Life After Death

A gentleman writes me a letter, from which quotations are as follows: "The other day my wife died. She was 39 years old. She was a martyr to her duties and to her children. "After 19 years of marriage and hard work this wonderful wife and wonderful mother, who never complained, was taken from us. "Now is the time she could have taken life more easy and could have enjoyed the growing up of her children while preparing herself for old age. "In two days she is gone. My duty towards the children will keep me going and going strong, but I feel the need for something that shall keep me going myself. "I would like to know if there is a season for such happenings and furthermore that the deceased one is happy in another life. Please hear the cry of a spiritual man left in the middle of life (I am not yet 49), deprived of the only one faithful companion and with nine children, from 18 to two and one-half years. I have the feeling that no other woman can ever enter my life. "I need a number of thoughts that shall satisfy me mentally and emotionally that everything is for the best and some certainty as to the life after death." There is no certainty of the life after death. That is a matter that must be taken on faith and hope. Of it we have a reasonable hope. Those who live the higher life, that is above the animal, all have a feeling of another life. While the Scriptures do not positively teach another life they assume it, as Christ says, "If it were not so I would have told you." Honor, patriotism, self-sacrifice and devotion reach out into another life. In this life they are often thwarted. What the Almighty's reasons were for taking this mother we cannot say. No one knows. But the best plan from any point of view is to go on assuming that he had a good reason. Nothing can be gained by giving up. If we believe in the high purposes and devoted life of the deceased we shall ourselves participate in them. If there is another life and the deceased is cognizant of our doings here she cannot but be gratified to know that we are living up to our ideals. The memory of this mother has faded into a memory, but that memory will continue to inspire and bless her children and her husband.

Of the Southland better known as the WILLIAM SINGERS, will appear in the LOUISBURG COURT HOUSE WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 11TH, AT EIGHT P. M. Special seats for our white friends, as they sing for both white and colored. This is what others say of the performances of the William Singers: "On the third of May, The Silver Tone Quintette highly entertained a large audience composed of students, faculty and citizens of Holly Springs to the delight of all who heard them."—L. M. McCoy, President, Rust College, Holly Springs, Miss. "The Silvertone Quintette, of Chicago, rendered a very satisfactory program here Wednesday evening, October 27. A crowded house greeted this group of high class entertainers. They were repeatedly encored as they thrilled and thrilled the audience with pleasing selections."—Rev. S. A. Owen, Pastor, Metropolitan Baptist Church, Memphis, Tenn. Come out and spend a pleasant evening.
