FARM WOMEN ACTIVITIES TO FEATURE CONVENTION

Raleigh, July 19.—The efficient farm woman who studies in her home demonstration club the latest facts about the kitchen, the garden, the yard and the home will be a feature attraction on the program of the State Farmers' Convention held at State College on July 27, 28 and 29. "We are expecting a great gathering of farm women at the meeting of the Federation of Home Demonstration clubs to be held during the time of the Farmers' State Convention," says Mrs. Jane S. McKimmon, assistant director of extension. "Mrs. Kate N. Nash of Franklin County writes me that a thousand men and women will come from her county on Wednesday, July 28, to attend the meetings and to do honor to the President of the Federation, Mrs. T. H. Dickens of Franklin County. We have an unusually strong program prepared and this with the demonstrations and exhibits should make the meeting of value to all farm women in the State."

Mrs. Dickens will address the joint meeting of farm men and women on the opening morning, July 27 at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon Mrs. Dickens will extend greetings to the assembled women in the federation meeting. Following her address, the women will get to work on the program and will hear feature talks from leaders as well as reports from various sections of the State. The kitchen as an efficient workshop, serving well balanced meals, how a garden prize was won, marketing home products, meaning of the home demonstration club and many other kindred topics will be discussed by women who are taking an active part in such work.

The State Federation of Women's Clubs will be represented in the program and inspirational addresses by Hon. Josephus Daniels, Dr. Clarence Poe, Dr. A. M. Soule, Dr. E. C. Brooks and Dr. A. J. Glover will feature the joint meetings.

Eating cooling foods is one of the best ways of keeping good natured in summer, say home demonstration workers.
