Beginning the Year Right

Attendance at school is an important issue with us, the high school students. We were much disappointed because we did not win the $10.00 for attendance in the fall. But now that we have started a new year we are trying to stay in school every day. The two of our number who have not missed a day in four and six years alternately were just praised in the fall by the editor of our Dynamo. There are others who were inspired by that effort and they too are to be praised for having a perfect record in January. The same students are honor students in their studies. The list may be found as follows:

Claud Bowden, Rudolph Wilder, Lloyd Dunn, Graham Jenkins, Gladys Collins, Margaret Ivey, Beatrice Haymon, Aileen Murphy, Ila Murphy, Rosa Pinnell, Kenneth Leonard, Bonnie Lee King, Mavis Gupton, Berteen Harris, Velma Green, Ruby May, Rosalie Gordon, Lucille Stokes, Cora Haymon, Ethel Hayes, Clela May, Howard Williams, Elmo Dean, Ophelia Pearce, Seth Lester, Leon Alford, Junie Turnage, William Fisher, William Parrish, Gertrude Gupton, Virginia Perry, Nell Stallings, Thelma Gupton, Jessie Wester, Annie Lee Nelms, Lou Ella Pernell, Raymond Moore, Placid Hayes, Eula May Boone, Mary Johnson, Christine Bowden, Elizabeth Fisher, Junious Wester, Sherrod Sledge, William Sledge, Egbert Smith, Elma Braswell, Louise Nelms, Mary Neal, Beatrice Strickland, Eva Mae Spivey, Maude Swanson, Curtis Bowden, Roy Vick, Robert Perry, Eula Griffin, Wilma Murphy, Rachael Parrish, Margaret Smith, Abner Perry, Grace Strickland, Ashley Jenkins, Johnnie Wester, George Earp.

Locale News

Ruby May and Miss Gupton were visitors in Rocky Mount last Saturday. Mr. Hopkins spent the week-end with his brother at Castalia. Wilson Edwards never strays from home this cold weather. Mr. Abner Perry visited Mr. Kemp last Saturday night. There was no school at E. B. H. S. last Thursday and Friday on account of the snow. Miss Margaret Stallings, from North Carolina College for Women visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. B. H. Stallings at Cedar Rock last week-end. We have had quite a few unusual visitors in our community. On awaking some morning there could be found a frozen man (snow man) in the front yard. Miss Upchurch was a visitor at Gold Sand High School this week. Cora Haymon and Ethel Hayes visited Ophelia Pearce Friday. Our school resumed its work on Monday Feb. 3. We are proud of J. C. Bunn who gave an oration at Franklinton last Friday night. Even though he did not win we are proud that he represented our school. We wish at the same time to congratulate Clifton Gupton of Gold Sand who won first place and Miss Williams of Bunn who won second place. There is much interest at present at our school in athletics. But we must not cause interest to slacken in class work. Next week we expect to observe "Live at Home Week."

Franklin County Day

On last Wednesday our school observed Franklin County Day. During the chapel period impressive facts were given about Franklin. The interest created last summer at the Sesqui-centennial in July was an important factor in connecting the event of Founders Day. The following program was carried out in chapel. (The students are to be commended for their original short talks.)
Origin of Franklin—Rossie Gordon.
Industries and Improvements—Howard Williams.
Musical Selections—Mrs. Sledge.
Famous Men of Our County—Ruby Macon.
Future Hope for Franklin—Velma Green.
Song, "Franklin"—School.

Lindbergh's Cave

The January issue of Literary Digest contains an interesting account of Lindbergh cave written by Mr. Meyer. The cave, which is found in the west is very old, but has recently been christened Lindbergh Cave, because of the following incident. Mr. Meyer was in a hut making a map. One afternoon a large plane flew over. The motor died down and they thought the plane had crashed. The next day a man was seen approaching with, seemingly, a large bundle. It proved to be the Lindberghs. Because of a sore foot Mr. Lindbergh was carrying Mrs. Lindbergh. When they reached the hut Lindbergh showed pictures he had made.

Among them was one of a cave. During the night there was a storm and no one slept. The next morning they went to the cave and found a skeleton and some old pottery. The three explorers sat down at the mouth of the cave and ate lunch. They did not have any tools therefore the cave could not be explored thoroughly. The great interest which the aviator and his wife showed in the excavation immediately caused it to be christened "Lindbergh Cave."

Physics Class

For the past week we have progressed rapidly, not only in class work but outside work. Mr. Hopkins has provided a bulletin board for the class room, this adds much interest. Monday we gave an old cat a very serious operation to see just how her heart was beating. She has not been back to see us so far, although we are expecting her.

Dramatic Club

On Friday, Feb. 7, 1930, the Dramatic Club met at its usual time and rendered a very interesting program. It was as follows:
Song—No. 15.
Devotion—Ashley Jenkins.
The Bride Goes to Market—Margaret Smith.
Piano Solo—Geraldine Turnage.
Little Brother—Ruby May.
Willie Willis—Nell Stallings.
Harp Solo—Elaine Sykes.
Song—No. 3.

Y. T. H. F. News

The C section of the Y. T. H. F.'s won in the attendance contest, between the three sections of our chapter. We are expecting a good treat. The time has not been announced.

The hatchery has been started. We feel that with Jesse Wester as operator that all of his customers will be satisfied with their returns.

We will stop cleaning and treating tobacco seed on Feb. 12, 1930.
