

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—The way is wide open—see Raynor's advertisement in this issue.

—Pouring the pavement on Spring, Franklin and Cedar streets begun yesterday.

—Reports say that progress is being made on the road construction near Justice.

—Wheless-Burgess Co., has treated the front of their store to a new coat of paint.

—Mr. L. H. Turner, of Tarboro, is relieving the local telephone manager for several days.

—His many friends were glad to see Mr. W. H. Allen on the streets the past week after his recent illness.

—It is expected that the work of laying the brick for the walls of the new Armory building will begin on next Monday.

—Tearing away the old gas station in front of Tucker's Grill, or Princess Cafe, has added greatly to the appearance of Main Street.

—The TIMES is requested to announce that the Oxford Orphanage Singing Class will be at Mills High School, Thursday night, June 1st, at 8:00 o'clock.

—Her many friends in Louisburg will be glad to learn that Mrs. T. S. Shinn, of Raleigh, and her little son, T. S., Jr., who have been confined at a hospital, have returned to their home.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Mitchell and family, of Rocky Mount, have moved to the Judge Cooke home north of Louisburg. Mr. Mitchell is connected with the State Highway.

—Mr. Spence Williams, of Bunn, reports the loss of all the buildings on his farm near Bunn, except two small outhouses, by fire on Thursday of last week. The loss is estimated at $2,500 with $1,000 insurance.

FROM INGLESIDE

Transplanting of tobacco plants in this territory has been in full swing for several days. Some beds which were covered with mold are in much better condition, and the scarcity of plants may not be as serious as was expected two weeks ago.

Mrs. Dwight Cross and two children, Dwight, Jr., and Jo Lillian, of Huntersville, visited friends and relatives here last week. Mrs. Cross is visiting her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Beasley, in Louisburg.

Mrs. W. E. Chalk, of Youngsville, visited the family of her son, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Chalk, last week.

The friends of Mr. Joe Hunt will be glad to know that he is recovering satisfactorily from a two week's illness.

Glad to report that Willis Beasley, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Beasley, who has been quite sick for some time, improving nicely.

Mrs. Willis Daye, of Durham, after a visit with relatives and friends in Roanoke Rapids and her mother, Mrs. Collins, near Littleton, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. I. M. Incoe, here before returning to her home this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wilson, a daughter, Patricia Louise, on Saturday, May 6, at home.

Ten years ago it was quite a familiar sight to see Misses Edna Beasley and Elizabeth Manning riding about Ingleside together, so the little burg seemed natural again last week as they were seen headed down the "Beasley Road." At the same time little Dwight and Jo Lillian Cross, and little Sarah and Frank Freeman were seen playing around the village yards.

Mr. Hurley Evans was asked the age of his faithful old mule, now on the retired list. He figures the animal is 36 years old. Bought at the age of 4 years, made 29 crops, and has been "on relief" the past 3 years. Mr. Evans has been advised to put him "out of commission," but says he wouldn't do that for a hundred "bucks."

Mrs. Frank Freeman and children, Sarah and Frank, of Charlotte, are spending the month of May with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Manning. Mr. Freeman and Mrs. Rob Bigham and little daughter, Ann, were weekend guests.

Miss Dorothy Wilson, member of the Belhaven School faculty the past two years, has returned home.
