CROWD ATTENDS SALE PERSON PROPERTY

Nineteen Lots Sold at Satisfactory Price Before Stopped by Rain—Remainder to be Sold May 1st.

An especially large crowd was present at the sale splendid building lots by the American Auction Co., and Mr. J. T. Pruitt, on Tuesday, when nineteen of the eighty five lots of the sub-division of the late Joseph J. Person home place, on the corner of Main Street and Halifax road, were sold for the neat sum of above seven thousand dollars.

The sale thus far is considered highly successful and very satisfactory by Mr. Pruitt and the American Auction Co., who extend their appreciations to the large number for their presence and interest on Tuesday.

The splendid music furnished by the band added much pleasure for many in attendance.

President Gets Poppy

Five-year-old Lois June Allen, orphan daughter of a world war veteran, pins the first "Buddy Poppy" of the Spring campaign on Mr. Hoover's coat. The money from the sale of the poppies goes for the relief of disabled veterans and their dependants.

Dr. J. Henry Highsmith Talks To Kiwanians

The address of Dr. J. Henry Highsmith, head of the high school department of the State Board of Education, before the Louisville Kiwanis club on Friday night was filled with interesting public school information as he told of the educational progress in North Carolina from 1900 to now. He told of the larger advantages offered today and the necessarily greater cost showing that while the cost of living had advanced since 1900 to a point that a dollar then would buy as much as $2.22 today, considering the greater advantages offered and the larger number of children taught the school cost had not kept pace with the advance in living costs.

The program was in charge of President Bill Mills and the meeting was largely attended.

American Legion Auxiliary Meeting

The Jambes Unit No. 105, American Legion Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting in April with Mrs. E. C. Perry and Mrs. B. N. Williamson, hostesses at the home of Mrs. E. C. Perry. Due to the late sale and the unexpected storm the meeting was somewhat interrupted, but it was well attended and much interest manifested.

The meeting was called to order by the President, and the Chaplain led in prayer—the Pledge to the Flag was then given and the Preamble read.

Mrs. W. L. Beasley read a most interesting article about the poppies which are being made by the disabled men in the hospitals for sale on poppy day and after this was read there was a discussion of ways and means for this unit to handle poppies. Mrs. F. B. Leonard is Chairman of the Poppy Committee and Mrs. W. H. White, Miss Victoria Adcock, Mrs. R. A. Bobbitt, Mrs. J. Forrest Joyner, Miss Lynne Hall, Mrs. C. C. Collins and Mrs. B. N. Williamson were appointed to serve on this committee, it being the consensus of opinion that a large committee should be appointed for this important phase of the year's work.

It was moved and passed that the Auxiliary send check to the Rehabilitation Chairman to purchase flowers for our boys at Oteen for Easter.

A report was made on the Flag sale—42 flags being placed on homes and the thanks of the Auxiliary was given the Committee, Mrs. B. N. Williamson, Mrs. J. W. Mann and Mrs. J. Forrest Joyner, for their zeal in carrying this work on. The President reported that at the request of the State President she had wired our Representative Hon. L. W. Poff to support the Johnson bill now in Congress and that he had replied favorably.

An article taken from the April number of Good Housekeeping entitled "Something to Join" was read—also it was stated that an interesting article also appeared in the April "Woman's Home Companion" about the American Legion Auxiliary, which shows that people and beginning to realize something of the meaning of the work of this organization. The hostess served delicious sandwiches and ice tea and the meeting adjourned to meet the third Tuesday in May with Mrs. H. H. Hilton and Mrs. C. C. Collins.

Dr. Kilgore Nominated For Director

At a meeting of delegates of the sixth District of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association held in the Court house here Wednesday morning, Dr. E. W. Kilgore was nominated to succeed himself on the Board of Directors of that institution. The delegates refused to name two candidates, as was formerly the custom, and named Dr. Kilgore unanimously. The district is composed of Wake, Franklin, Warren, Granville, Vance and Person Counties. The first three counties, having practically all the voting power, were the only ones represented. Mr. R. T. Meighan, representing the Association head offices at Raleigh was present.

N. M. Perry, Chairman, Mrs. Willie H. Mitchiner and F. W. Justice were elected a poll holding committee to conduct the election for Director, to be held in Louisville between the hours of 2 and 3 p. m. on May 9th.

Of Interest To Farmers

There will be a meeting of Hayesville Township farmers at Epsom School April 22 at 8 o'clock p. m., all farmers are urged to be present and all visitors are cordially invited, who are interested in better farming.

We are planning to have some good talks by visiting farmers on various subjects. Though money is tight in Union County, farmers are more advanced with their work than they have been in 30 years and are planting hay crops, food and feed crops and buying cows.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

William Henry Yarborough, Jr., of Louisville, who was last week elected editor-in-chief of the Daily Tar Heel in the annual election at the University of North Carolina, receiving 1,132 votes to his opponent's 635. He served during the past year as managing editor of the first daily collegiate paper in the south. He worked on the Tar Heel staff as reporter, sports editor, and associate editor before becoming managing editor. Besides his work on the student newspaper, he has been active in the German Club, serving this year as treasurer and as a member of the executive committee; he was president of the student Publications Union Board his sophomore year. He is a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

Meeting To Relieve Taxes On Property

Franklin County's best citizens are expected to be present at 2 o'clock Saturday, April 19th., to organize the Franklin Property Tax Relief Association of North Carolina. Seats in the Courthouse will be reserved for each township, but every one is sincerely requested to be on time. Officers of the County Association will be elected. Each township will elect members to the County Executive Committee. Certain Special Committees will be formed. Delegates will be elected to represent Franklin County at the State-wide Convention of the Associations to be held in Raleigh Monday, April 21st.

Hon. Hallett S. Ward, of Washington, and Colonel Willie M. Person will address the assembly, but full time will be reserved for private discussions, suggestions and definite resolutions by taxpayers present. Each property owner, tax payer, and citizen should come to this meeting with some definite interest in organizing with others for a common cause. As stated in last week's issue of the Franklin Times and Observer—"The one single object of this organization will be to relieve permanently these unfair taxes forced upon property."

This meeting, or any future meeting of this local and statewide association will not welcome abuse of those in public office, fault finding with present methods, and whining over hard circumstances. The home owner, farmer and business man must organize to protect his property from unjust taxes now forced upon it. Organization will demand better men in responsible public positions, a fair distribution of the tax burden, and strict economy in public affairs. Organization will bring relief, but organize before you start in battle. X. X.

Wake Forest Alumni Holds Banquet

The Franklin County unit of the Wake Forest Alumni Association held its annual banquet here last night. Dr. E. F. Sladd of the College Faculty delivered the principal address of the evening. He was introduced by J. O. Furnell of Franklinton.

Dr. Sladd declared that Wake Forest College was the result of the prayers and labors of the Baptists of North Carolina and that it had ever been true to Baptist Principles. The speaker sketched the history of the college from the time he became a member of the Faculty in 1888 to the present. He called attention to the crises the college had passed through and declared that it faced a serious challenge to-day. The College has been a source of power and light for the past hundred years, said the speaker. He pointed out that Wake Forest had trained many men who because of poverty and lack of opportunity would never have had a college education had it not been for the Baptist institution. He called upon the Alumni to see to it that the young men of this State should have the sort of opportunity Wake Forest offers.

The local Alumni Association has over fifty members in Franklin County. They heard Dr. Sladd enthusiastically. It was decided to hold another banquet in the fall of this year. The President of the Association, Rev. Sankey L. Blanton of Louisville, presided and acted as Toastmaster.

Louisburg Wins Triangular Debate

The Negative team of the Mills High School, in Louisville, made a splendid victory over the Franklinton High School affirmative in that portion of the triangle debate held between Louisville, Franklinton and Roxboro, Friday night at the auditorium at the high school in Louisville. The debates between these towns were delayed on account of illness of the debaters. Louisville teams also won over the Roxboro negative. Those composing the teams of Louisville were affirmative, Ben T. Holden and Doris Strange, and the negative, Temple Yarborough and Eloise Jennings. These debaters will go to Chapel Hill to enter the finals to be held next Thursday.
