A. F. JOHNSON, Editor and Manager

THE COUNTY, THE STATE, THE UNION

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 Per Year

VOLUMN LIX.

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 16th, 1928

(10 Pages)

NUMBER 4

ROBERT L. BROWN CALLED BY DEATH

Beloved Superintendent of Oxford

Orphan Asylum Passes Suddenly.

Oxford, March 12.—R. L. Brown, superintendent of the Oxford Orphanage died suddenly this morning. He was apparently in his usual, health at apparently in his usual, health at warning, bringing to the orphan, and dance without words or music. out warning, bringing to the orphan, and dance without words or music, see and Oxford one of the greatest but is composed of the thoughts of shocks ever experienced. Mr. Brown gratitude and sincere appreciation had just been down to the printing going out from the heart of a shut in, office to see about some advertising and I hope the wave length of this in connection with the singing class station will be sufficient to reach all

Relatives and friends in Virginia and North Carolina are arriving to be with Mrs. Brown and large numbers are expected from out of town to attend the funeral which will be held at 2 o'clock p. m. Wednesday in the orphanage chapel with full Masonic honors, interment following in Oak.

Richmond Lee Brown was born in Richmond, Val., June 15, 1863, the son of Dr. Alexander G. Brown, of the Virginia Methodist Conference, and Frances Cooksey Brown. He received his education at Randolph.Macon College. On April 23, 1890, he was married to Miss Maria Ballou, of Hal.

Brown, of Richmond, Dr. Brown ticipate many, many hours of pleas ure in the future.

When I get well the first thing I'm going to do is to find some one who is sick and I'll take the lead in doing is to find some one who is sick and I'll take the lead in doing is something like this for them.

I will also take this opportunity to layer of yellowish silt was deposited the board of directors in 1910 he was thank the people of Louisburg and elected superintendent, the term of Franklin County for the many other elected superintendent, the term of Franklin County for the many other office beginning January 1, 1911. Pre. acts of kindness shown me since I will also take this opportunity to layer of yellowish silt was deposited and beneath this, rescue officers believed undetermined scores of dead may be buried.

Fifteen hundred Los Angeles peace officers, ranchers and other dwellers in the Rolling Hill country north of the State with the singing class. the State with the singing class.

BREAKING MOTHER'S HEARTS

The New Bernian preaches a need-ed sermon upon an incident that is duplicated weekly in every newspaper office. Some man, arrested for driv-ing when drunk or for committing some infraction of law, requests the some infraction of law, requests the newspaper to suppress the news be cause it would pain the mother or delightfully entertained at the home wife. It tells of a man named Butler, of Mrs. J. M. Allen Tuesday, March who operated a low-down dive where 18th at 3:30. The weather being all crime ran rampant. The paper in that one could wish, there was a good the town printed the news of such ly number of the members present crimes in Butler's dive, and one day including quite a number of invited Butler called on the editor. He was guest. Beautiful spring flowers in greatly troubled about the publication and said: "You are breaking to the attractiveness of the living my mother's heart. Every time she rooms for the occasion.

All are invited to go out and give the little ones a big audience.

"NEVER ALONE"

You are cordially invited to attend the services on the Louisburg Circuit Sunday, March 18th. The Pastor will preach from the following subjects:

Bunn: "Never Alone"

Prospect: "The Manhood of the Master" 2:30 p. m. my mother's heart. Every time she rooms for the occasion.

The subject for the afternoon pronum was a most interesting one, it makes her sick."

That was an appeal nine tenths for The first number of the living Bunn: "Never Alone," 11:00 a. m. Prospect: "The Manhood of the Master," 2:30 p. m.

Bunn: "Never Alone," 11:00 a. m.
Prospect: "The Manhood of the Master," 2:30 p. m.

"Edna St. Vincent Mallay."

The first number was a most interesting one, to Face It," 7:30 p. m.

that it was in his own hands to deshould be broken. "All you have to the life and works of the author, mass ion warenouse in Louisburg last do is to conduct a decent establish. Millay, followed by the reading of son, informs the TIMES that he will ment, obey the laws and this paper one of her poems, by Miss Bosworth, be connected with the same warewill never print a line about you that Mrs. Mortimer Pleasants favored house the coming season. will wound your mother. It is your lawless ways, not the record of them, If you will reform, we will have no terrible story about your place."

But the Butlers always blame it on the newspaper.—News_Observer.

But the newspaper.—News_Observer.

But the Butlers always blame it on the newspaper.—News_Observer.

Miss firm to sell twice as much the next season by reason of this improvement.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AND

Franklin County has some of the same kind of Butlers, who would do ### well to take heed to the above advice. MRS. W. C. STALLINGS OF PILOT

On Monday morning, March 5, a Spirit from a fairer shore called to a peaceful rest the wife of Mr. W. C. Stallings, of Pilot. Mrs. Stallings was taken sick Saturday night. Dr. Barber was called at once. Sunday morning Dr. Flowers was also called. Immediately after the birth of the child convulsions set in and Mrs. Stallings was rushed to the Mary Elizabeth hospital. Pneumonia developed early Monday morning and she died Monday evening about nine o'clock.

Mrs. Stallings, before her marriage on Feb. 16, 1927, was Miss Gladys Strickland of Bunn, the daughter of nev. A. Pippin, pastor of the Pilot Baptist church, of which Mrs. Stallings was a member, conducted the funcial services, assisted by Rev. E. C. Crawford and Rev. W. T. Brown, C. Crawford and Rev. W. T. Brown, We wish to extend our most sincere of Bunn, her former pastor. The thanks and appreciations to all who young mother and babe were beautimendered so many kindnesses and fully laid to rest in the Pilot ceme expressions of sympathy in the recent tery where a great host of school desth of our husband and uncle. They mates, friends and relatives had gawill be long and tenderly remember thered in an attempt to pay a fitting ed.

MRS. C. H. HOLMES.

Fashion hint: Flavored rouge and lipstick are considered good taste.

A LETTER OF APPRECIATION

To the many kind friends who thoughtfully gave me a radio:

concert that was to be given tonight of you, and was on the way back to his office. It came as a big surprise to me and Relatives and friends in Virginia even before Rob. Beck finished instal.

wood cemetery.

Richmond Lee Brown was born in Really, folks you never can know married to Miss Maria Ballou, of Hal. music it brings me much nearer to the ifax county, Virginia, besides whom outside world and will always be a rehe leaves a daughter, Mrs. C. A. Gregory, of Richmond, Va., and two grand. Children, C. A. Gregory, Jr., and Maria Brown, of Richmond, Va., and an adopted dau. Community radio and will be so glad of the estimated 500 persons who were the first of the picturesque value.

Inter, Miss Frances Brown, of North to have you come up and listen in. I in the narrow canyon and lowlands below at the time the day green. arolina College for Women, Greens, want you to know that my wife and I below at the time the dam gave away, Surviving also are a sister, have already enjoyed this radio more only a few more than a hundred had H. Seldin Taylor and Dr. Alex- than I can express to you, and we anbrown, of Richmond, Dr. Brown ticipate many, many hours of pleas-of you for this lovely birthday sur. and aided refugees. prise and with love and good wishes. I am your friend, WM. D. JACKSON.

CURRENT LITERATURE CLUB MEETS

That was an appeal nine tenths for Butler and one tenth for the mother. The editor, having brains instead of senile sentimentalism, told Butler members, Mrs. J. E. Malone.

MR. SYKES TO BE ON LOUISBUI termine whether his mother's heart way gave a most instructive talk on Parham and Sykes who run the Un-should be broken. "All you have to the life and works of the author, Miss ion Warehouse in Louisburg last sea-us with a piano solo.

Miss Margaret Turner sweetly sang The Perfect Prayer, with Mrs. A. W. Mohn as accompanist.

Piano solo, Mazurka in b minor, Chopin, Miss French. The much enjoyed program was concluded with the reading of a one act play, "Two Slatterns and a King" by Mrs. Pleasants.

We wish to extend our most sincere

STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE

to the find only by the decided by the second of the secon

DAM BREAKS MANY DIE FALLS OUT BUGGY BREAKS NECK

Thought That Pressure of 12 Billion Caused Break; No Evilence of Earthquake Reported by Observatories; Morgues Filled With Victories; Morgues Filled With Victories; Mare Identified; Val. When found he had almost succumbed and a doctor and the Coroner time But Few Are Identified; Val.

the narrow valley to death.

With the bodies of at least 125 men, women and children recovered tonight the known death toll was mounting hourly. Officials feared that as many as 400 persons had lost their lives.

All the way down the narrow defile through which a 75-foot wall of was try poured and on toward the see at under the influence of some stimulant. Ventura, the subsiding flood waters or had suffered some physical disacontinued to give up their dead.

continued to give up their dead.

Without Warning

The great concrete retaining wall, been accounted for.

Hemmed in by the precipitous sides

Again thanking each and every one Saugus carried on the rescue

ORPHANS AT BUNN

The Oxford Orphanage Singing Class will give a concert at Bunn in the High School auditorium on Wed-nesday night, March 21st, at 8 o'clock. All are invited to go out and give the little ones a big audience.

LOUISBURG MARKET

Mr. J. M. Sykes, who was one 5 the members of the firm of Nelms

Next was a discussion "The King's the house Mr. Sykes said he expects Henchman" as a new phase of Ameri- his firm to sell twice as much the

OYSTER SUPPER

There will be a real treat in store for those who come to Justice school house, Friday night, March 23

Come and bring some one with you.
Admission 15 and 25 cents. Proceeds for the Woman's Missionary Society of Duke Memorial Baptist

PLAY AT WHITE LEVEL

"Valley Farm," a play of much in. terest will be given at White Level school Saturday night, March 17th, 1928, 7:30. Wholesome fun, with va-riety being presented. Admission 15 and 25 cents to be used for the school. All are invited to attend.

Mrs. Stallings, before her many on Feb. 16, 1927, was Miss Gladys Strickland of Bunn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. U. Strickland. Mrs. Stallings graduated from the Bunn High School in the spring of 1926 and was the second of her class to marry and the first to be lost from her class by death.

The deceased will find much comfort their loneliness. Those who knew the deceased is survived by her husband, her parents, two sisters, Misses Mae and Sophia Strickland, and one brother, Gus.

Mrs. Stallings, before her misses Gladys Strickland, and mrs. A. U. Strickland. Mrs

GEORGE C. POLLARD.

John Winborn, white, of near Jus. Gailons of Water Early Monday evening while riding near Bartholo-Caused Break; No Eyllence of mew's store and broke his neck, die. Hotel, March & at eight o'clock.

Winborn, so we learn, was a married man, of about 60 years of age and leaves a wife and several child-ren. His funeral was held Sunday at Cypress Chapel church and the inter-

The bereaved family has the sym. pathy of the entire community.

RECORDERS COURT

Quite a large number of cases were docketed for Franklin Recorders Court Monday, Judge H. W. Perry and Prosecuting Attorney E. F. Griffin disposed of the big docket in the remains out of the county for two years, upon payment of costs.

State vs Willie Perry, violating automobile law, not guilty.

State vs E. E. Roberts, possession of whiskey, guilty, fined $25 and costs.

State vs Nat Perry, distilling, guil-ty, months in jail, Commissioners to hire out. State vs Chas, Hawkins, distilling, guilty 6 months in jail, Commissioners to hire out. State vs Luther Howard, distilling, guilty, 6 months in jail, Com ers to hire out. State vs Walter Aycocke, operating automobile intoxicated, guilty, fined State vs Willie Pearce, operating automobile intoxicated, not guilty.

State vs Buck Baker, unlawful pos ession of whiskey, guilty, fined $15 and costs. State vs Sid Driver, unlawful pos. session of whiskey, guilty, fined $25

State vs Donnie Hockady, distilling, guilty, 6 months in jail, Commers to hire out.

State vs Walter Alston, distilling, guilty, 6 months in jail, Commission. ere to hire out. State vs W. R. Pearce, unlawful possession of whiskey, guilty, fined $15.00 and costs. State vs Frank Gill, unlawful posand continued.

State vs Willie Bell, unlawful pos. session of whiskey, guilty, 4 months in jail Commissioners to hire out. State vs Walter Perry, unlawful ossession of whiskey, guilty, fined $25 and costs.

State vs Ann Liza Mitchiner unlawful possession of whiskey, continued State vs A. C. Williams, operating automobile intoxicated, guilty, fined $50 and costs, and not to drive auto. mobile for 90 days State vs James Ruffin, capias, con-

OXFORD ORPHANS AT CASTALIA

Announcement has been made that he Oxford Singing Class will be at Castalia on Saturday night, March 24, 1928 and will give a performance at the school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock They go to Castalia under the auspices of Castalia Masonic Lodge No. 619 A large crowd is expected to go out and cheer up the little tots.

AT ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY

Rev. J. D. Miller, rector St. Paul's All are invited to attend.

NEGRO DIAMOND JUBILEE

SINGERS

This quartette is one of the best in the South and will appear in the Court House, Friday, 8 p. m. They are all southern born pageross.

All are invited to attend.

Episcopal Church announces services for next Sunday as follows:

Sunday School at 10:00.

Evening Prayer at 7:30.

Services will be held through the next week on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 5:00. All are cordially invited to attend

DESTROYS LOT OF BEER

On Tuesay evening Deputy P. E. Dean and Const. W. J. Boone reported the destruction of about one hundred gallons of beer and a lot of fermenters in Cedar Rock township.

On Wednesday officers report the destruction of about two thousand gallons of beer and a lot of fermenters and three cases of fruit jars in front of the old Burt Winston place in Youngsville township. Officers on raid were P. E. Dean, J. B. Young, J. E. Thomas, of Franklin and Bob Tim. Thomas, of Franklin and Bob Tim.

JUNIOR.SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior Class of Mills High School delightfully entertained the tims But Few Are Identified; Val. ley Presents Scene of Desolation,
New Hall, Cal., March 13.—A tremendous wall of water turned loose into San Francisco canyon when the giant St. Francis dam burst under the pressure of twelve billion gallons of water at 12:30 a.m. today, carried more than 125 sleeping residents of the narrow valley to death.

With the bodies of at least 125 men.

tims But Few Are Identified; Val.
cumbed and a doctor and the Coroner classes, yellow, green and white classes, The dining room was beautifully son gave a toast which was respond-ed to by Mr. James Wheless, the president of the Senior class. Much fun was enjoyed with impromptu stunts which were conducted by Miss Lucille Person, a junior. Mr. James Stovall told many jokes on the High School faculty and grade-parents. To all present Miss Cora Beasley gave a toast. Messrs. James Wheless, thur Fleming and John King delighted those present with a trio, "Among My Souvenir." Prof. W. R. Mills then gave a fine address about the age in which we are now living. Again the audience enjoyed a trio, "Your Land and My Land," rendered by Messrs James Wheless, Arthur Fleming and William Mirris, Also, a duet by Jenes.

William Mcreis, Also a duet by James Wheless and Bill Morris. During this program of entertain. ment the meal was served which consisted of four courses. The first Margaret Hill visited Winston Salem course consisted of grape fruit cock. the past week. tail; the second of ham, fried chicktollowing manner.

State vs Sam Johnson, assault, guil.

State vs Sam Johnson, assault, guil.

to issue in ten days or if defendant crackers; and the fourth of brick ice

to issue in ten days or if defendant crackers; and the fourth of brick ice nirs, fans to the ladies and swagger unlawful sticks to the gentlemen.

with everyone singing "So Here's To visit Saturday.

Dear Old Louisburg." Everyone ful. ly enjoyed this banquet and the Seniors earnestly admit that this oceas-from Atlanta where he attended this ion fills one of the first places in the week's Stock Sale. list of their joys had during high school days.

MR. MOORE RECEIVES QUAIL

Mr .C. O. Moore, Game Warden for Franklin County, informs the TIMES past week end with their parents at that he has received twelve pairs quail from the Department of Conser. vation and Development of the State Mrs. C. C. Collins and Miss Margar for distribution in Franklin County et Hill visited Mrs. Genevieve Freeto replenish the fast depleting stock of the County. These birds were di-vided equally with Messrs. B. B. Pruitt, J. O. Green and A. S. Sherrod. Mr. Moore expects to get more in the near future and reminds the public that instead of the State Department through hunting and fishing laws, breaking up the pleasure of the citizens of the State it is actually going to great expense to multiply these he says that much effort is now being made to break up the practice of dynamiting, seining and netting fish, so that the supply of fish may increase. The latest will be supply of fish may increase. increase. The latest rulings on fishing according to information given spending the week end in Kinston. Mr. Moore, is that there is no open season on these three methods of fishing, and that all inland streams and ponds are included.

JUNIOR LEAGUE MEETING

Our League met in the ladies par. or of the M. E. Church Sunday night at 7 o'clock. We have fifteen mem: bers, ten were present. The program Bible reading-Freddie Lee Her- fcr treatment.

Song—Help Somebody Today.

Song, Somebody Did a Golden Deed ston, Mrs. J. E. Malone, Jr., and Major by Mary Fuller Beasley, Cleo Wheel S. P. Boddie attended the Post Office.

er and Gertrude Holden.

Reading, Forgive Us—Robert Hicks.

Reading, As We Forgive—Cary

Cers Convention of the American Legion and Auxiliary in Lumberton

Tuesday. Howard.

Reading, The Gatekeeper-by William Lee Beasley, Jr. turned home this week from Poem, Not In Vain—by Josephine hurst Manor, Southern Pines. friends will be glad to learn that she

We were dismissed with prayer by our leader, Miss Edna Beasley. Signed, William Lee Beasley, Jr.,

COLLEGE FACULTY AT HOME

A CARD OF THANKS We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the recent sickness and death of our dear little baby. Es. pecially to Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris who rendered us unlimited service. Your kindness will never be forgot-

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Beal.

satisfies to Tan Franklin Turkes, 21.50 a Year Trans. See Same

AMONG THE VISITORS

SOME YOU KNOW AND SOME YOU DO NOT KNOW.

Items About Folks And Their Friends Who Travel Hore And There.

Mr. J. L. Palmer visited Raleigh Tuesday,

Mr. J. E. Thomas visited Raleigh ...

Mr. R. R. Kissell visited Durham

Mr. Jake Friedlander spent Tues. day in Raleigh.

Dr. R. F. Yarborough visited Ral-Tuesday.

Pres. A. W. Mohn went to Durham Wednesday on business.

Mr. R. A. Pearce visited the Atlanta Stock Market this week. Mr. D. T. Currin, of Oxford, was a visitor to Louisburg Wednesday. Mrs. W. D. Egerton spent Tuesday in Fayetteville visiting relatives.

Mr. J. M. Gregory spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mr. L. M. Weis_ iger.

Misses Emma Bartholomew and

Misses Margaret Hill and Louise cream and cake.

Mr. John Blair, of the State Educational Department, spent Monday in the Junior class, distributed souve.

Mr. L. M. Weisiger paid Reidsville, The banquet then came to a close Statesville and Charlotte a business Mr. B. N. Williamson has returned

Miss Janie Hawthorne, who has been visiting Miss Elizabeth Webb.

returned home Tu

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bailey spent the

Mrs. C. C. Collins and Miss Margar. man in Henderson Monday. Mr. Paul W. Mack, of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Association, of Raleigh, was in Louisburg Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Thomas and lit-tle daughter, and Miss Elizabeth Webb visited High Point and Lexing...

ton the past week end.

They are the guests of Mrs. Hunt's

Chairman Q. S. Leonard, County Auditor J. A. Hodges, County Attor_ ney G. M. Beam and Mr. M. S. Davis visited Raleigh Wednesday.

Mr. W. D. Upchurch returned Wed_ nesday from Sanatoria, where he went to accompany Mr. Spruill Upchurch who entered the Sanatorium Mrs. H. W. Perry, Mrs. A. W. Al.

Miss Fannie Lillian Massenburg re_ turned home this week from Pine_ has entirely recovered from her recent illness. Mrs. W. D. Leonard, who has be visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Harris, has returned to her home at Mt. Airy. She was accombanied The Louisburg College faculty will be at home to their friends Tuesday afternoon, March twentieth, from four time with her.

"THE GREATEST QUESTION"

The above is the subject from which Rev. Daniel Lane will preach at the Methodist Church Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock. At night he will preach upon "Our Greatest Need." All are invited to attend.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING

We wish to extend our deepest thanks and appreciations to all who rendered so many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy in the recent filness and death of our daughter, with us at this meeting and all members, w. C. Stallings. They will be bers are earnestly requested to at tend.

Mrs. H. W. Dent. H. W.