TWO WAREHOUSES TO BE OPERATED

1930 SEASON HOLDS GOOD INDICATIONS

Southside Warehouse to be Run by Meadows & Harris and Unio Warehouse to be Run by Beasley, Bullock & Wheeler — Planters Warehouse Expected to be Leased

Arrangements have already been made for two of Louisburg's popular tobacco warehouses to be operated this year, and it is expected that negotiations will be completed in the next few days for the operation of the third. Indications point to a good season on the Louisburg market and it is expected the market will open about September 23rd. Curing has already begun and reports indicate very satisfactory results, both in color and quality.

Sam Meadows and Grover Harris, who have been stationed at the Planters Warehouse for the past several years have decided to change this year and will operate Louisburg's biggest warehouse, the Southside, just across the river. This house is conceded to be one of the best in the State and it is freely predicted that it will play a big part on the Louisburg market this year. They will have associated with them this year Mr. Tom Burton, who made so many friends here last year as auctioneer and Mr. Claude C. Cheatham.

The popular Union Warehouse, which last year was so completely remodeled and made equal to any in the State for accommodations will be operated this year by R. M. Beasley of Apex, J. Monroe Bullock of Oxford and Zeb Wheeler, of Franklin County. In this case it is true that "the chickens will come home to roost." Mr. Beasley is a former Louisburg boy, well known by our people as plain Bud. Mr. Bullock is also well known in this section. Mr. Zeb Wheeler is well known in Franklin and adjoining counties as one of the County's best tobacco farmers. They have not arranged for the remainder of this force. Each member of this firm is well experienced in the tobacco business from the field to the buyer and will no doubt add much life and interest to the Louisburg market.

FILLS VACANCY OF CLERK M. W. A.

At a meeting of Louisburg Camp, Modern Woodmen of America held in the Court House on Wednesday night of last week B. B. Massenburg was elected Clerk to succeed Jas. B. King, resigned. The meeting was presided over by F. W. Hicks consul protem, in the absence of Consul J. H. Boone. After many discussions of various matters affecting the camp it was decided to meet again on Monday night, August 4th, at 8:30 o'clock, in the court house at which time refreshments will be provided by a committee composed of C. C. Hudson, A. E. Allen and E. W. Ferguson.

This is the first move towards reorganization of the local organization of this fraternal and insurance society.

DR. SMITHWICK APPOINTED TO IMPORTANT COMMITTEES

Together with North Carolina, Louisburg has been accorded quite an honorable distinction by the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, when Dr. Dan T. Smithwick was selected from the membership to represent North Carolina on the membership of two of its most important Committees—Revolutionary Events and Observance of 200th Anniversary of George Washington's Birth.

The first assignment is directly related with the recording and collecting historical events of the revolutionary war and contributing to keeping the spirit of the time alive. The second assignment imposes the duty and responsibility of making the 200th anniversary of Washington's Birth one of the biggest occasions in the nation's history. In each of these instances Dr. Smithwick is eminently fitted and will make for Louisburg and North Carolina an able representative.

Dr. Smithwick received his official appointment Friday.

DON'T CARE WHICH BOLL WEEVIL HAS IT

The editor of the Franklin Times was talking crops with one of Franklin County's most successful farmers recently. During the conversation he asked the farmer what he was going to do about the boll weevil in his cotton. His answer was, "I'm not going to do anything about them in my cotton. With the price at 12-12 cents a pound I don't care which boll weevil gets it. Believe I'd rather the little weevil would have it instead of the big two legged weevil."

The spirit prevails a great deal among the farmers, and will hold back a great deal of the scientific control and extermination of the pest.

Lewis Williams and Blanch Ward were both given four months on roads for assault with deadly weapons, with leave Commissioners to hire out.

The case of appeal from the magistrates Court against Cruso Denton was transferred to Superior Court.

ENLARGING POSTOFFICE

Workmen have been busy the past week enlarging the local post office. The rooms have all been thrown into one room by removing the partitions and the back wall has been moved several feet making further enlargement. When this is completed the fixtures in front will be re-arranged which will tend to give more and better working accommodations.

The re-arrangements and enlargements will add much to the convenience both to the officials and the public and will give the office a more modern appearance.

Louisburg Joins High Temperature Class

Louisburg stepped up with and passed at long range the reported high temperature enjoyed by the people of Windsor Sunday, which reported a temperature of 116 in the sun. Louisburg on Tuesday took readings that went as high as 140. This record was made with the thermometer standing by the side of the court house where the sun had full sway at it. Another reading was taken with the thermometer hanging on a light pole at the corner of Court and Market Streets and was 123. In front of W. E. White's furniture store a reading of 126 was made with the instrument in the sun getting full benefit of the reflection from the pavement.

The official government thermometer recorded 101 as the high mark on Tuesday. A nice breeze arose in the afternoon accompanied by clouds that brought a most welcome relief to an otherwise unpleasantly hot day.

Edwards Family Re-Union

Sunday, July 20th., will long be remembered by the Edwards Family and near friends. About 175 of the clan assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Edwards, near Ingle-side, on that date; they began to arrive early in the morning and a day or real pleasure and fellowship was enjoyed by all. A good supply of ribs had been barbecued Saturday night by one who certainly knows his ribs and how to barbecue them to suit the most exacting palate. Not only the barbecue, but a generous supply of other good things were also in great and satisfying evidence, beside, many of the friends, who had, several of them driven for many miles to be present on this occasion, brought baskets well filled with them. Tables were spread on the spacious lawn under the trees and a most delightful time was enjoyed by all.

After the dinner, had been disposed of to the satisfaction of everyone, Dr. D. T. Smithwick, acting as Master of Ceremonies, mounted an improvised platform and presented to the assembled relatives and friends a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Edwards, John A., who is a ministerial student, having just finished at Bales Creek this year; this young man delivered a brief but exceedingly spiritual five minute talk, dwelling particularly on the greater reunion which would come to all later in the greater gathering of Eternity. Following this brief talk, Mr. Wm. L. Robinson, Louisburg Attorney, was introduced and proceeded to deliver the address of the day. Mr. Robinson particularly dwelt on the wonderful opportunities which lie before the youth of today; he particularly stressed the fact that a high and lofty ambition, coupled with earnest zeal and honor were the greatest requisites of final success. He dwelt at some length upon the wonderful progress made by North Carolina, referring to her as the Queen State of the Union, during the past decade, and referred to Governor Gardner in most glowing terms, calling him the greatest Governor of the greatest State in the entire United States today. Referring to the intense loyalty and patriotism of the Southern Youth, he pointed out that, during the war with Germany, the quotas of the various Southern States were practically all filled by volunteer enlistments, while the dilatoriness and hesitancy on the part of the Northern men was largely responsible for the Conscription Bill.

Following Mr. Robinson's address, Dr. D. T. Smithwick, in a few well chosen remarks, concluded the speaking part of the program. Many then adjourned to the parlor where the rest of the afternoon was spent around the piano playing and singing. The smaller children enjoyed themselves for a walk over a well tended farm, admiring the splendid crops of corn, oats, soy beans, millet and tobacco. In all a most enjoyable day was spent by all who attended.

Eight boys and four girls have been elected as official delegates to the 4-B short course at State College, August 4 to 9, by the nine organized Clubs of Polk County.

Shorter Closed Season

Raleigh, July 23.—A shorter closed season which will permit fishermen to indulge in their favorite sport on Easter Monday and uniform closed seasons on fishing to make possible a more effective protection of fish during the spawning period are important features of changes recently made by the Board of Conservation and Development at its semi-annual meeting at Morhead City.

Under the new regulations, the closed season on fishing will begin until May 1 instead of April 20 as has been the law previously. This closed season applies to all species of game fish except the trout of Western North Carolina whose spawning season comes during a different period of the year. The period of the year in which these types of fish are protected extends from September 1 to April 15 of the following year.

The general closed season will extend from May 1 to June 10, giving a 40-day protected period in the future in the place of 50 days heretofore.

Another new regulation also prohibits the taking of fresh water fish in commercial waters during the time that the season is closed in inland waters.

Seining will continue under the ban in inland waters following action of the board in denying requests that special permits be granted for this privilege in certain counties of the State. The board took the viewpoint that as a wholesome method of taking fish, seining is unfair to the great masses of fishermen whose opportunity for sport would be spoiled when waters are depleted by those who would exercise the privilege if seining were permitted.

Collections from anglers' licenses this season are said by officials to be well ahead of last year, having reached approximately $50,000. The State Law requires that every person who fishes in any other except his home county must take out a State License. However, the license requirement has been extended to include all fishermen in 26 counties. Fishermen, it is said, should ascertain if their county is among these.

Water in The Kitchen Demonstration At Wood

The third and last water-in-the-kitchen demonstration will be given at Wood Monday, July 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gupton. The demonstration will be given by D. S. Weaver, agricultural engineer of State College, and will show an inexpensive method of getting water to the sink when the well is too deep to use a pitcher pump. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this demonstration.

The revised rolls of the women's clubs of the county recently sent in by the club secretaries show a total enrollment in the sixteen women's clubs of 461 members.

The complete program of the Farmers and Farm Women's Convention at State College July 28th August 2nd has just been received. There are more than the usual number of good things on the program. On the women's short course program there are food preparation demonstrations by Miss Dahne, cheese specialist of Chicago, Mrs. Kline food specialist from New York. Canning and preserving will be taught by Mrs. Stancil of Roanoke. ## FARM BOYS AND GIRLS WILL GATHER AT COLLEGE

With reservations for about 800 farm boys and girls anticipated, plans for the ninth annual 4-H short course to be held at State College during the week of August 4 to 9 are being rapidly matured.

The course will be given under the direction of L. R. Harrill and Miss Elizabeth Cornelius, club leaders of the extension service, and will embody instruction in work now being conducted in the field and home by the 23,000 club members now enrolled in North Carolina. Each course will be of such practical nature that the club representative may take the main facts back to the community which he represents.

Mr. Harrill says one of the most interesting features of the short course will be the general sessions at which the club officers will preside and where the club members will arrange their own programs. It is expected that reports will be made at these sessions from the delegates who attended important club gatherings both in and out of the State during the past year. A report of the progress in club work will also be made.

Recreation, health, culture, judging contests, and demonstrations will be some of the main activities or studies of the meeting. The King and Queen of Health will be crowned on Thursday evening August 7, at special pageant exercises. Dr. E. McNeill Foteat, well known Raleigh Baptist minister, will conduct the Vesper services each evening, speaking on the early life of Christ.

The whole cost of the short course will not exceed $5 including meals for the week. The college is giving its rooms free of charge. The final session of the short course will be the impressive candle lighting ceremony, Friday evening, August 8 when the camp fire will be lighted from a candle brought from the National Camp. The new state officers will be installed, and these new officers will light the candles of all the delegates so that the light of new living will be carried back to each club represented.

GOVERNMENT AIRPORT FOR LOUISBURG

CONSTRUCTION TO BEGIN SOON

Will Contain Large and Powerful Beacon Light, Besides Emergency Accommodations For Planes—Future Possibilities Great For Louisburg

Mr. — Chapman, representing the United States Chamber of Commerce, airways division was in Louisburg Friday completing arrangements for establishing a government airport on the outskirts of the town to be used mainly as a station for a beacon light and an emergency landing field for the airplanes carrying mail, or other government planes needing to use it.

The station is located here by reason of the fact that Louisburg is directly on the New York to Florida air mail line and happens to be at the right location for one of the 30-mile stations, those on each side being at Warrenton on the North and Raleigh on the South.

A site just beyond the colored graded school, on the west side of Louisburg, on the property of G. W. Ford has been secured and, Mr. Chapman said to the TIMES man, construction would begin just as soon as the crops are removed. In the meantime everything will be put in readiness so that construction can be expedited when begun. While here Mr. Chapman made arrangements with the Town to furnish electric current for the powerful beacon which will furnish light for airplanes at night and to direct them to a safe landing at the port.

This is possibly one of the most important and valuable happenings for Louisburg in many years. It will reflect great influence upon public highways, State and National, and be a pointer to travel both North and South.

It is also filled with possibilities of future air mail, and passenger service for this vicinity through the Louisburg airport.
