

TOBACCO SELLING WELL

WEEK'S SALE AVER-AGES AROUND 19
CENTS

Floors Well Filled Each Day With Lively Demand For All Grades—Growers Express Satisfaction

Sales of the golden weed on the Louisburg Tobacco Market the past week have been very satisfactory to both the growers and the warehousemen, who report full sales each day with a week's average of around $19 per hundred.

The tobacco offered the past week has been of a better grade and has shown to be without the large per cent of damaged tobaccos which has added to the confidence of the buyers who are buying a great deal freer than when the market first opened.

Many individual averages has ranged well up into nice figures and show that the golden weed is coming back to a normal condition.

The sales force on the local market are well organized and are handling the daily sales with the minimum of blocks, and allowing the tobacco to be sold before it is damaged on the floor by waiting over several days.

The Louisburg Market is playing a good advantage to the growers selling here and the merchants are cooperating to make the visit of the growers to Louisburg a profitable one both ways.

You are invited to visit the Louisburg Market, the friendly market.

BRITISH HOMES TO FEEL PINCH OF WAR UPON SEA

London, Nov. 1.—A government announcement that food rationing would begin next month brought to every home in this ship-fed island tonight the war at sea—where two more British ships were sunk and two German pocket battleship raiders were reported to be at large.

The sinking of the Liverpool steamship Bronte and a British freighter east of Cuba added nearly 10,000 tons to the more than 200,000 tons of British merchant shipping sent to the bottom since the war started.

Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, told the House of Commons that two German pocket battleships were reported at large in the Atlantic—presumably the Deutschland and the Admiral Scheer—and added that he could not make a forecast as to when they might be captured.

The Deutschland sank the British freighter Stonegate and later captured the United States freighter City of Flint, which was taken to the Russian port of Murmansk and is now en route to Germany in command of a German prize crew.

Ford-Hudson

In a private ceremony at the Louisburg Baptist Church Saturday afternoon, Oct. 28, Miss Lucille Hudson became the bride of Edward Stegall Ford. The officiating minister was the Rev. J. G.
Phillips, pastor Louisburg Methodist Church.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and white chrysanthemums. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. H. J. Lewis played several organ selections. She used the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional.

The bride and groom entered the church together. She wore a moss green costume suit of wool, with beaver jacket. Her hat was a moss green felt with brown ribbon bow. She wore a shoulder cor-rage of talisman roses and valley lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip. After their return they will be at home at 213 North Main Street.

Mrs. Ford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cephus Coleman Hudson. She received her education at Louisburg College, where she became a member of Kappa Delta Phi Sorority. She holds a position with Agriculture Farm Administration.

Mr. Ford is the son of Mrs. Edward Stegall Ford and the late Mr. Ford. He is a graduate of Fishburne Military Academy, and also attended the University of North Carolina. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is tax collector for the town of Louisburg.

LOUISBURG BAPTIST CHURCH

day School at 9:45 A. M. Morning worship at 11:00 A. M. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "Essentials for a Great Meeting." Baptist Training Union at 6:45 P. M.

ject: "Young People and Their Religion."

Family Day at the Loui- sburg Baptist Church

Plans are being carried through for one of the greatest services that the local Baptist Church has ever had, and every indication is that it shall be so. Families of the church are being asked to attend the eleven o'clock worship hour. The ushers are arranging to seat all members of the family in one pew or in two pews. It will be interesting to see which family will have the largest number present. There are surely three or four families which will have from ten to fifteen there.
The youngest member of the family is looked for, and there will be a dedication of our children up to the age of nine to the Lord.
This will be a beautiful service.
All families are challenged to be there, and if it is pleasing, bring their denominational-in-laws with them.

it will avail itself of it. Everyvited to the services—the morning services at 7:45 each week

Recorder's Court

Franklin Recorder's Court held its usual weekly session Tuesday

IL DUCE REORGANIZES ITALY LEADERSHIP

Rome, Oct. 31.—Premier Mussolini reorganized the entire leadership of the fascist regime today in a shake-up of cabinet, party and top military posts unprecedented in its sweeping scope.

Seven cabinet ministers, the secretary of the fascist party, the chief of staff of the army, air force and fascist militia, and four under-secretaries of state, were replaced in the drastic reshuffling.
In addition Mussolini himself yielded the portfolio of minister for Italian Africa to General At-tilio Teruzzi.

Chief among those shifted are two fascist notables widely credited with pro-German tendencies, Lt. General Achille Starace, relieved of the secretaryship of the fascist party "at his own request," and Dino Alfieri, minister of popular culture (propaganda).
Starace was named chief of the general staff of the fascist militia; Alfieri, ambassador-waiting-assignment.

WAR IN EUROPE European Summary

Paris, Nov. 1.—Neutral reports reached Paris today that Chancellor Adolf Hitler, finally heeding warnings of his general staff, appears to have postponed until next year any major German offensive on the Western Front after examining the results of Nazi "feeler" attacks during the past week.

Sharp fighting was reported today along the curving front from the Moselle River eastward to Saarbrücken and the Blies Valley where German guns and advance troops made lightning thrusts against Allied positions in advance of the Maginot line.

Infantry Active
Tonight's French War Office communiqué, No. 118, said:
"During the day there was habitual activity of light infantry elements on both sides at various points of the front."

The French contended, however, that the German initiative of the last 24 hours has been designed merely to liberate the last territory of the Saar Valley remaining under fire of Allied guns and that the Nazis after breaking the French grip on Saarbrücken, were trying to liberate Saarbrücken and the nearby industrial towns of Voelklingen and Rehlingen. The Germans also were said to be striking almost daily in efforts to rout the French completely from Warndt Forest.

The recent German attacks on the Rhine-Moselle front, according to the neutral reports, were said to have convinced the German high command and finally Hitler that without proper artillery preparations sufficient to blast holes in the Maginot Line any immediate offensive would cost enormous casualties.

The decision to delay the anticipated German offensive was said to have been taken after a Nazi "tryout attack" along the Moselle front on October 16 and around Zweibrücken, the following day.

Helsinki, Nov. 1.—Finland is prepared to "make a far-reaching settlement" with Soviet Russia but will reject proposals which "would rob us of the possibility of defending the independents and neutrality of our land." Foreign Minister Erkkö declared tonight.

Speaking to a defense benefit meeting, the Foreign Minister declared Foreign Commissar Molot-off's disclosure of Russia's demands before the Russian parliament yesterday had created a "queer atmosphere."

He spoke as a five-man Finnish delegation journeyed toward Moscow to deliver what observers believed was a firm "No to Soviet demands, as disclosed yesterday, but with counter proposals of its own."

For Security
Erkkö said his country would insist to the end of its right as a neutral and its right to self-defense.

The Finnish people, he added, were ready "to throw into the scale all we own" for these rights.
Disclosing for the first time from the Finnish side some of the details of the Russia-Finnish negotiations, now almost a month old, Erkkö said Finland has "declared her readiness to make such arrangements as, above all, strengthen the safety of Leningrad and at the same time increase the safety of the Gulf of Finland and offer to the Soviet the possibilities of increasing this safety."

Referring to Molotoff's mention of the dangerous position of Leningrad, only about 20 miles from the Finnish territory, he further said that if a third power tried to attack Russia from Finnish territory Finland would be under obligation as a neutral to prevent it with all her means.

Finland would strive for a settlement, he said, which would make Russia feel secure as a Baltic state.

"But," he added, "at the same time."

Although some observers saw in the shake-up evidences of a lessening of German influence in Rome foreign diplomatic circles here generally attributed it to conditions within the fascist party and government and considered it without bearing on foreign policy.

However, it was noted that it came shortly after the German ambassador, Hans-George Viktor von Mackensen, had left for Berlin on Sunday for his embassy said, "an extraordinary reason." (Berlin officials said they were unable to comment at present on the cabinet shake-up. They indicated also that Von Mackensen's visit to Berlin was a routine one and not connected with the cabinet events.)

(In Paris French diplomatic quarters welcomed the Rome shake-up asserting that Il Duce's purpose was to create a "government of neutrality").

WAR IN EUROPE European Summary

Washington.—President Roosevelt reissues Russian govern-bassadors home from Moscow and Rome to report on new European situation.

Paris.—Germans attempting to encircle French village on Western Front, driven off.

time Finland has every right to expect the right of self-defense shall be recognized in principle and can be made use of also when the security of Finland is in question. These two principles, the right to be neutral, and the right to defend one self are the foundation on which the attitude taken by Finland is based.

After temporary indecision early in the day, government leaders decided to continue the negotiations as long as the slightest hope existed for settlement. Foreign Minister Erkkö expressed the view that Molotoff's speech last night to the supreme soviet had not changed the situation greatly.
