NEW ORDINANCE
Be it enacted by the Board of Aldermen and Mayor of Louisburg, North Carolina:

1. It shall be unlawful to use or maintain any residence or other building in the city of Louisburg, which is located on a lot abutting on the city sewer line, said residence or building being not more than two hundred feet from the same, where one or more persons live or congregate, unless such residence or building be provided with flush closet or closets connected with said sewer, provided water is available from the city mains within two hundred feet from said residence or building.

2. That all ordinances of parts of ordinances previously enacted which are in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

3. That this ordinance shall be in force from the date of its passage.

4. Violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall constitute a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of five dollars for the first day and one dollar for each additional day the violation is continued, dating from the time specified in official notice from the city.

Passed and adopted this 4th day of November, 1927.
Attest: A. W. GREEN, City Clerk.
Signed: B. N. Williamson, Mayor.

LUMBER

SATISFACTION

LUMBER

It is necessary that you take many factors into consideration in order to be certain of satisfaction when you invest money in lumber.

You buy it for a certain need and you know what you want.

First, you wish to know the Quality is there and that the price is right. Satisfied as to these two primary considerations, you want to know whether you can get exactly what you want for your particular purpose.

We have been in business for many years and have been satisfying a growing number of customers each year. We are confident we can give you satisfaction.
