EDWARD BEST HIGH SCHOOL DYNAMO

P. T. A. On last Monday evening February 24 the P. T. A. of Edward Best Hi held a worthwhile meeting. Miss Chappell, Home Economics teacher, had charge of the program.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. T. H. Dickens, Mr. Sledge was in charge.

An opening song "America" was sung. Devotion was conducted by Miss Gupton. In the session of business there were additional members to pay the yearly fee, thus bringing our paid membership to a large number.

With Miss Chappell in charge the subject "Ethical Character" was enjoyed as the following rendered parts: Paper—"Character Developed Through and by Teaching Courtesy," Mrs. P. R. Inscoc. In the absence of Mrs. Inscoc her paper was presented by Miss Upchurch.

A musical selection was rendered by Mrs. G. B. Stallings. The selection was a favorite of Mrs. Stallings because she had seen her son march to it at Annapolis Naval Academy. "Stories That Should be Read to Children" were commented on by Mrs. J. O. May.

"Interpreting the Public School" Mr. Sledge.

The next two meetings of P. T. A. will be held on March 21 and April 18. Mr. Wolfe and Mrs. Sledge will have charge in the order named.

At the close of the meeting there was a round table discussion of how it is best to get the parents to understand and be sympathetic with the public school system. The ultimate way is to make the child so in love and devoted to the school that he will interpret it in its best light to the parents.

Developing Character Through and By Teaching Courtesy and Politeness (By Mrs. P. R. Inscoc.)

Politeness is a necessity for the well bred person; if the school has as its aim the preparation of the individual for a better life, then the teacher should be concerned with the moral side as well as the intellectual. One of the best ways to correct bad manners in a pupil is to set a good example. Children, as a rule, think that their teacher knows more than their parents, she makes a greater impression on them. Character is formed through practice. The fundamentals of all character education may be expressed as the creation of an attitude, a desire on the part of the boy or girl to acquire certain qualities and the sufficient practice to make them habits of conduct. Personality teaches better and finer things than were ever printed in books; it is character in action. A teacher with a striking personality and a brilliant mind is sure to leave a deep impress upon her pupils. One of the greatest traits in any profession is courtesy—just ordinary good manners—the best insurance against insult.

Emerson said "Life is not so short, but there is always time for courtesy." Over-politeness is rudeness. Small kindnesses, small courtesies, small considerations, habitually practiced give greater charm to the character than the display of great talents and accomplishments.

The Tie That Binds The school crowded around the court last Wednesday at noon to see the class game between the Freshies and the Sophs. The players, dressed in purple and old gold, got in their places on the court, each one eager to play her best.

"Come on lets beat 'em", someone hollered. The whistle blew and Mary Heading jumped and got the tip on Ruby Hunt. The ball went swiftly from hand to hand until it reached the tiny hand of Marjorie Collins. She put it in the goal. The crowd went up in an uproar.

"Get on 'em, Sophs", Nell Stallings called loudly, but in vain. When the first half was over the score was 4-0 in favor of the Freshies. The second half gave the Sophs enough luck to end an interesting game with a tie, the score being 4-4.

Among the Visitors Theron Stickland visited Clarence Pearce, at Cedar Rock, last Saturday night.

Misses Cora Haymon and Mary Johnson went to a basket-ball game last Saturday night.

Lucille Stokes spent last Sunday afternoon around and about Seven Paths.

Mr. Graham West visited Mr. Earnest Haymon of Justice last Sunday evening.

Miss Upchurch spent the past week-end at the home of Miss Nannie Perry.

Miss Ruby Lee May visited her sister, Mrs. Kemp, at Louisburg last week.

We are glad to have Robert Marshall back at school. We sympathize with him in the loss of his mother who was stricken with paralysis last week.

Miss Gupton was a visitor at Rocky Mount last week-end.

A Good Citizen Last Wednesday morning, a very good chapel program was given by Mr. Hopkins on "Good Citizenship. He read Acts 21:39 and told about the birthplace and life of Paul. He then gave the following points that a good citizen will do:

- 1. Respect for law. 2. Respect for public property. 3. Respect for rights of others. 4. Respect for self. 1. Have enough respect to shun bad company. 5. Reverence for God. When we go to church, we should have enough reverence for God to act nicely. We should never talk and laugh in church. A boy or girl at school must learn to take care of the school building for it is public property. A good citizen will respect the right of others.

Reading Addison says "Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body." By reading, the health of the mind is kept alive, cherished and confirmed. Henry Ward Beecher likened books to "Windows of the soul, through which the mind looks out. Without books not only would schools, colleges, and universities disappear, but everything which we call culture would vanish, and society would lapse at once into barbarism."

The one who does not read will get out of touch with the world and lack sympathy with the social, political, and scientific movements of his time. Everyone knows that he should read for many reasons, and nearly everyone does read some, but the question is does each get the greatest value possible from his reading?

E. B. H. S. Juniors Win The Junior boys defeated the Sophomore boys in a class game played here, Feb 25, the score being 16-8. The line up for play on both teams was as follows:

DR. CALDWELL'S THREE RULES

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system and is not habit forming.

The Doctor never did approve of drastic purges and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their system. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, bad breath, no appetite, headaches, and to break up fevers and colds. Get a bottle today, at any drugstore and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open. For a free trial bottle, just write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept.
