TOBACCO SITUATION
IMPROVING

Prices Decidedly Higher On Louisburg Market Past Week; To Close December 17 for Christmas

Prices on the Louisburg tobacco market took a decided advance on Wednesday and the many growers selling were especially well pleased.

The demand continues good and splendid sales were made here the past week. Reports coming in from other markets point to the fact that the Louisburg market is still in the lead.

Friday, December 17th, 1926, has been set for the closing date for the Louisburg market for the Christmas holidays. Bear this in mind and get your tobacco that you want to sell, ready before the closing date and bring it on to Louisburg and join the many well pleased growers who sell on the Louisburg market, and where all citizens extend you a hearty welcome.

was a faithful Christian and before her marriage when she was a teacher

PUBLIC LECTURE

The International
Hibbe Students Association, respectfully urges you to attend their special public lecture by H. H. Din-gus at the Winner
Theatre, Louisburg,
N. C., on Sunday afternoon, December 5th at 3 o'clock upon the subject
"Comfort for the People."

Has it not many times occurred to you that there must be some reasonable explanation of the cause of world-wide unrest, distress and perplexities? Where is the rational human being who has not often wished that things were different—who does not long for peace, happiness, freedom from pain and sorrow?
The divine plan for man's relief from all causes of unhappiness is not only reasonable but genuinely heart-cheering.
There will be no collection or admission.

MISS JARMAN READS

Miss Louella Jarman entertained the members of Louisburg Kiwanis Club at its luncheon last Friday night with a most interesting reading on Thanksgiving entitled "Why I am Thankful." It contained beautiful suggestions, a most wonderful spirit and an appreciation hard to portray in words.

Adding to the spirit and enjoyment of the occasion was the excellent quartet by Mrs. W. B. White, Mrs.
S. B. Berkeley, Mr. M. McKinnis and Dr. H. H. Johnson, with Mrs. A. H.
Fleming at the piano.

The program for this occasion was in charge of Revs. J. A. McIver and masters at the art.

road to Hester stating that he had seen the district engineer and was informed the road would not be changed.

The date for entertaining the football boys was changed to a week later due to its interference with the "Passing Show."

father of President Arthur Mohn, of the Club, who made a most interesting and enthusiastic talk.

BEBE'S COMEDY
CALLED SPEEDY

"The Campus Elit" Fun for Capacity Crowds At the Winner
Theatre

If you want a college education in the course of an hour,—one devoid of study, yet teaching the latest thing in laughs,—get down to the Winner Theatre Thursday.

The reason? Bebe Daniels! She's back again—the same vivaciously dashing bit of femininity who romps through Paramount comedies to the accompaniment of a thousand laughs.
This time, they're all dressed up and steeped in college atmosphere. "The Campus Elit," written by Louise Long and Lloyd Corrigan, was directed by Clarence Badger.

Bebe is cast as a "mascot"—a girl who is sent to an American co-educational college because it is her father's alma mater. He feels that his daughter's snobbish, arrogant ways are merely a veneer through which the girl's true character will come smiling after a period of shoulder-rubbing with other students.

Of course, Bebe gets off on the wrong foot. How she changes and finally finds himself, creates and causes an ocean of laughs.

Heading the hand picked cast we find Charlie Paddock of cinderpath fame. He displays fine acting potentialities and should go far in his new field of action. James Hall and El Brendel, respectively, take care of the love and comedy interests. Joan Standing, Gilbert Roland, Irma Kornellia and Jocelyn Lee are also in the cast.

MR. W. H. RUDD DEAD

seven children Mrs. Sam Davis of Norwood, Mrs. J. L. Spencer, Mrs. J.
W. Weaver, Mrs. A. T. Harris, Mrs.
June Joyner, Miss Annie Rudd and Mr. Morton Rudd and a large number of relatives and friends.

Mr. Rudd was a member of Perry Grove Methodist church. The funeral services were held at the grave and were conducted by his pastor Rev. E.
C. Crawford, assisted by Revs. J. A.
McIver and O. W. Dowd. The interment was made at Oaklawn cemetery Wednesday morning. A large number of friends being present to bid a last farewell. The pall bearers were E.
P. Cooks, Paul Beasley, J. H. Harris, Caswell Spencer, F. L. Herman, Jake Stallings.

The floral tribute was especially pretty carrying a beautiful message of love and esteem.

The bereaved family and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF ENGAGEMENT

An engagement of interest in Winston-Salem was announced in unique manner in Fort Sill Okla., Friday, November 19th.

Captain and Mrs. N. J. McMahon entertained at a delightful dinner party. At the completion of the dinner nuts were served in dainty nut cups and at the bottom of the cup was found a penny. Many questions were fired about this occurrence, but at thatsometime the door opened and a newbie entered crying "Extra." The papers, The Guidon, were promptly bought with the convenient penny, and in blazing headlines were read this item "Timberlake-Smallwood engagement announcement. Young couple are receiving congratulations of their friends at the field artillery school."

Miss Timberlake is the sister of Mrs. Fred Brower and Mrs. Kelly Barrow of Winston-Salem, and lived is in Louisburg, where her mother, Mrs. J. E. Timberlake, makes her home.

three months ago.

YOUR BIRTHDAY

December 5 to 11

If your birthday is this week you are rather proud and reserved—to such an extent that you are almost unapproachable. You are very conservative and cautious and methodical—and always look carefully ahead before making any decision. As a result you make few mistakes.

You are very critical and sometimes fault-finding. You are exact and determined, and have considerable force of character. You are amusing, artistic and refined. You are a fluent, eloquent talker—when you drop your reserve. Your ideas are original and logical, and you have an exhaustive store of valuable knowledge.

While your talent is mostly in art, you also possess considerable executive knowledge. You have a judicial, discriminating mind, and you are accurate in your judgments. You will succeed as a broker, banker, lawyer, judge, minister, artist, writer and musician. Women born during these dates excel as authors, painters, musicians, actresses and decorators.
