are many types of pronunciations heard but there is just one proper way Noah says. It is "See-Kwuh-ten-ter-nial" with the accent on the first syllable of the "Sesqui" and on the second syllable of the "centennial."
