

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Monday is first Monday.

Cotton sold for 15 1-4 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

The Board of County Commissioners and Education meet Monday.

J. C. Tucker is veneering his new building annex on Main Street with brick.

The new Vitaphone at the Winner Theatre is attracting much favorable comment.

The fire Thursday afternoon of last week was an outhouse at the home of Q. S. Leonard. The fire department was quickly on the scene and extinguished the fire, but not before the building was badly damaged and the contents also damaged.

Editor W. Brodie Jones, of the Warrenton Record, killed himself Wednesday afternoon at his home in Warrenton, using a revolver. He was 38 years of age and the act is ascribed to ill health.

The program as announced for the regular monthly meeting of the Colored Welfare Association of Franklin County, which is to be held next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, includes music by the Concord and Royal Quartettes and an address by Maj. S. P. Boddie. A most interesting meeting is expected.

YOUNG TAR HEEL FARMERS HOLD FATHER AND SON BANQUET

About sixty-five people enjoyed the annual banquet given by the Agriculture boys to their fathers at Gold Sand recently. This affair took place during "Live at Home" week, and the various numbers on the program emphasized the importance of the practice of growing plenty of food and feedstuffs on the home farm.

Thurman Griffin, President of the local chapter of the Young Tar Heel Farmer Organization, acted as toastmaster, introducing the following program: Talk, "How to Select a Good Cow", Noward Faulkner; Song by Agriculture boys; "Our Thrift Bank", Thurman Griffin; Talks by H. E. Singletary of State College, Fred U. Wolfe and W. O. Reed of Gold Sand, C. G. Harris and Col. C. L. McGhee of Franklinton, and L. O. Armstrong of State College. At the conclusion of the program two of the fathers, W. D. Fuller and Reverend J. H. Harper gave very interesting talks. Raymond Shearin of Wood furnished delightful music.

The banquet was prepared by the Home Economics class under the management of the teacher, Miss Lucy Wells. The girls carried out their duties in the best of style and ease.

A box of candy was presented to the Home Economics girls in appreciation of their service and a scout knife to Mr. Singletary as a reminder of his stay at Gold Sand.

This occasion furnished an opportunity for the boys and their fathers to get together to enjoy a social evening and to discuss questions of vital interest to fathers and sons.

Evening Class Meetings

Thus far the Evening Class Meetings for farmers have been well attended. The topics that have been discussed dealt with pastures, Lespedeza, corn improvement, and diversification. A number of farmers have secured Lespedeza seed to plant this spring. One hundred pounds of Korean have been distributed and three hundred pounds of Common have been ordered. Several farmers are also securing Registered Latham's Double corn seed in order to supply better seed to the community another year. A farmer has everything to gain and nothing to lose in trying to produce better seed and a better quality of product. There are a number of other meetings to be held. All farmers are welcome.

Young Tar Heel Farmer Meeting

A regular meeting was held Friday, February 21. The following program was carried out: Scripture and prayer, Paul Stainback; Farm News, Wayne Joyner; The Value of the Year-around Garden, Harvey Joyner; Declamation, Wilson Parrish; Readings, "Is America a Paradise for Women?", by Nona Burnette and Eloise Simpson; Jokes, Maurice Wester.

The contribution in the form of readings by two of the Home Economics girls was a new feature to the programs, being greatly enjoyed.

The next regular meeting will be held on Friday, March 7, at 12:15. Visitors are always welcome at these meetings.

Mr. J. K. Coggin Visits Agriculture Department

Mr. J. K. Coggin, District Supervisor of Agricultural Instruction and State Advisor of the Young Tar Heel Farmer organization was a visitor at Gold Sand Thursday. He observed some of the work of the department, after which he took a number of pictures of the Young Tar Heel Farmers. Much of the progress of the State organization is due to his leadership.

Y. T. H. F. Have School Grounds As Improvement Project

The Young Tar Heel Farmers have been given the school grounds as an improvement project. Trees and shrubbery will be set out from time to time. The past week a number of saplings donated by Mr. George Foster, and other trees secured by the Agriculture boys were added to the grounds. The shrubbery has been pruned in order to make the summer growth more attractive.

CRIPPLED UP WITH RHEUMATIC PAINS

"Sargon did more for me in a few weeks time than everything else combined did in 25 years and gave me a nine pound gain in weight besides."

MRS. ELIZABETH MILLER

"For years I was crippled up with rheumatic pains in my arms and legs. I was very nervous and had awful headaches. I'd suffer with gascolic and smothering spells after meals, and the glands in my throat and neck would swell to the size of apples. I was so weak and rundown and lost so much flesh nobody thought I'd live. I've taken 4 bottles of Sargon, my rheumatic pains are almost gone, the swelling in my glands is hardly noticeable, my nerves are strengthened and I haven't had a headache since the second bottle. Sargon Pills relieved me entirely of a chronic case of constipation."—Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, 129 Hillside St., Asheville. Scoggin's Drug Store, Agents.—Adv.

of learning will bid them welcome.

Great improvement is being shown among the juniors in all subjects. Special interest is being shown in geometry. There is so much improvement that we are saving our pennies to buy frames for our reports at the end of the year.

May E. Winn, reporter.

A science club was organized some time ago under the supervision of Mr. J. A. Woodward. The purpose of this club is to stimulate interest in science. It has met several times and some of the subjects that were discussed are as follows: Astronomy, which was reported on by Bruce Pace, Sallie Mitchell, and Mary Ethel Winn; a discussion of Sound was given by Henry Dickerson, Alice Cline Smith, and Gertie Stone.

Officers elected were as follows: President, Mary Ethel Winn; Secretary, Alice Cline Smith; Program Committee, Helen Gray Kearney, Venora Dunn, and Gertie Stone. The committee to determine the qualification of members were as follows: Henry Dickerson, Mollie Dunn, and Annie Laurie Rowland. Bruce Pace was elected reporter, and Sallie Mitchell Manager of the Question Box.

The Sidney Lanier Society met February 14, and presented an interesting program. The first number on the program was a song by the society. Louvenia Edwards gave a very interesting account of the life of Lincoln. She showed the noble traits of character as well as his little peculiarities which mark him as one of America's greatest sons. Next on the program was Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, presented in a very touching way by Vergie Ayscue. Vernelle Frazier gave an appeal for the people to live at home. She showed how the dire necessity for such a program was brought home, in no uncertain terms, to the farmers the past fall. Representing himself as the farmer, Robert Ayscue said he was proud of being one. Continuing the farm program, Estelle Woodward gave a discussion on the time one should plant vegetables in the open. Myrtle Mitchell then gave some timely facts on the vegetable as a food. She also gave a long list of vegetables that are grown in North Carolina. As humor deserves a place on every program, Mollie Dunn was allowed to keep the society in hilarious laughter for a few minutes by her "Who's Who."

In closing the Franklin County song was sung. Mr. Woodward and Miss Fuller were visitors.

Every time an airplane does a tail spin or a nose dive, or a mine blows up, we are reminded of what a fine thing it is to have the earth at our feet.

MAKING IT EASY

DURING the winter months nearly everyone would be benefited by the consistent use of cod-liver oil. One of the drawbacks to its more general use is its natural taste.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is not only cod-liver oil prepared for easy digestion, it is also made pleasant-tasting and this makes it available to millions who need its health-giving benefits.

Be sure you use Scott's Emulsion—it's cod-liver oil made easy to take.
