Recitation and Declamation Contest

The elimination contest for the annual recitation and declamation contest was held on Tuesday. There were eleven girls entering. Virginia Perkinson, Christine Eaves, Juanita Rivers Ayscue, Sarah Gill, Rilla Collins, Elaine Ayscue, Elaine Weldon, Evelyn Ayscue, Marie Ayscue, Janie Ayscue and Mattie Leigh Dickerson. There were only two boys Morris Lancaster and Edwin Fuller. The winners were Juanita Ayscue and Morris Lancaster. They were to represent Epsom at Edward Best on Friday night.

Sickness
We are very sorry to hear of pneumonia in our community. There have been some deaths caused by it. Let's all try and be careful to avoid all colds and all kinds of sickness.

Dramatic Club
The club has been entertained again with amateurs from the clubs. This program topped the climax. It was entirely musical except for one imitation. Several popular songs were played by Louise Dickie. Following this number, Perry Ayscue played the guitar and blew the harmonica. Tap dancing was the next feature with Mildred Wilson and Sarah Gill dancing. Impersonations were given by Janie and Elaine Ayscue. This furnished a lot of laughter, and all enjoyed seeing our teachers impersonated.

The club decided to vote on the two best numbers, those being Mildred Wilson and Perry Ayscue. Louise Dickie, Reporter.

Sidney Lanier Society
The society held its regular meeting Dec. 13. A splendid Christmas program was given. Some points were brought out which gave us a clearer understanding of Christmas. After the business the society adjourned to meet again.

Athletics
The girls and boys met Middleburg at Middleburg on Tuesday night. Although both teams were beaten, the games were thoroughly enjoyed by all. The girls score was 17-16. The boys being 54-16.

On Wednesday night the Rattlesnake Ramblers gave a very interesting program in the school auditorium. The athletic association was sponsoring this.

O'Henry Society
The Society held its regular meeting Dec. 13. A very interesting program was given on Christmas. After this the officers for the new term of school were elected as there had been plans made for a Christmas social next Friday. The following officers were elected:

President, Edwin Fuller; Vice-President, Edwin Pernel; Sec'y and Treasurer, Virginia Lassiter; Assistant Sec'y and Treas. Adelle Finch; Reporter, Virginia Perkinson; Chorister, Rilla Collins; Chaplain, Christine Eaves; Pianist, Mattie Leigh Dickerson; Junior critic, Mattie Leigh Dickerson; Senior Critic, Mrs. Journigan.

After this the society adjourned to meet again next Friday. Everyone is planning for a good time. Reporter.

A legume crop that may be used for improving the land is the best crop to plant on acres removed from the cultivation of cash crops, say extension officials at State College.

Miserable with backache?

WHEN kidneys function badly and you suffer a nagging backache, with dizziness, burning, scanty or too frequent urination and getting up at night when you feel tired, nervous, all upset... use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly working kidneys. Millions of boxes are used every year. They are recommended the country over. Ask your neighbor.

Senior Class News

The Seniors are looking forward to the Christmas tree Friday.

They are also looking forward, greatest of all, for the arriving of their rings.

We were very proud to know that one of the Seniors, Virginia Dark, won first place in the Reading contest. Hoorah!

We hope that all of us pass our work this month. Reporter.

Beta Club

We had our last meeting Friday December 13. We didn't get a program from Mr. Harris this month, but we had an interesting one just the same. Each member was asked to bring two current events and be able to discuss each. Every one had some interesting article. Our next meeting will be at Doris Pearce's home, which will be held just after Christmas. We are expecting a very nice time.

Willard Leonard, Reporter.

Chapel

The following program was given in chapel Friday, Dec. 13 by the Higher First Grade:

Song—Merry Christmas, Grade; Why do Bells for Christmas Ring—Nadine Joyner; Devotional Exercise—Mable Green Ayscue; Expecting Santa—Erma Dement; Twelve Little Maids—Thirteen children.

Reporter.

Girls Sports

We have received our new basketball suits and are hoping we will have a game soon.

Under the direction of Miss Johnson we are doing good work. Reporter.

New Music Teacher

We are very proud and happy to have at last a new music teacher, Miss Ruth Parker, of Lasker, North Carolina. And a good one she is too. She is a graduate of Louisburg College. We know Miss Parker will help us very much in our music department.

The Freshman News
We are all liking our new Home Economics teacher, Miss Edith Corbett of Currie, North Carolina. She graduated from E. C. T. C. with a B. A. degree. She is taking the place of Mrs. Joe Pearce. Everyone was sorry Mrs. Pearce had to leave but we like Miss Corbett very much.

Our project this week in Home Economic is making candy. We are looking forward to the Christmas holidays.

KEEPING BIRDS HEALTHY IMPORTANT WITH POULTRY

Keeping the flock healthy is one of the vital points in a successful poultry business, says Roy S. Dearstyne, head of the State College poultry department.

As a means for protecting the health of laying birds, Dearstyne has given the following suggestions:

Provide dry, open front, inexpensive houses that will be free from drafts in cold weather.

When possible, put wood or concrete floors, in permanent laying houses.

Place the roost poles level, with a screen beneath so the birds will not have access to the droppings.

Clean the dropping boards at least once a week. Clean the houses as often as the litter becomes dirty.

For all flocks of 25 or more birds provide yards, allowing one acre for 300 to 350 laying birds.

Have two yards, if possible, so the birds can be changed occasionally from one yard to another.

Keep green crops growing in the yards, and plow the yards as often as time and crops will permit.

Treat birds for parasites, both internal and external, whenever they are present. But do not deworm hens while they are laying.

Take precautions to protect growing stock against internal parasites and disease, especially coccidiosis, or bacillary white diarrhea.
