

THE FRANKLIN TIMES

A. F. Johnson, Editor & Mgr.

TAR DROPS

The weather since Easter has been especially bad.

More candidates are getting in the field each day.

Cotton sold for 19 3/4 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

Mr. F. B. Leonard has taken over the agency for the Chrysler automobile and is showing the new models to his many friends.

Mr. Walter Tucker has purchased the Nash Street Lunch Room formerly operated by Mrs. G. T. Meade and will continue its operation at the same location.

Bose Debnam, colored, was bound over to Recorders Court Wednesday by A. W. Alston, Justice, under a $1,000 bond, for assaulting his wife with a pistol on Tuesday afternoon.

The many friends of Mr. Hal Perry are glad to see him on the streets again this week after an operation for appendicitis at Park View hospital, Rocky Mount.

The county track meet will be held at Franklinton at the high school building Tuesday, April 17th. The events will begin at two o'clock. This meet should be an interesting affair for all in the county who enjoy track. Most of the schools are expected to send teams for the meet.

HOME DEMONSTRATION DEPT.

Contributed Weekly by Miss Daisy Caldwell, Agent

Itinerary April 16th-21st: Monday, Epsom.

Tuesday, Cedar Rock.

Wednesday, Miscellaneous field work.

Thursday, Roberts and Ingleside.

Friday, Seven Paths.

Saturday, County Federation, Louisburg.

Mrs. Hutt To Speak at Next Federation Meeting

Mrs. Hutt, editor of the women's department of the Progressive Farmer, has been asked to speak at the meeting of the Federation on Saturday, April 21st, and the following letter was received from her this morning:

My dear Miss Caldwell: Unless something most unexpected comes up I can be with you on April 21st. It will be a real pleasure to be with you. Yes, I shall be delighted to talk on beautifying the home grounds.

The only thing that can interfere with my being with you in the business way is the chance that a meeting planned for May 2nd might be moved up a week. I think however, that it is pretty definitely set for the first week in May.

Most cordially yours, MRS. W. N. HUTT, Editor Women's Department Progressive Farmer.

Mrs. Hutt is an authority on planting and care of the home grounds and a treat is in store for everyone who hears her.

The County Federation program will be concluded in the morning. Lunch will be at 12:30. The afternoon will be free then for the meeting of the County Council of Parent Teacher Associations which will begin at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Burke Hobgood, of Durham, district president, will give the principal address at this meeting.

We are looking for a good attendance at the Federation. Who will win the gavel this time?

Two new leaflets were received from the horticultural department of State College this week. "Home Garden Food Budget and Planting Schedule," and "Spraying and Dusting Calendar for the Peach Orchard."

If you want to hear a good story told at camp next summer call on Mollie Phelps. She has told some good ones at her club meetings.

Pilot as usual had good attendance at the Womens Club meeting Wednesday. The club planned to work on commencement costumes at their mid month evening meeting. Food values were studied and a demonstration in vegetable cookery given.

White Level Girls Club gave a well prepared Easter program at their club meeting Thursday morning. The song, "April Showers," by the club and a reading by Gladys Collins were especially good. After the program a demonstration in cooking eggs was given and records brought up to date. There will be one more meeting during the school term.

The Mapleville Womens Club had an especially good program. The food leaders displayed posters ready for the leaders school. Miss Mary Best gave an instructive talk on the iron content of different foods, Miss Edith Smith told of some foods that supply vitamins, Mrs. Willie Davis and Mrs. Jim Lancaster discussed other food classes. This program was followed by a demonstration in vegetable cooking and a discussion of the vegetable supply of the family.

The attendance at Justice Womens Club was small as the meeting was on Good Friday and several of the members were away from home for Easter visits. The home agent gave a demonstration in cooking a vegetable meal and vegetable cooking to conserve food values, was discussed.

Sandy Creek Womens Club was rained out Tuesday. The girls will hold their meeting later with their local leader, Mrs. Parrish.

SALE OF LANDS

Under and by virtue of the power and authority vested in me in that certain deed of trust, executed on the 11th day of November, 1927, by W. W. Boddie and wife, which said deed of trust is duly recorded in the office of the Register of deeds for Franklin County, North Carolina, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured and demand made upon me to foreclose, I will on Monday, the 14th day of May, 1928, at or about the hour of noon at the courthouse door for Franklin County in the Town of Louisburg, N. C., sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following described lands which are situate in Sandy Creek Township, Franklin County, North Carolina.

Beginning in the corner of the old Boddie Road, a red oak on the West side, Dr. Burt's corner in line of the J. E. Ellis lands; thence along said Old road N 27 1-2d E 20 poles N 28 1-2 deg. E 12 poles, 16 links to a rock corner of the lands sold by Mrs. Boddie to Sellers Hargrove; thence N 45d W 100 poles to a rock a new corner for No. 2 in the Hargrove line; thence N 81 1-2d W 95 poles to a stake in W. E. Ellis line and corner for No. 2; thence S 52 1-2d E 31 poles S 62 1-2d E 28 poles, S 53d E 12 poles 10 links thence S 69d E 65 poles to the beginning, containing 170 acres more or less. Less one acre belonging to Little Hill School.

This the 12th day of April, 1928. EDWARD F. GRIFFIN, Trustee.

SERVICE OF SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

North Carolina, Franklin County, in the Superior Court, Before the Clerk:

J. E. Malone, Jr., Admr. of James Williams, deceased, vs. Susie Williams, Widow, Rucker Williams, John Williams, Baldy Williams and wife, Alice Williams, Lafayette Williams and wife, Lucy Williams, Phil Williams and wife, Mary Williams, Sam Hawkins and wife, Ella Hawkins, Rebecca Williams, Caroline Williams Hubart, Widow, Charley Hawkins and wife, Madge Hawkins, William Malone and wife, Ruth Malone, Susie Martin and husband, Russell Martin, Clarence Malone and wife, Willie Malone, Lizzie Malone, Bowden Malone and Joe Malone, the last two named minors, appearing herein by their duly appointed Guardian ad Litem, and the Cotton State Paint Company, a Corporation, and G. M. Beam, Trustee.

John Williams, Baldy Williams, Alice Williams, Caroline Williams Hubart and Cotton State Paint Company, a Corporation, defendants above named, will take notice, that a special proceeding has been instituted in the Superior Court of Franklin County, North Carolina, entitled as above, for the purpose of selling certain real estate belonging to the estate of James

THE SPORTS WORLD

PICKING PENNANT WINNERS—YANKS LOOK GOOD AND SO DO DARK HORSES

BY PHILIP MARTIN

PERHAPS the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals won't engage in the next world series, but those two teams are this writer's favorites to win the pennants in their respective leagues. The great indoor sport of the present day is picking the pennant winners. Being rather fond of engaging in any guessing contest, this writer steps right out and picks 'em to wind up in October as follows:

American League—New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis and Boston.

National League—St. Louis, New York, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Boston, Cincinnati, Brooklyn and Philadelphia.

THE Yankees seem a dead cinch to win by a very substantial margin in the American League, despite the strength that the Athletics and the Senators will show this season.

New York had a great club last season, probably one of the greatest ever assembled. They are just as strong this season, although there is a chance of the veteran pitching staff cracking.

It is doubtful whether the A's, even with Speaker and Cobb in their outfield and Joe Hauser on first base, will be able to head off the Yankees. Perhaps if they get better pitching, which is likely, they will rush the Yankees.

The Senators are the only other club likely to crash to the front ahead of the Yankees. They have one of the strongest pitching staffs in the majors, and seem well fortified in all other spots.

Neither Chicago, Detroit nor Cleveland should cause very much trouble. St. Louis and Boston will do well to keep in the league.

IT'S a wide open race in the National League, with the race likely to be between seven clubs. Boston, Brooklyn and Cincinnati show any strength. Otherwise, it is a battle between the Cards, Giants, Pirates and Cubs.

Somehow or other, the Pirates don't appear powerful enough to repeat this season. There is the question of what the two Waners will do this season, and there is also the fact that they just slipped in last season mainly because of the collapse of the Cubs and the injuries the Cardinals suffered from.

The Giants, were Hornsby still with them, would look to be the best bet. At it stands, with a lesser valuable man taking Hornsby's place, his batting punch and fiery spirit will be missed. However, McGraw has a good ball club. Pitching will be the chief worry of the Giants' boss this summer.

What the Cards will do this season depends somewhat on Tommy Thevenow, stellar shortstop, whose leg, which was broken last year, still bothers him.

The Cubs are another puzzling outfit. They have a great outfield. With Adams out, they are likely to suffer at second base. Their catching and pitching are strong.

That leaves the Cards in the first division—and don't be too jarred if they top the other clubs.

St. Louis has about the same ball club they had last year, and injuries have been their bugaboo during the spring training grind, but they should prove the class of the league once all their men get in condition. Of course, in view of their many casualties, it is riding in the face of the gods to pick them to win, but—well, so be it.

For a good dark horse bet in the American, this writer recommends the Washington Senators. They may surprise by coming through if the Yanks crack.

For a good dark horse bet in the National, grab the Boston club on the strength of Rogers Hornsby. You can't tell what Hornsby will do to that club, and the fact that Jack Slattery can put a .300 hitter at every position on the club may change the complexion of things once the race gets under way.

Lucky Strike Cigarettes advertisement featuring a pack of cigarettes and a portrait of Fred Niblo.

The Cream of the Tobacco Crop. FRED NIBLO Photoplay Director, writes: "To a moving picture director there is no comfort or luxury like a good cigarette. Such a cigarette I have found in 'The Lucky Strike'—and during the filming of big pictures like 'Ben Hur' I smoked 'Luckies' even while directing in the open air thousands of supernumeraries, and never once did I ever suffer from throat irritation."

"It's toasted" No Throat Irritation—No Cough. ©1928, The American Tobacco Co., Inc.

To Search for Oldest Mummies Hidden for Centuries in Arctic

Capt. Robert A. Bartlett, of North Pole fame, and his ship, the Morrissey Secrets of the Arctic, hidden for ages, are about to be uncovered by the Stoll-McCracken Siberian-Arctic Expedition of the American Museum of Natural History. The expedition expects to recover mummies of Mongolians, who probably furnished the first inhabitants of the North American continent.

These mummies, supposedly older by centuries than those of Egypt, were preserved in caves, none has ever been removed, to cause they have been protected by the super-stuff that to touch them means death.

While this is one of the major objectives of the expedition, its members will explore unknown lands near the coast of Asiatic Siberia going to within 600 miles of the Pole. They will study the economic possibilities of that part of the world, and will hunt for specimens of animals and birds of the Far North not now in the museum's collections.

Harold McCracken, celebrated Arctic explorer, and widely known as a photographer of wild animals, will be the leader of the Expedition. Charles H. Stoll, New York lawyer and big game hunter will be its director; Dr. H. E. Anthony, Curator of Mammals of the American Museum of Natural History, and Edward Manley, radio operator, will be members of the party; Mrs. Merle L. Stoll, wife of Charles H. Stoll, will accompany her husband. Captain Robert A. Bartlett, Commander of the Roosevelt when Peary reached the North Pole, will command the Morrissey.

One of the great problems that had to be solved in outfitting the expedition was how to keep its members warm if they should be frozen in where the thermometer frequently gets down to 80 degrees below zero. The territory to be explored is literally the coldest known portion of the globe. After intensive investigation, American radiator heating has been installed in the Morrissey which is to carry the expedition. The Morrissey was used during the last two years by George Palmer Putnam on his expeditions to Baffin Land and Greenland.

The Morrissey has already sailed for Seattle, and will be joined by the members of the expedition at Prince Rupert, British Columbia. It is hoped that the Morrissey will be able to return within eight months but this will depend upon the ice conditions to be met.

COLUMBIA PHONOGRAPH COMPANY HOUR

April 18, 1928 WEDNESDAY 10 to 11 P. M. E. S. T.

MELODY HOUR LONDON STRING QUARTET AND JAMES MELTON

in Columbia Phonograph Company Hour

Just prior to sailing for England, the London String Quartet, renowned chamber music ensemble, has been secured for the Columbia Phonograph Hour of April 18th, together with James Melton, favorite tenor, in a Melody Program. The London String Quartet will play selections from Beethoven, Schubert, and Tchaikowsky; and Mr. Melton, known hitherto for popular songs, will include in his offerings an air from the opera "Martha." The Columbia Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Robert Hood Bowers, will share the honors.

- 1. COLUMBIA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA under direction of Robert Hood Bowers. March of the Borjaren Halvorsen
2. JAMES MELTON, Tenor (a) My Heart Stood Still, - from "A Connecticut Yankee" (b) Whery My Caravan Has Rested.
3. LONDON STRING QUARTET (a) Andante Cantabile Tchaikowsky (b) Scherzo-Opus 18, No. 4 Beethoven
4. JAMES MELTON, Tenor -Aria from "Martha" Flotow "Ah, So Pure"
5. COLUMBIA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA In a Monastery Garden Ketelbey
6. LONDON STRING QUARTET Scherzo from from Quartet No. 6 Schubert
7. JAMES MELTON, Tenor (a) I Can't Do Without You (b) Rosita
8. LONDON STRING QUARTET (a) Londonderry Air Bridge (b) Cherry Ripe Bridge
9. COLUMBIA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Badinage Victor Herbert

ALL THE NEW RECORDS CAN BE HAD AT OUR STORE.

Brown Furniture House J. L. BROWN, Proprietor Youngsville, N. Carolina

One to Gallows; One to a Cell

William Edward Hickman and Welby Hunt are pictured here taking what probably will be their last train ride. They are on their way to San Quentin penitentiary where Hickman (left) is to die on the gallows April 27 for the murder of Marian Parker. Both were convicted of the murder of Ivy Thoms, a druggist, and for this crime Hunt (right) must serve a life sentence.

Williams, deceased, to make assets for the payment of debts of said estate, and division of any surplus among the widow and heirs at law, according to their respective interests therein and let said defendants take notice that they are required to appear and answer or demur to said petition or complaint filed in said proceedings, a copy of which is on file in the office of said Clerk of the Superior Court, within thirty days after the 13th day of May, 1928, or the relief demanded in said petition or complaint will be granted. This April 11, 1928. J. J. YOUNG, Clerk of Superior Court. 4-13-28