A SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

A surprise birthday dinner was given to Mrs. S. H. Dickerson, of near Louisburg, by her children on October first.

Upon arrival from church Mrs. Dickerson was escorted to the dining room by her daughter, Mattie Leigh and a friend, Miss Virginia Lipscomb.

The table was decorated with a beautiful cluster of fall flowers and a birthday cake, which was surrounded with many gifts from children and friends.

Mr. S. H. Dickerson asked blessings at the heavily laden table in the yard. Picnic style luncheon and barbecue was enjoyed by all. Ice cream and cake were served after luncheon.

Pictures were made of the entire group in the afternoon.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dickerson and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hayes, of near Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lucas and Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Wingfield, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dickerson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dannel, of Fredericksburg; Mrs. Ada Davidson, of Richmond; Misses Mattie Leigh Dickerson and Virginia Lipscomb, of Raleigh; Mrs. J. J. Smith, Margaret and Claude Dickerson, Elizabeth, Jesse Ruth and Otha, Jr. Hayes, Raymond Lucas, and Billie Gardner.

All of the family were present.

Forty Changes Feature Ford Line

Forty important improvements designed for greater overall economy distinguish the 1940 line of Ford V-8 trucks and commercial cars. Forty-two body and chassis types, six wheelbases and three V-8 engines make it the broadest in Ford history. The new 155-inch wheel-base chassis with stake and platform body is shown above. The smartly styled sedan delivery with deluxe passenger car front end and gearshift on the steering column is shown below. Unusual new beauty increased accessibility, stronger cabs, increased driver comfort, improved panel bodies and Seal-Cor Beam headlamps are new features.

with the exception of a son, Smith, and a grandson, William, which are employed by the government and was impossible for them to be present.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

A surprise birthday dinner was given Mrs. Z. L. Cheaves, of Rock Springs, Sunday, Oct. 8th, by her children who arrived about lunch time with baskets containing good things to eat. A large table was erected in the yard and beautifully centered with a large birthday cake decorated in pink and green. Thanks were expressed by Mr. Joe Terrell, only brother of Mrs. Cheaves. Women's "Build-Up"

Women's headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pains may be symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition! Often, relief for these symptoms follows the use of CARDUI because it usually builds needed physical resistance by improving appetite and digestion. Many women also report that CARDUI, taken just before and during "the time," helps to ease pain and discomfort. Popular for more than 50 years.

wheat was treated by the Rotary method with new improved Ceresan, at a cost of approximately two cents per bushel. Several other such demonstrations will be held in the county within the next few days.
