

APPOINT RECEIVERS FOR CO-OPS

Notice of Appeal By Intermediate Bank of Baltimore Is Filed

M. L. Corey, of New York; James H. Pou, of Raleigh, and Former Congressman Hallett S. Ward, of Washington, N. C., Appointed by Judge Meekins To Take Charge of Association's Affairs; Corey Has Been Acting As Attorney For Association Committee, Pou Has Represented Association As Counsel and Ward Recognized As Strong Champion of Co-operative Marketing

Elizabeth City, June 19.—Federal Judge I. M. Meekins late today announced the appointment of M. L. Corey of New York City, James H. Pou, of Raleigh, and Hallett S. Ward, of Washington, N. C., as receivers for the Tri-State Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association.

Counsel for the Association and for the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Baltimore, a co-defendant in the suit, gave notice that an appeal would be filed in the circuit court of appeals for this district.

Both Sides Satisfied. Attorneys for both sides expressed themselves as entirely satisfied with the personnel of the receivership.

The receivership order cites as reasons for the receivership that, from the records presented, it appeared to the court that the directors and officers of the Association have so managed its affairs that it is either insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency.

It, the order, further sets out that the organization's directors, "high salaried officials," and other agents and employees entered into contracts with themselves or with firms in which they were financially interested for redyeing much tobacco, and made large profits; that such acts were approved by the directors; that certain of the directors and officers bought warehouse properties at exorbitant prices that salaries were paid in excess of the value of the services rendered, and sometimes for unnecessary services in disregard of the rights of the members.

As a result of the actions of the board of directors, the order declares, the Association is being liquidated by a joint committee of three directors and two representatives of large creditors.

The Association, "has failed of its purpose, and such purpose has been rendered impossible," due to the fact that the management has lost the confidence of the membership, it is asserted. As a further result of the way the affairs of the Association have been handled, the members have sustained heavy losses, and the Association's assets have fallen far below an amount sufficient to pay a fair market value for the tobacco delivered by the members.

Large Bond Required. The court did not fix the amount of compensation to be received by the receivers, Judge Meekins stating that he would have to consider that further. The receivers were directed to give bond of $250,000 each.

M. L. Corey makes it his business to act as financial and business adviser to Co-operative marketing associations, and was recently appointed to that capacity by the directors of the organization, at the suggestion of the Baltimore Credit Bank, the Association's largest creditor. The other two receivers are widely known. Mr. Pou is credited with being one of the outstanding lawyers in North Carolina, and Mr. Ward, who formerly represented the first North Carolina district in Congress, is a prominent eastern North Carolina lawyer and business man.

MISS YARBOROUGH GRADUATES WITH HONORS

Northampton, Mass., June 21.—Miss Mary Wyatt Yarbrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Yarbrough, of Louisburg, received her A. B. Degree cum laude this morning from Smith College. Miss Yarbrough who stands very high scholastically was on the Dean's list, made up of students whom the previous semester have gained an average of B or better. She was also a candidate for special honors. Students who have attained a high average during their freshman and sophomore years are permitted to work under this system. They are received from the routine of class attendance and do intensive work under the guidance of special instructors. Miss Yarbrough is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. Election to this society, a high academic honor, is awarded on the basis of a student's academic record during her entire college course. Miss Yarbrough prepared for college at St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.

MRS. ALLEN ENTERTAINS

Mrs. F. H. Allen charmingly entertained the Friday afternoon Bridge Club at her home on Main street Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Bridge was played at two tables. Salad, tea and salted nuts were served.

BOYS OUT CAMPING

Camp Balance Rock Alive For Summer

Baseball, Swimming and Other Camp Games Furnishing Much Sport; Messrs. Welch and Harris Directing Camp

The Boy Scouts from Louisburg joined other scouts at the Y. M. C. A. camp Monday morning and from the reports coming in of the first day's activities the boys are having a great time.

The Louisburg boys arrived at camp about nine o'clock Monday morning and were assigned quarters which they quickly put in order. They followed a plunge in the lake after which they had a hearty dinner of snap beans, potatoes and veal steak. After dinner the boys rested in the shade of the big trees and then came the big baseball game between the Senators and Red Socks.

The "Senators" was composed of Lewis Scoggin, captain, Lawrence Harris, Earl Welch, Ernest Furgerson, Bill Scoggin, Felix Allen, Edwin Lee Best, James Stovall and Herbert Welch. The "Red Socks" was composed of Hugh Harris, captain, Legn Joyner, Henry Macon, Harry Hatton, Carl Allen, Maurice Joyner, H. C. Taylor, Numa Freeman and Frances Pleasants.

The "Senators" won 13 to 9. Scores were made for the "Senators" as follows: Lewis Scoggin 3, Lawrence Harris 2, Earl Welch 3, Ernest Furgerson 3, Bill Scoggin 1. For the "Red Socks" the following scores were made: Hugh Harris 2, Leon Joyner 3, Henry Macon 2, H. C. Taylor 1, Numa Freeman 1.

At four o'clock the boys had a swim in the lake and engaged in a swimming contest in which they blew inflated balloons across the lake while swimming. Some of the boys took swimming lessons and others engaged in diving contests.

The swim over, the boys entered an elimination horse-shoe contest. In the first go-round Ernest Furgerson defeated James Stovall, Herbert Welch defeated H. C. Taylor, Bill Scoggin defeated Numa Freeman, Henry Macon defeated Earl Welch, Maurice Joyner defeated Edwin Stovall, Edwin Lee Best defeated Felix Allen, Lawrence Harris defeated Leon Joyner, Hugh Harris defeated W. A. Welch, Francis Pleasants defeated Lewis Scoggin and Carl Allen defeated Harry Hatton.

In the next go round in which only the winners were permitted to enter Bill Scoggin defeated Henry Macon, Herbert Welch defeated Ernest Furgerson, Edwin Lee Best defeated Maurice Joyner, Hugh Harris defeated Lawrence Harris and Francis Pleasants defeated Carl Allen.

Then came the third go-round and Bill Scoggin defeated Herbert Welch, Hugh Harris defeated Edwin Lee Best and in turn was defeated by Frances Pleasants.

The finals were played by Bill Scoggin and Frances Pleasants. In this contest Bill Scoggin defeated Frances Pleasants by a score of 11-8 and was declared winner in the contest.

While the games were in progress the supper hour arrived and it was with some effort that Mr. Welch was able to get the boys to recess from the contest for "cats." Another recess was taken about sun set when "Jim" the cook, cut a big moccasin's head off with the ax.

Maurice Joyner went out for a little snipe hunt. Some of the boys went with him for a while but he was the only fellow to stick it out. Swat tag and other games made up the program about the big camp fire and then the boys went to bed but not to sleep. But that is another story as we are describing the events of the first day only.

ENTERTAINS HOUSE GUESTS

At her home on Church street, Mrs. J. F. Malone, Jr., entertained at seven tables of bridge in honor of her house guests Misses Thelma Mayo and Thelma Waters, of Washington, N. C. The house was tastefully decorated with summer flowers. Miss Fanny Neal won the highest score prize, and the guests of honor received lovely gifts. Miss Elizabeth Morton, a summer bride, was presented with a beautiful pie knife. The hostess assisted by Mrs. E. L. Best and Miss Mary Malone Best, served delicious sandwiches with pickle and iced tea Mrs. Malone's guests were: Misses Thelma Mayo and Thelma Waters of Washington, N. C.; Misses Elizabeth Morton, Ruth Early, Katherine Pleasants, Annie Harris, Fanny Neal, Jessie Elmore, Lucy Clifton Boddie, Louise Allen, Mary Wilson, Max Allen, Maude Ashley, Lonie Meadows, Maventa Lassiter, of Fairmont, Susie Meadows, Margaret Turner, Jessie Taylor Harris and Lucy Burt, and Mesdames W. D. Egerton, Ross Earle, S. B. Berkeley, J. B. King, Harold Lewis, of Haymarket, Va., Ina Rouse, H. H. Johnson, A. H. Veasey of Goldsboro and W. B. Tucker.

Dairy farmers of Wake and Durham counties recently sold 25 cows as a result of facts found by keeping records and testing the milk.

LOUISBURG DEFEATS NASHVILLE

In Fast and Interesting Game of Ball

Kiwanians Enjoys Hospitality of Neighboring Club; Splendid Speeches; Excellent Music and Fine Supper

The inter-club meeting between the Louisburg and Nashville Clubs at Nashville on Thursday evening of last week was one of the most pleasant of the season.

The meeting was presided over by President Guy Bissette and Leon T. Vaughan was chairman for the evening.

The club was treated to an exceptionally fine violin program by young Mr. Vaughan, and excellent vocal music by Miss Helen Chamblie, both of Nashville. Miss Lucille Marie Collins read Edgar Guest's "Heap of Living" and William J. Bryan's "A Hen or a Horse," to the delight of the large number present.

Leon Vaughan made all feel abundantly welcome in his usual happy and forceful manner with a short but snappy address.

President Bissette took occasion to compliment the Louisburg Club for its fine sportsmanship and splendid ball playing.

President Mohn, of the Louisburg Club, responded to an invitation to talk and being at his best kept the room in an uproar for several minutes with his ready wit. He spoke very nicely of Nashville and its people and history and paid a fitting tribute to the Nashville Club.

Arthur Fleming responded in a few remarks expressing the delight of the members of the Louisburg Club at being present.

K. D. Battle, of the Rocky Mount Club was the speaker for the evening and made a wonderfully strong address on the importance of forgetting differences and cementing friendship that a more stable and friendly religion may result. He is fearful that if the present conditions continue in our churches and religious bodies it will soon be thrown upon the rocks of ruin.

In the afternoon the two clubs crossed bats and matched their skill at the great American game—baseball. And a prettier or more even game could not have been wished for until the eighth inning. It was a fast game. From the score it would remind one of the big leagues. It was Kiwanians playing. In the eighth inning however Louisburg took the lead by adding four runs to its lone one putting them three in the lead. Nashville followed with a great effort to score but was held down to an egg. Louisburg scored again in the ninth adding three more runs making them eight. The trick was late turning.

The first inning Nashville got a run and Louisburg failed. The second Louisburg took one and Nashville failed. The third both failed to score, while in the fourth Nashville scored one and held the lead to the eighth.

Those playing for Louisburg were: Malone, ss; McKinn, 1b; Beasley, c; Mohn, 3b; Burgess, p; Johnson, 2b; Hatton, lf; Roth, rf; D. Harris, cf. Roth was relieved in the eighth by A. H. Harris.

Those playing for Nashville were: Ferrell, ss; Downey, cf; Guley, c; Morgan, p; Cooley, 2b; Futrell, lf; Silis, 3b; Collins, rf; Bissette, cf. Futrell was relieved by Lane and Collins by White.

The score by innings was as follows: Louisburg 0 10 0 0 0 4 3—8 Nashville 1 0 0 1 0 0 0—2 Quite a good number witnessed the game and enjoyed the sport of seeing these old timers play ball. It was wonderful to see how well they handled the pill and the stick after so long a vacation.

BEE STING HORSE TO DEATH

Mr. T. A. Lester had the misfortune of losing a horse on Monday from bee stings. He came to town driving a pair of horses and unhitched back of the jail and tied his horses to a tree. It happened that there was a lot of bees in the tree and they attacked the animals with the result that one died a few hours later and the other was left in bad shape. Both animals were taken to Dr. W. R. Bass who administered all the remedies at hand with the result that one was saved.

MRS. B. B. PERRY ENTERTAINS

Mrs. B. B. Perry entertained at two tables of bridge on Saturday morning at 10:30. The house was beautifully decorated with sweet peas. Delicious cream and cake were served. Those present were: Mrs. Harold Lewis, of Haymarket, Virginia; and Misses Mary Howell Jacobs, of Tarboro; Elizabeth Clifton, Louise Joyner, Lucy Clifton Boddie, Dorcas McKlaine, Annie Perry Neal and Lucy Burt.

SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. O. W. Dowd will return from the pastor's summer school Saturday and will fill his regular appointments at the Louisburg Methodist church Sunday morning.

ORDERS PROPERTY SOLD

Several Road and Jail Sentences Imposed by Judge Beam Monday

Monday's Recorders Court was the scene of much interest in Louisburg, there being several cases that were strongly contested and of a community interest. Judge Beam handled the situation masterfully and all sides seemed to be pretty well pleased with the outcome. The docket was disposed of as follows:

State vs G. O. Switzer, unlawful possession of whiskey, carrying concealed weapons, violating prohibition law, order signed to foreclose mortgage given for bond.

State vs Genadus Lester, Timothy Lesjer, Mrs. Green, Miss Murray, prostitution, not guilty.

State vs Genadus Lester and Timothy Lester, operating automobile intoxicated, not guilty.

State vs L. Percy Gupton, distilling, guilty of aiding and abetting in distilling, fined $20 and costs.

State vs Willie Gray, carrying concealed weapon, pleads nolo contendere judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

State vs George Dickerson, violating prohibition law, pleads guilty, 10 days in jail.

State vs Simon Pearce, resisting an officer, guilty, 6 months on roads. Appeal.

State vs Claude Davis, violating prohibition law, guilty, 10 days in jail, execution not to issue until further orders of this court upon the payment of $10 fine and costs.

State vs Art Comb, violating prohibition law, not guilty.

BOX VOYAGE DINNER PARTY

A most unique and attractive occasion was the dinner party given by Miss Lynn Hall on Thursday evening June 17th, at her home on Franklin street, honoring Mrs. M. C. Pleasants, Misses Ruth Early and Glenn Dunavent, who together with Miss Frances Wells, of Wilson, will leave Louisburg Wednesday for New York on the steamship Coronia, June 26th. Covers were laid for twelve. The seats for each guest was marked by dainty place cards with inserted rose buds holding tiny tapers, from which a soft glow for the entire table was reflected. The centerpiece was a perfect reproduction of the Coronia in miniature with port holes, life boats, life preservers and regulation smoke stacks, surrounded by billowy waves. Each honor guest found a life preserver attached to the back of her chair and a wireless message was sent to the boat, a reminder of old glory, "that still shall wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

A four-course dinner was served—perfect in every detail. It was characteristic of Miss Hall's unusual originality and was a fitting occasion to speed the parting guests for such an extensive trip and wish them each a "bon voyage."

ENTERTAIN FOR MISS MORTON

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griffin very charmingly entertained at nine tables of bridge on Friday evening at their home on Sunset avenue in honor of Miss Elizabeth Morton, bride-elect. The house was tastefully decorated with summer flowers. Mrs. W. D. Egerton received the highest score prize and Miss Morton was presented a beautiful silver ladle. Delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Elizabeth Morton, Jessie Taylor Harris, Lonie Meadows, Dorcas McKlaine, Susie Meadows, Annie Harris, Fanny Neal, Babbie Turner, Frances Barrow, Ruth Early, Eleanor Yarbrough, Katherine Pleasants, Mesdames Clide White, of Raleigh, Walter Leonard and Ina Rouses; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Egerton, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Earle, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Malone, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clide Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King.

DIES FROM WOUNDS INFLICTED BY FATHER

Henderson, June 21.—Charlie P. Faulkner, aged 23 years, who was shot in the arm several days ago by his father at their home in the Vicksboro community, and who has been in the Maria Parham Hospital since, died at the hospital Sunday about 12 o'clock after every means had been made to save his life. No details of the shooting could be learned.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD

Funeral services were held from the home of his mother, Mrs. Emma Faulkner, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and interment followed in the family burying ground.

JOIN THE FARM TOUR TO WASHINGTON

Franklin county has had a very good season during the last week and the outlook for crops during 1926 is much brighter now, than at any other time since planting was resumed.

In view of all this, County Farm Agent, A. H. Harris, is hoping and expecting more farmers to enlist for the farmers tour to Washington, D. C., via the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia that is scheduled to leave Louisburg Monday morning, July 12th, and returning Saturday July 17th. Approximately thirty-five farmers have enlisted to take the tour to date and it is hoped that at least twenty-five more will enlist later. We are advised that any farmer could take the tour at a cost not to exceed $25. The tour will be made by busses and the farmers will have the opportunity of inspecting farms all along on the route and see how the farms in other sections make their living.

At a meeting held recently in the farm agents office, it was decided that all applications for the tour should be in and accompanied by a deposit of $15 by July first. Only a few more days are left now for you to enlist for the tour, so get in touch with Farm Agent Harris and make your reservation.

MAYORS COURT

Out of fourteen cases before Mayor Williamson on Monday, only two were against negroes, is a new record in Franklin county. Chief of Police B. H. Meadows reports the following cases disposed of in Mayors Court the past week:

Nick Viverette and Irving Frye were fined $5 and $10 respectively for speeding.

Smith Pearce, Art Combes, Roy Finch, Arthur Lewis, colored, Houston Blevins and George Dickerson were fined $5 each and costs for public drunkenness.

Willie Gray was sent to the Recorders Court for carrying concealed weapons.

Smith Pearce was sent to the Recorders court for interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duties.

Claude Davis, Houston Blevins and George Dickerson were sent to Recorders Court to answer to a charge of unlawful possession of whiskey.

Charlie Morris was fined $5 and required to pay costs for disorderly conduct.

MISS ASHLEY ENTERTAINS

Miss Maude Ashley delightfully entertained at five tables of bridge on Monday afternoon at her home on Church street in honor of her house guest, Miss Magenta Lassiter, of Fairmont, and Miss Elizabeth Morton, bride-elect. The house was beautifully decorated with summer flowers. Miss Ruth Early received the highest score prize, and the guests of honor presented appropriate gifts. A delicious salad course with iced tea and candy were served. Those enjoying Miss Ashley's hospitality were Misses Magenta Lassiter, Elizabeth Morton, Dorcas McKlaine, Lonie Meadows, Frances Barrow, Susie Meadows, Fanny Neal, Thelma Mayo, of Washington, Jessie Taylor Harris, Katherine Pleasants and Ruth Early, and Mesdames Lynwood Taylor, of Oxford, J. E. Malone, Jr., Walter Leonard, Bruce Berkeley, Edward Griffin, Ross Earle, J. B. King, Alex Veasey, of Goldsboro and W. D. Egerton.

TRUTH TABLETS

For the People of Louisburg Circuit; Take One or More as Needed

"Do all the good you can, By all the means you can, In all the ways you can, At all the times you can, To all the people you can, As long as ever you can."

That was John Wesley's rule of life; follow him and be a good Methodist. 'Tis not easy to follow this rule, but it pays. Things that cost nothing are worth nothing. Taking the line of least resistance makes crooked rivers and crooked men, too. Go straight. Lincoln said that no man ever got lost on a straight road. Start right. There is no use to be in a hurry unless you are going in the right direction.

There will be no preaching on the Louisburg circuit Sunday due to the fact that the pastor has been away attending the summer school for preachers at Duke University. However he expects to be on hand the first Sunday in July to fill all appointments. Come and be with us. I know some are saying that there are too many hypocrites in the church. But come on in; there is room for another. Get in the habit of going to church and Sunday school every Sunday. Going to church and Sunday school is a thing that will not hurt your reputation or the reputation of your children.

CROWDER GETS 20 YEARS

Henderson, June 23.—R. B. Crowder, convicted on eleven counts of the embezzlement of more than $50,000 while he was cashier of the defunct Merchants and Farmers Bank, of this city, this afternoon was sentenced to two years on each of the 11 counts, making a total of twenty years.

Notice of appeal was filed, and appearance bond was fixed at $35,000. The defendant was expected to furnish the bond.

On the eleventh count, Judge E. H. Cramer gave a suspended sentence.

The prisoners sentence is to "hard labor" in State's Prison.

ROCK PARTY

Honoring her house guests, Misses Francis Cox of Raleigh, Francis Ragan, Mildred Winston, Alegha Holden, of Youngsville and Roslyn Hollingsworth, of Bunn, guests of little Miss Gertrude Holden, Miss Margaret Holden entertained at six tables of rook Wednesday morning at her home on North Main street. The house was effectively decorated in snap dragons and roses. Guests found their places by drawing attractive tallies. A number of spirited games ensued, at the conclusion of which it was found that Miss "T" Perry held high score. She was presented with an attractive dorian.

An ice course with wafers was served by little Misses Roslyn Hollingsworth and Margaret Holden.

ROCK SPRINGS ITEMS

The ladies of Rock Springs are requested to meet Miss Lillie Harper, Superintendent of Womens Missionary Union, at the church Monday, July 5, at 3:30 o'clock. She is bringing us a message we can't afford to miss.

Miss Alia Baine-Holmes was the guest of Miss Laura Lynn Harris several days last week.

Miss Hazel Wilder, Dennie and Irene Carde who are attending summer school at Wake Forest, spent the week end with their parents.

The married ladies of Popular Springs church will give a play, "The Peak Sisters," at Rock Springs school house Saturday, June 26 at 8 o'clock. Everybody come, a hearty laugh guaranteed to all. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Proceeds to be used for the benefit of the church.

Mrs. R. H. Richardson, Jr., of Pine Ridge, was the guest of Mrs. B. P. Wilder a few days last week.
