-TAR DROPS-

Cotton sold for twenty cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

Quite a big lot of tobacco was on the local market Monday and Tuesday.

Don't forget to attend the meeting on next Tuesday night at the Court House.

Concrete has been poured on the Franklinton road beyond W. S. Holmes.

The banks in Louisburg will close on Thursday of next week to observe Thanksgiving.

It was understood in Louisburg yesterday that the Halifax road had been completed.

Go out next Tuesday night and join in the establishment of a creamery at Louisburg.

Work on pouring cement on the Franklinton to Louisburg highway is progressing nicely.

Clerk of Court J. J. Young returned to his office Wednesday after having been out for two weeks with the measles.

Mr. J. F. Cattlett has moved his market to South Main Street to occupy the store vacated some time ago by C. H. Holmes.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Winner Theatre. Manager Kissell has decided to inform the readers of the TIMES of the splendid programs he is now putting on.

In making up the Recorders Court docket for last week the case against W. H. Frazier was listed as unlawful possession of whiskey when it should have been bad check. We gladly make this mention of the error.

Gantt Shoe Shop is the title to a new enterprise just begun in Louisburg by Mr. J. R. Gantt. Mr. Gantt is an expert shoe and harness maker and will no doubt receive a large portion of the business coming to Louisburg.

Officers A. S. Wiggs, J. S. Rowland, P. E. Dean and J. E. Thomas report the destruction of about four hundred gallons of beer and a lot of fermenters back of the home of S. Gales in Franklinton township Thursday evening.

The old Shaw property sold in Louisburg last week by the Millikan Land Company, brought good prices for lots were sold on Main Street up to more than $100 per front foot. The lots on Main Street were purchased by J. C. Tucker, A. Tonkel, Jake Friedlander, S. P. Boddie and Dr. H. G. Perry.

THE WOMANS AUXILIARY OF SAINT PAUL'S CHURCH

The Womens Auxiliary of St. Paul's church met with Mrs. S. P. Boddie Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Those present with Mrs. Boddie were Mesdames B. B. Perry, J. B. King, M. S. Clifton, J. B. Yarborough, Malcolm McKinne, R. C. Beck, L. E. Scoggin, G. L. Aycock and R. F. Yarborough.

Mrs. Clifton opened the meeting with creed and prayer.

Mrs. R. W. Smithwick, though absent from this meeting phoned request to vote on the Thanksgiving box of food supply to be sent to Orphanage at Charlotte. Vote carried that box be sent. All will report to Mrs. Smithwick, chairman of box supply.

Mrs. Beck read a good report of the welfare work.

The program on "Church Work Among the Negroes," continued. Mrs. Scoggin read an interesting article on the field work among them, showing where the North Carolina Episcopal church had expended $14,600 from 1926-27, in uplift and educational work among them. She cited instances where there had never been an Episcopal school, prior to a few years ago, were now conducting splendid schools.

In one town a negro layman was placed to see what work he could develop (on a salary of $25, with family.) He has remained there 23 years, been made principal of negro public school, directs public and parochial education in that and six near by towns. For a special offering in church recently his people gave $800.

In Mrs. Scoggin's paper attention was called however to weaknesses of the work in many sections of the State.

Mrs. R. F. Yarborough then read the splendid introduction to Paul Lawrence Dunbar's Poems, by William Dean Howell, a criticism of Paul L. Dunbar, the negro poet, and his works, showing him a real genius. Working against the odds and poverty he achieved success and today is recognized for his literary merit.

Mrs. James King read two of Dunbar's poems, Ships that Pass in the Night, and Lead Kindly Light—and inspirational poem, written after reading the hymn.

The Auxiliary adjourned to meet Mrs. Aycock Monday afternoon.

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF W. R. MILLS SCHOOL

Several generous contributions have been made this week to the Encyclopedia which report will be given in full in the TIMES next week.

MRS. R. F. YARBOROUGH, Publicity Chairman.

Between four and five million feet of valuable timber has been made worthless by nailing roadside signs to trees along the public highways of North Carolina during the past two years.

Producing one variety of cotton in a community will simplify the marketing of the staple and will help to keep the variety pure.

One thing a reckless driver never loses is his range.

Loss of memory is really one of the blessings of a free people.

Hog killing time will soon be here. Why not some of the club women give their recipes for making sausage and other pork products. The following has been given:

For each 20 pounds sausage, 7 1-2 oz. salt, 2 1-2 oz. black pepper or red pepper to taste, 2 1-2 oz. finely ground sage.

The annual meeting of the home agents of the State will be held at Raleigh the ten days beginning December 8th. Officers of clubs that meet during that time should make out programs that do not include the home agent.

White Level
White Level Girls Club met at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. Aileen Murphy and Eleanor and Athalea Wood were awarded 4.H pins. The club started the new year work with Miss Juanita Sturdivant leader. Officers were elected as follows: Gladys Collins, president; Rosa Pernel, vice-president; Aileen Murphy, secretary. Setting the table correctly was practiced.

Mapleville
Ten members were present at the call meeting of the womens club at Mapleville Thursday afternoon. The home agent discussed "Essentials in planning well balanced meals." This followed a general discussion of foods produced on Franklin county farms. Mrs. Lancaster prepared and excellent paper on planning meals which was read by Miss Wayne. After business had been disposed of the club adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock on the Thursday after the First Sunday which hereafter will be the regular meeting day.

Justice
Justice Womens Club met Friday afternoon with nine members present. The club is working now on improving the home grounds and it was voted to have a contest in yard improvement. At the club meeting Mrs. Brewer showed specimens of different shrubs appropriate for home planting and told something of each. The home agent gave some "don'ts" when planting the home grounds. A committee was appointed to plan the club work for the winter and arrange the programs.

Sandy Creek
Sandy Creek Girls Club had a wide awake meeting Tuesday. The minutes showed that a good meeting was held last month when the agent could not be present. Record cards for the new years work in foods were started. The program committee had arranged an interesting program including a reading on "The four leaf clover." Every club member is to set the table correctly before the next meeting. After the girls meeting the Womens Club met in the club room. The club is indebted to Miss Hubbard for donating food charts to the club room. The difference in cereal cooked in the fireless cooker or other long time methods and that cooked hastily was shown. Breakfast menus were read and discussed.

Winter is a good time to make large fields and to straighten out some of the field lines.

BLANCHE RING
Noted Star of the Stage

writes:
"The life of an actress is one of nerve-strain. If she sings, also, her worries are doubled. Her audiences reflect her moods. If she is mentally tired, she cannot help but convey her fatigue to those out in front and the result is a form of ennui on both sides of the footlights. I have found a sure cure for such fatigue, on the part of the player, is a good cigarette. For years I have smoked Lucky Strikes and the mental balm and real enjoyment I have derived from them have helped me marvelously. In addition they have protected my voice. I use no other brand."
