Adds New Department

Miss Elizabeth Lassiter, Director of Religious Education at Louisburg Baptist Church

The members of the Louisburg Baptist Church five months ago made a careful survey of their community and thereby discovered that they had nine hundred possibilities. At the beginning of this year they prepared and launched a program to meet the challenge of their possibilities. But the attempt to carry out that program soon revealed the need of more workers. So the members of the church, encouraged by the fact that their budget had been oversubscribed by 20 per cent, voted a few weeks ago to secure the services of a Director of Religious Education. And at the service of worship on last Sunday morning, the church voted to invite Miss Elizabeth Lassiter to accept the new position.

Miss Lassiter has had both a general and special training for her office, for she is a graduate of Pinedale Junior College and the Training School in Louisville, Kentucky.

Moreover, she has had experience in Christian service. She has often assisted the Sunday School Board in their enlargement campaigns in North Carolina. Besides, she comes to her new position from the Eller Memorial Baptist Church, of Greensboro, N. C., where as a full-time worker she has rendered an effective service.

For her new position she has the hearty recommendation of Mr. L. L. Morgan, Baptist Secretary of the Division of Sunday School Work in North Carolina.

Miss Lassiter will assume the duties of her office on March 9 or 10. She will be formally introduced to the church on Sunday, March 13.

Recorder's Court

Franklin Recorder's Court held a short session on Tuesday and disposed of its docket as follows:

Dorsey Johnson, alias Dorothy Davis was found guilty of unlawful possession of whiskey. A nolle proes was taken in the case of assault against P. S. Allen.

Jack Hicks was found guilty of violating the prohibition law and given 60 days on roads, suspended upon payment of $15 fine and costs. Appeal.

Jack Hicks was found guilty of violating automobile law, and given 60 days on roads. Appeal.

C. B. Aycocke plead guilty to operating automobile intoxicated, given 60 days on roads, suspended upon payment of $50 fine and costs, not to operate car for 12 months.

Johnny Harris was found guilty of operating automobile intoxicated and given 60 days on roads, suspended upon payment of $50 fine and costs, not to operate car for 12 months.

James Plummer was found guilty of assault with deadly weapon and given 90 days on roads.

James Privett was found guilty of assault with deadly weapon and given 90 days on roads, suspended upon payment of costs.

Sport Ward pleads guilty to operating automobile without license, to be discharged upon payment of costs.

A jury was requested in the case of Louis Jones for operating automobile intoxicated.

The following cases were continued:

George Peace, non-support.

S. P. Holding, Jr. four cases, worthless checks.

Louis Jones, carrying concealed weapons.

Wallace Pearce, abandonment.

"How many acres can I plant?" is the question thousands of North Carolina cotton and tobacco growers are asking their county agents at this time. The answer can be given only after the referendum on March 12 and after county quotas have been subdivided.

To know a truth well, one must have fought it out.

FOR THE STATE SENATE

TO THE VOTERS OF FRANKLIN COUNTY:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the State Senate from the Sixth Senatorial District, (which includes Franklin, Nash and Wilson Counties), subject to the approval of the Democratic Primary to be held on June 4, 1938.

If elected, I shall strive to carry out the wishes of the good people of this District.

Your support will be appreciated.

Church News
LOUISBURG METHODIST CHURCH

Next Sunday morning there will be the Sunday School service at 9:45. A new feature in the work of the school is the provision of very attractive story papers for the children's departments. The Primary and Junior children receive, "Boys and Girls," and the Intermediates receive the "Cargo." These weekly magazines are proving to be unusually interesting to these groups.

On Sunday at 11 o'clock, Rev. J. G. Phillips will preach on "Can I Be Converted?" Sunday night at 7:30 the topic will be, "The First Christians." The Epworth League service is at 6:45. At 3:00 in the afternoon the young people will hold their usual devotional service at the Franklin County Home.

LOUISBURG BAPTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday was a profitable day at the Louisburg Baptist Church. At the close of the morning service the church voted to extend to Miss Elizabeth Lassiter an invitation to become Director of Religious Education. The B.Y.P.U.'s met at 6:30 P. M. At the evening service the pastor spoke on the theme, "Encouragements to Prayer." Basing his sermon on Matt. 7:1-11, he said:

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Friday, March 11th: There will be a Lenten Service at the home of Dr. H. H. Johnson at 5:00 P. M. At these services the subject of church history is being discussed.

Sunday, March 13th: There will be the Early Celebration of the Holy Communion at 8:00 A. M. Church School will be held at the regular hour; 9:45 A. M. The Adult Bible class meets at the same time. As this is the Second Sunday of the month the Rector is to be in Kittrell, so there will be no morning service. The Young People's Service League will meet at 6:30 P. M. and the service of Evening Prayer will come at 7:30. During the Lenten season the sermon topics for the Sunday services as well as the Tuesday services is: "The Life of Our Lord." This Sunday the special phase of our Lord's life will be "The Early Development of Jesus." If it is possible for the congregation to attend all these services they will find them helpful. Tuesday, March 15th: Service of Litany and sermon in the church at 7:45 P. M. The subject of the sermon, in the series of sermons on "The Life of our Lord" will be on the "Temptations of Jesus."

Wednesday, March 16th: Confirmation class at the home of Mrs. Robert Smithwick at 7:30 P. M.

Thursday, March 17th: Choir Practice at the home of Dr. H. H. Johnson, 7:30 P. M.

The student capacity of State College is 2,200.

It's easier to provoke indignation than to arouse enthusiasm.

COMMUNITY SHOW

This is the last time an announcement of the Mills School and Community entertainment will appear in the TIMES, before the night of the show, next Thursday night, the 17th.

This is going to be a gala occasion for parents, children and teachers of Mills, and all the town and community folk.

Mrs. James B. King, our very capable director, may be counted on for putting on a good show.

Mr. A. M. Huggins and Mr. Kenneth Davis, Scoutmaster, will have the Boy Scouts in action.

Louisburg is always glad of the appearance of the Scouts.

Mrs. R. G. Bailey, P.T.A. Music Chairman and Mrs. O. Y. Yarboro with the glee club will make us feel glad to have come.

A part of the program will be a community sing. Singing naturally draws folks together in good-fellowship. It would be fine to have a lot of it! For the sake of "Auld Lang Syne" let's get together—and sing!

And now, the best for the last! Mrs. A. M. Hall will be "on the program." When asked if she would take a part, she said "Certainly I will and be glad to do so. I've got a good one for you this time. I had to laugh when I read it. Be sure to have a lot of men there." Well, we know you'll come now, and we want you,—grandfathers, fathers, husbands, bachelors, sons.—Contributed.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

TELL THE WORLD

ABOUT

NORTH CAROLINA'S

WORLD-BEATING

GOLF

Write today for your copy of this fascinating booklet by O. B. Keeler, famous golf commentator. It's absolutely free!

Let's Spread O. B. Keeler's Thrilling Message to Golfers Everywhere—A simple Plan open to all!

NORTH CAROLINA now has, in fascinating print, the real story of what our glorious state has to offer the golfers of the world! For the first time in history, it is down in black on white, written by O. B. Keeler, famous golf commentator whose name is a beloved by-word wherever the game is known, the man who probably has done more than any one writer to make golf the most widely-played game in all America.

There's not a golfer in the United States who will not be eager to come to North Carolina and play our fine courses—once he has read O. B.'s enthralling play-by-play description of the state. Let's see that golfers get this book!

Here's Your Chance to Help

Practically every North Carolinian knows someone, somewhere in the United States or across the seas, to whom he would like to pass on this grand story of the finest golf in the finest golfing climate in the world. You may have a personal friend in another state—a business acquaintance—a commercial correspondent—a golf addict you've met in your own travels—someone you know would be interested in the thrilling material Keeler has packed into 15,000 words that ramble delightfully over 52 profusely illustrated pages.

All you have to do is to send the name or names, with proper addresses, to the Governor's Hospitality Committee—and we will do the rest. We will mail a copy direct to whomever you select, enclosing your business card if you will supply it.

In cooperating in this plan, you not only help in the program of spreading the story of North Carolina's glories before the world, but you also will delight some golf-lover—for this book is a volume that any golfer alive will delight to own. Your out-of-state friends will devour it, page-by-page!

See a Copy Yourself

Of course we want North Carolinians, too, to read this happy handbook on our state's attractions. Keeler has done a remarkable job. "Geographically, typographically, climatically—North Carolina appears to have been designed by St. Andrew himself as a golfing state," says world-travelled O. B.—who then proceeds to prove his point. Go with him on his whirlwind tour of the state's courses; read his description of them; revel in his first-hand stories of famous shot-makers and their shots; laugh at his charming anecdotes. Every last syllable glitters with interest; every paragraph is done in the sweeping, reminiscent Keeler style; every page is supported by his inimitable fund of golfing knowledge. It's a classic that should be in every golfer's library.

It's free! Your copy will cost you nothing; it will cost you nothing to see that a copy gets to your friends in other states. Write for your copy today—and send in a well-chosen list of others to whom you would like this gem of golfing geography sent.

You help yourself—your state—and do an unforgettable favor for some friend elsewhere. Sit down now and make up your list—give it careful thought—then mail it, with your own name and address, to the Governor's Hospitality Committee.
