be 100 per cent present but it seems just in vain. We aren't going to give up but are going to try, try again and maybe we will succeed someday, so that we can have a half holiday on Friday.

"Live-at-Home" and its purpose as well as importance has been well drilled in our minds this week and we hope that it will do much good in promoting its purpose. We had to write a theme in English on "The Importance of Live at Home. On Algebra we had different subjects assigned to certain groups such as "The Importance of a Cow," "The Importance of Raising Chickens," "The Importance of Hogs," and other similar subjects. In Home Economics we had to write a theme on "What I can do to help my community and parents live at home." Also we had to make out a menu for a day having only the foods that we raise at home. We have also taken part in the chapel exercises that were rendered each morning.

The Home Economics girls have not been cooking this week because they were in debt and the more they cooked the more they got in debt.

We have learned right much this year and have a good deal more to learn such as:

"Mr. Benfield do you know where preacher Hartfield, our former preacher, lives," asked one of the students.

"In a house, I guess," answered Mr. Benfield.

"Ted, what does 'boycott' mean," asked Mr. Benfield.

"A cot that a boy sleeps on," answered Ted.

Organized Spelling Club

Last Wednesday evening, the last period, we organized a "Spelling Club." We started with only seven members. We hope to have more new members next week. The club was divided into two groups. Sherwood Beddingfield and Myrtle Etta Gay were chosen as the captains. We started having a spelling match but decided to go out in the auditorium to hear the radio program.

When we stopped Sherwood's side had three points and my side had two points.

Myrtle Etta Gay, Reporter.

Junior-Senior Party

The Juniors honored the Seniors, the grade and high school teachers when they were hostess at an informal Valentine party at school Thursday evening. The gymnasium was attractively decorated in Valentine effect. In the decorations and refreshments, a red color scheme suggestive of the Valentine season was effectively carried out.

Many interesting games were played, Old Dusty Miller, Marching around the Level, and Dizzy Relay. Dizzy Relay created much interest both among the students and teachers.

Very appetizing refreshments were served consisting of potato salad, saltines, nabiscoes, and pink lemonade.

The entertainers committee was made up of, Ruby Perry, Hyacinth Weathersby, and Dillard Privette; the refreshment committee was made up of, Sadie Cork, Violette Johnson, and Erdeane Richardson; the decoration committee of Pauline Johnson, Irene Jeffreys, and Sherwood Beddingfield.

The Chapel Exercise

We have observed this "Live-at-Home" was greatly impressed. Also what is meant by "Live-at-Home." Over the radio, we heard the talk given by Governor Gardner. Live-at-Home means much to us, it reduces the cost of our food, and other products that we can grow.

On Tuesday, we also heard a talk over the radio on the same subject. Two short plays, one written by Ruth Strickland and the other written by Elizabeth Beddingfield, were given. These plays pertained to the value of hogs and cows.

Wednesday was the hundred and fifty-first anniversary of our county. This was celebrated by a play on the history of Franklin County. It was interesting, and we learned several important facts about its history. Also we sang our County song, "Franklin."

Thursday an interesting program was given by the eight grade Home Economic Department. This program told us the importance of a family cow.

On the last day of our "Live-at-Home" week, two plays were given. They were written by two of the seniors, Minnie Grey Carde and Bruce Dodd. We learned many important ideas from these plays on the value of a garden.

The programs were very interesting. We hope these programs will not only last this but every week this year, and the years to come.

Literary Society

The Literary society met last Wednesday in Mr. Keith's room. The roll was called, and the business attended to.

Poem—Roberta Brantly.
Story—Elizabeth White.
Then we went to the auditorium where all high school students were assembled to listen to a radio program. We enjoyed the program very much since it was about Franklin County's 151st anniversary.

Dramatic Club Meets

The Dramatic Club enjoyed a very interesting program over the Radio Wednesday, February 12, 1930. This program was honoring Franklin County's one hundred and fifty first anniversary.

Sore Throats And Coughs

Quickly Relieved by this Safe Prescription

Here's a doctor's prescription that is really throatinsurance. Sore or irritated throats are relieved and soothed almost instantly with the very first swallow. About 90 per cent of all coughs are caused by an irritated throat; consequently for most coughs too there is nothing better than this famous prescription—it goes direct to the internal cause. It is put under the name Thoxine and is guaranteed to stop coughs and relieve sore throats in 15 minutes or your money will be refunded. Singers and speakers find Thoxine very valuable. The remarkable thing about Thoxine is that while it relieves almost instantly, it contains nothing harmful, is pleasant tasting and safe for the whole family. Ask for Thoxine 35c., 60c., and $1.00 bottles. Sold by Beasley Bros., and all other good drug stores.

Bunn boys won with the score 3-0.

We wish to congratulate our boys as they make up the future high school teams.

On the same afternoon, the High School teams of Bunn and Gold Sand played. Bunn won with the score 7-5.

On February 7, the Bunn girls played Gold Sand there. The girls won with the score 17-5. Congratulations girls.

Then in the evening, the two teams of Bunn that played the preceding afternoon played the two teams of Gold Sand. The Bunn teams won again. The High School score was 14-16. The elementary teams score was 10-12.

How the boys could play on both teams. My. We like to play Gold Sand. They make us work for results on turn, we do the same.

The Gold Sand girls played the Bunn Girls here on Friday night, February 14.

Senior Class News

Hello folks! Perhaps you think we have been asleep; but no, not yet. We have been at work—hard work too. We've learned to speak before an audience without our knees knocking "Home Sweet Home", learned to read some of Shakespeare's Plays and put sense to them, learned to sing, write plays, and almost every thing from drawing a refrigerator and stuffing it full of good eats to learning how to pronounce "library" in French. As a final blow to all of our hard work, we had the State examination Thursday, but we got through them all right and without so much effort; and I don't suppose any one saw any change in us when we came out of the History class room, excepting maybe a pencil mark or two on our flushed faces.

But we had our reward. Thursday night the juniors gave us a reception carrying out the Valentine idea. The gymnasium was beautifully decorated in red and white. Many stunts etc. were carried out, and pretty music helped to make the reception more pleasing. In fact, it almost turned out to be a ball, but when the little waitresses came out dressed in red and white, everything became quiet and each boy drew a heart, sought out the girl whose name appeared on the heart and both ate with relish the refreshments. The menu consisted of potato salad, crackers, pink lemonade and nabiscoes.

"Cucumber".

P. T. A. Meets

The Bunn P. T. A. met at the Bunn High School auditorium and the devotion consisted of a song Holy, Holy, Holy, and a prayer by J. L. Kleith.

During the business session Miss Howard announced that the playbooks for "Beantown Choir" would soon be here. The P. T. A. was divided into two groups for the purpose of increasing the membership. The losing side will be penalized in some way. The real purpose of this movement is to get the people out to the P. T. A. where the school can really be interpreted to them. R. K. Benfield and J. L. Keith will lead the groups.

Another announcement by the Home Economics Department to the effect that there would be a supper at the post office February 15 for the benefit of the Home Economics club.

The low fourth and third grade received the picture for having the most parents present at the P. T. A.

Then the program committee took charge, presenting the following numbers: Story, She Was Forgotten, by Mrs. H. H. Hobgood; Song, by two members of the 6th grade; and a speech by Mr. Bowen on "Why the school of yesterday are not like they are today." He first gave reasons for the first grade methods being different from those of old when a child spent a whole year learning his abc's, whereas he now learns to read and does read several books during the year.

The old blue back speller is no longer used because it contains words that are rarely ever used in everyday life. Mr. Bowen also gave a history of the schools as related to methods of instruction. The old academy and Latin schools he pointed out were used to train the select few—the minister, the doctor and lawyer. Now the high school attempts to assume the burden of helping everyone some. Thus vocational training has entered the high schools.

Hollywood would lose some of its unpleasant notoriety if movie stars were paid salaries more commensurate with what they earn.

No need to be alarmed about the next generation just because some of the colleges have banned the fall class scrap.
