OUR RALEIGH LETTER

By M. L. Shipman

Leaisburg, North Carolina

Raleigh, November 17 .- The mafor topic of discussion here during the week has been election results in the Country, the State, districts and counties. Nationally, the Republi cans may "hold the whip hand" for another two years and they may not. another two years and they may not. A margin of only one or two votes in either house of congress by no means assures dominance of the new Congress by President Hoover and his party. In the State the Republicans find themselves in a hopeless minority, with only six members of the House of Representatives and two members of the Senate. Their nominee for United States Senator polled 210,547 votes to 323,620 for his opponent, giving to Josiah W. Bailey a record majority of 113,073 the largest a candidate of any party ever received in North Carolina and unofficial returns indicate that the majority for the Democratic and unoficial returns indicate that the majority for the Democratic State will be even larger. Mr. Bailey carried 89 of the 100 counties, Mr. Pritchard receiving majorities in Avery, Cherokee, Davie, Henderson, Madison, Mitchell, Randolph, Sampson, Swain, Wilkes and Yadkin.

The State Board of Elections, meeting a special session during the week to canvass the results of the special elections held in the Fifth and Seventh congressional districts special elections held in the Fifth and Seventh congressional districts on the day of the regular election, announced a majority of 20,376 for Frank W. Hancock in the former and 9,787 for Hinton James in the latter. The vote for Senator, State officers and congressmen for regular terms will not be expect it assets. terms will not be opened, it is said, until Monday, December 1, this time fixed by law for the official canvass. Messrs. Hancock and James take of fice at once as the successors of Ma-jor Charles Manly Stedman and William C. Hammer respectively.

Defeat of the proposed tax classification amendment to the State sincation amendment to the State Constitution is indicated by unoffi-cial returns. It also appears that the amendment offered separating soli-citorial and judicial districts and the proposal to increase the number of Supreme Court justices from three to five met a similar fate while the referendum to authorize the issuance of another $2,000,000 for the Veteran's Loan Fund was ratified by around 45,000, having been ap-proved by the voters of sixty-nine counties.

Senator-elect Bailey's term starts on March 4th, 1931, but actual service will not begin until December following unless President Hoover should decide special session advis-able and this is not likely. It is said that Mr. Bailey is perfectly content to wait until the expiration of the present Congress, which is over-whelmingly Republican, rather than ne involved in a minority fight with little hope of accomplishing results satisfactory to the party responsible for the great honor that has come to him. He has not yet annual to the same to the nounced to appointment of a private secretary, but the "dopesters" figure that C. L. Shuping, Greensboro attorney who managed his campaign, can have it without the ask-

Activities of the States' Chief Executive during the week include an address to the annual Sunday School banquet of the Baptist State Con-vention at the Sir Walter, a speech at a union meeting of Raleigh churches held in the interest of the churches held in the interest of the Community Chest, a statement approving the "Buy Now" movement launched over the State by the North Carolina Merchants Association, naming a successor to the late J. K. Norfleet as a member of the State Tax Commission, appointment of delegates to the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection, issuing paroles to eight prisoners and commutation of the death sentences of two to life imprisonment.

To fill the vacancy caused by the To fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. K. Norfleet, of Winston-Salem, the Governor appointed Robert Lassiter, of Charlotte, as a member of the State Tax Commission.

Mr. Lassiter was a member of this commission during the administration of Governor McLean and is believed to be admirably suited to the task of compiling data taxation matters.
