ABRUZZI RYE BEST FOR NORTH CAROLINA
Raleigh, August 9.—There are three good rules to follow in planting rye this fall. These are: Sow the Abruzzi variety, plant it early and sow it thickly.
"Many tests in different parts of North Carolina prove that the Abruzzi variety of rye is best suited to North Carolina conditions," says E. C. Blair, extension agronomist at State College. "Last fall much Rosen rye was planted. Whether this was because farmers did not know the difference between the two varieties or whether they could get the Rosen rye cheaply, is not known. But we do know that this spring, while the Abruzzi rye was growing off fine and was supplying good grazing for livestock, the Rosen rye was lying flat on the ground, barely existing and never grew thickly enough to make a satisfactory crop either for grazing or for plowing under as green manure."
Mr. Blair states that the Abruzzi rye can be planted in November but practical farmers have found that much better returns are secured when the rye is planted in September. Mr. Blair cites the instance of one field planted to Abruzzi rye on September 15 of last year. This field gave excellent grazing for four or five weeks in November and December and again in March and early April of this year. Following this heavy grazing the rye yielded at the rate of 12 bushels of grain per acre. When the rye is sown as late as November, no returns are secured from it until the following spring.
A seeding of one bushel of the rye per acre will make the ground look green, states Mr. Blair, but from one and one-half to two bushels are necessary to secure a heavy crop. This is especially true if thick grazing is desired. The difference is worth much more than the extra cost of the additional seed.
Demonstrations have shown that one acre of Abruzzi rye, sown thickly in September is more valuable than five acres of Rosen rye sown at the rate of one bushel per acre in November.

CELEBRATES 65TH BIRTHDAY
Centerville, Aug. 14.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Wood of Centerville was the scene of a large gathering on Tuesday, August 11th, when the Smith family held their second reunion in honor of their father, Mr. M. D. Smith, of Dortches, N. C., who celebrated his 65th birthday. Besides the Smith family a large number of friends were present to pay honor and respect to Mr. Smith.
A delicious dinner was served out in the big oak grove in picnic style. After the barbecue, chicken, Brunswick stew, slaw, pie, pickle, cakes of many kind, tea, etc., were placed on the table the crowd was invited to line up and help themselves to the appetizing feast. Grace was said by Rev. G. W. May.
After dinner songs were sung and the afternoon was spent in a sociable way. The principal speakers were: Rev. G. W. May, Rev. C. L. Gillespie, Rev. C. B. Howard, Rev. B. L. Gillespie, and Mr. D. B. Pearce, all of who spoke commendably of Mr. M. D. Smith's life of service and wished him many more happy birthdays.
Mr. Smith had eight children present with their families to enjoy the happy occasion. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Smith of Louisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith of Castellia, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie May of Louisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Gupton of Gupton, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Wood of Centerville, Mr. and Mrs. Fannie Smith of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Iola Gupton of Castellia and Shelwood Smith of Dortches.

THE NEAL FARM CHANGES HANDS
The farm belonging to the estate of the late W. P. Neal which has been operated by Mr. D. F. McKinnis for the past eleven years, is now in the hands of its owners.
This farm, situated on both sides of Tar river, ten miles from Louisburg and two miles from Bunn, is known to be one of the best farms in Franklin County.
Mr. McKinnis is a most capable and efficient business man of Louisburg has taken great pride and interest in the up-keep of the land, and has built several new dwellings, barns, and outhouses.
The land is well terraced and in good condition for crops of all kinds, especially tobacco, cotton and corn. Several hundred acres of timber land that have been cut over are ready to be cleared.
It is the purpose of the owners now to cut off small farms for sale, giving good terms for payment and to rent the remaining farms to desirable tenants, such as are able to furnish their own teams and provisions.
For terms apply at once to MRS. W. P. Neal, 401 North Main Street, Louisburg, N. C. 7-18-26

No Worms in a Healthy Child
All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthener to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or diabol the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

The Dollar That Turned to Two!

None of us likes arithmetic—but here's a little example that you'll be interested in:
Suppose you spend a dollar at my store—and then I spend that dollar across the street with Dick; and he spends it up the block at Tom's store; and Tom spends it around the corner at Jack's shop and the dollar keeps traveling and comes back to you.
If each time it is spent someone makes a profit of 5c, then before long that dollar has become two and the town is a whole 100 cents richer.
Now suppose you spend that dollar in New York or Chicago with some mail order house, not only is your dollar gone from town forever, but the many other dollars it can earn are also gone for good and all time—the town doesn't get any richer—it actually gets poorer.
Now this is a request that you help our town grow big and prosperous; a better, finer place for all of us to live in.
Buy all you can at home.
If it's Jewelry, I'd like to have you buy from me. I'm proud of my fine stock—and I'm taking off my hat to no one when it comes to low prices and big values.
My W. W. Rings—my big showing of watches of nationally famous makes, my Pearls and Silverware, they're worth boasting about.
You'll do yourself a favor; you'll do our town a favor; you'll do me a favor by trading here.
It's the way of spending money so that it will come back to you with profit, the result of trading at home and keeping the dollar in town to grow to two.

Sincerely yours,
L. W. Parrish, Jeweler
