LAUREL ITEMS

Since we have had such a nice season we will let you hear from us. We are glad that Ruth Powell is improving after taking out her tonsils. Miss Sue Boddie Macon spent the past week end with Miss Sue Egerton. Miss Ida Stuart Parrish is spending this week with her grandmother, Mrs.

C. W. Gupton. Mr. W. B. Leonard returned home the past week for his vacation. Mr. J. R. Parrish visited Henderson Friday. We are glad to say that Gold Sand school building is progressing nicely. Misses Helen Florence Mae and Ida Stuart Parrish spent Friday afternoons with Miss Sue Egerton. Miss Lillie Harper left Sunday where she is doing field work for the Tar River Association. If you like this we will call again soon. BROWN EYES. Now cotton has a new pest called the cotton hopper, which has done much damage in some of the cotton states. Fortunately the insect has not yet begun his ravages in North Carolina.

Compare the Cost of HAIL INSURANCE with the loss that you will suffer if your tobacco or cotton is ripped to pieces by a bad Hailstorm. The small premium that you pay for a Hail policy is no more than the profit on a few pounds of averaged priced tobacco or cotton. Be on the safe side and take a HAIL policy on your tobacco and cotton today
