TAR DROPS

Cotton was worth 20 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

Quite a cold wave visited this section Sunday and Monday.

Dr. H. H. Johnson has secured temporary offices over the First National Bank.

Dr. H. G. Perry has secured the office over Jno. W. King's store and has arranged to see his patients there.

Rev. J. D. Miller, rector St. Paul's Episcopal church, announces services at 10 and 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. for next Sunday. All are invited to attend.

A news item from near Cedar Rock states that Mr. Roger Collins, who has been under treatment at a hospital in Rocky Mount, has returned home much improved.

Constable Frank F. Hicks, of Sandy Creek township reports the destruction of about one hundred gallons of beer on E. H. Malone's farm near Schloss the past week.

The Boddie Drug Co. announces they will be ready to resume business by Monday morning. Arrangements are now being made for a location which will be announced later. Orders for new equipment and new goods are being placed.

The fire alarm yesterday at noon was caused by an outbuilding near the R. Z. Egerton home on Church street catching fire. The fire department was misdirected and sent to W. F. Beasley's instead of W. L. Beasley, but got back in time to assist in extinguishing the blaze, which did negligible damage.

DEATH OF MRS. E. D. WHEELER

On April the 4th, 1928 at six o'clock in the afternoon the death angels visited the home of our Brother G. R. Wheeler and took our loving mother, Mittie Frances.

Yet we all know she was a great and patient sufferer for seven months, through all of her sufferings she exemplified a christian character. She was born November 2nd, 1855 and leaves to mourn their loss besides her friends nine children: W. M. Wheeler, of Richmond, E. B. E. M. G. R. and H. H. Wheeler, Mrs. J. L. Champion, Mrs. G. T. Bridges, Mrs. J. H. Cash, Mrs. J. E. Pearce, 43 grandchildren and three great grandchildren, three sisters, Mrs. David Smith, of Richmond, Mrs. Shem McGhee and Mrs. Jim Bobbitt. She was taken to the family cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. C. Yates. The flower girls were her nieces and grand daughters, Misses Ava, Myrtle and Virginia McGhee, Mrs. Morris Champion, Mrs. Vernon Parrish and Thelma Perry. The pall bearers were J. A. and E. B. Cash and her grandsons, Morris Champion, Sam Bailey, Clarence Grisham, Vernon Parrish, Julian McGhee and Richard Cash.

FOR SHERIFF

To the voters of Franklin County: I am a candidate for the office of Sheriff for Franklin County subject to the action of the Democratic voters in the primary to be held Saturday, June 2nd.

If nominated and elected I shall earnestly strive to discharge the duties of the office without fear or favor.

It will be impossible for me to see each voter in person, but I shall greatly appreciate your support and take this opportunity to thank you in advance for same.

Very truly yours,
H. A. KEARNEY.

RUPTURE SHIELD EXPERT HERE

E. J. Meinhardt, of Chicago, the well known expert, will personally be at the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, N. C., on Sunday and Monday, April 22 and 23 from 10:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M. daily. Mr. Meinhardt says: He will be pleased to demonstrate "The Meinhardt Vacuum Rupture Shield" for the relief and cure of rupture to all gentlemen who call on him during the above stated office hours. The largest and most difficult cases are especially solicited. There is no charge for demonstration.

Only gentlemen are invited to call at this time as special arrangements will be announced later for women and children.

Please do not write asking for literature or to be fitted by mail, as this is impossible. Every case must be seen personally; therefore I visit this section every year.

Notice—All cases that I have fitted here during the past five years will please call for inspection. Please note the above dates and office hours carefully. Business demands prevent stopping at any other city in this section. (This visit is for white people only.)
