Extra features, outside of the contest, were solos by Mrs. Helen Lee Hayes, a guitar number by Mr. Tommy Debnam, and dance demonstrations by Miss Christine Collier and Mr. Jimmy Person.

Among the high school students participating were: Miss Anne Allen, soloist; Miss Allen and Misses Bobbie Parrish and Maxine Bailey, in a trio; Misses Jane Moon, and Evelyn Smithwick in the amateur contest; and Miss Lottie Foster in the beauty contest.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

On Friday morning, Sept. 16, Bobbie Parrish opened the chapel program by reading the Bible. Dr. Earhardt spoke to the group on "The Better Way to Satisfaction," emphasizing the importance of living right at the present to secure satisfaction in the future. Anne Allen sang a solo, "The Rosary." The program was concluded by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

On Tuesday morning, Sept. 20, Mr. Huggins conducted the chapel program. He talked to the high school on the importance of finishing high school and the reason why relatively few of those who begin school ever complete the work.
