

To The Business Communities Of North Carolina

Under the directions of the President of the United States, the War Department has allotted an increased strength of 753 men to the organizations of the North Carolina National Guard, which will bring the total strength to 4613, and has ordered that army training at the home station of each unit be increased from one to two drills per week until January 31, 1940.

In addition, the National Guard is required to hold maneuvers or undergo field training for seven days within the period mentioned. It may be necessary to hold this field training for the seven days consecutively, mobilizing either entire Regiments or Battalions at points not far removed from the stations of the units.

The personnel of the National Guard are naturally and largely employees of corporations and business houses of the communities and some in colleges and high schools. In view of the directions of the Federal Government, and realizing the chaotic condition in the world today this additional training is deemed most important to the officers and the enlisted men of the Guard. It is such type of training which fits the officer to take care of and provide for the men of his command, and that these men, generally, may learn more thoroughly to care for themselves under conditions which may at any time call them into the service of the State or Nation. The call for this type of training at this time comes to me from the Federal Government, through the War Department and the Adjutant General of the State. It is realized that every State in the Union will undergo similar training and as the National Guard of our State is, under the Federal laws, a part of the Army of the United States, it is necessary that North Carolina conforms to this directive.

As the Governor of the State and the Commander-in-Chief of the National Guard in times of peace, I appeal most strongly and sincerely to the employers of the young men, members of the National Guard, interested in the protection of our State and Nation to cheerfully and honestly make every effort to grant their employees concerned the time necessary to undergo this training. It is unfortunate that at times situations arise which may disrupt the normal activities of business; yet, such happens and in view of the necessity to have a well trained force competent to afford the protection of our homes and business, the situation at present calls for a sacrifice on the part of all concerned.

This training of the Guard will embody that type of work which they cannot get in their army training, such as scouting and patrolling; night operations; security and reconnaissance; defensive and offensive combat; protection against the air-plane, etc.

The Adjutant General of the State will issue the State orders for this training following a conference of Adjutants General of the eight States comprising the Fourth Corps Area with Corps Area Headquarters, Atlanta, Georgia, on November 1st, based upon information and directions received at that time.

I again urge upon all concerned to cooperate to the fullest in this matter.

Yours very truly,
CLYDE R. HOEY,
 Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

Supt. W. R. Mills Speaks

County Supt. of School W. R. Mills was the guest speaker at the Bunn District Sunday School Association which met with the Bethlehem Church Sunday at 2:30. Supt. Mills reviewed briefly the work of the Sunday School from the time the "Old Blue Book Speller" was used as its text book down to the present day. He urged Sunday School leaders to make the program more attractive and beneficial in order to meet the keen competition of worldly interests that lead so many people from church each Sunday. Every person in the community should affiliate himself or herself with the Sunday School, continued the speaker, because Spiritual Investments of time, money and service pay the highest dividend of all investments. Every individual is born with a natural religious instinct and the Sunday School is the best place we have for developing that inherent desire for Godliness which in many instances leads to a full life of service. Supt. Mills concluded his address by complimenting the officers and leaders of the Association for their fine, unselfish service to the people of the Bunn High School District. He also praised the various Sunday Schools for their cooperative spirit in pushing forward such a worthy cause and undertaking.

Previous to the address, Wilbur Lamm, of Wake Forest College gave the devotion. Special music was rendered throughout the program by a Wake Forest College quartet composed of Messrs. James Kirk, Hubert Middleton, Leonard Middleton and Wilbur Lamm.

During the business period the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, M. Thomas Lamm; Vice-Pres., Mr. Clyde T. Moody; Sec.-Treas., Prin. C. C. Brown; Chorister, Mr. J. Fred Perry; Pianist, Miss Faustina Shearon; Historian, Rev. E. Y. Averette; Cor. Sec., Rev. M. H. Bloodworth. The following Committee Chairmen were elected:

Program, Supt. M. Thomas Lamm; Enrollment, Mr. Clyde T. Moody; Fellowship, Mr. J. Preston Massey; Instruction, Rev. M. S. Barnette; Extension, Rev. S. E. Madren; Publicity, Rev. M. H. Bloodworth.

At the conclusion of the address by Supt. Mills the meeting broke up into group meetings of the various Sunday School officers and teachers of the District for discussion of special problems and to lay plans for the future work of these branches of the Association.

We are exceedingly grateful to Rev. William Cone and his good people of the Bethlehem Church for their hospitality expressed with beautiful flowers, the comfortable building and their warm welcome and interest in the associational work.

One of the main objectives of Extension Service workers in Edgecombe County in the coming year will be a milk cow on every farm so that each family may have an adequate milk supply.

What most men see is just what they are looking for.

HOW TO AVOID INFECTION?

Your body forces and systems, can give you a fight against infections and illnesses in just such a degree as they are kept in strength and preparation to do so. Just as a nation can wage such a protective war against an oppressing nation or country as they are prepared and trained for. A fully equipped, armed and trained nation, all divisions working in harmony and in normal limits, can defend itself.

It is in this same way the Human Body must be strong and in normal health to be able to wage a true and successful battle against illness and infection. If the body is kept strong, healthy, all systems and organs working normally, then it has the resources to fight off and kill the invading "enemy." The drugless methods of keeping a Healthy Body are exceptionally good sources of preparation and protection in this emergency.

1939 WAS A GOOD YEAR FOR ME

NOT FOR ME-- but I'm going to use enough POTASH in 1940

START PLANNING FOR 1940 NOW

IT IS not too early to be making plans for more profit from your crops next year. Start now, while this year's results are still fresh in your mind, to provide for the use of plenty of potash to insure greater yields and quality in 1940. Rusted cotton, low yields and poor quality of tobacco, corn, vegetable, fruit, and legume crops result if the soil and fertilizer do not supply enough potash. Wherever legumes are grown, more potash is needed because of the large amounts removed by these crops and to balance the nitrogen and organic matter supplied when legume crops are turned under.

Talk over with your county agent or experiment station your yields this year as compared with what you can expect from your soil if given the right amount of the right fertilizer. Ask your fertilizer dealer or manufacturer about fertilizers high in potash. You will be surprised how little extra it costs to apply enough potash for the crops which you will plant next spring.

Write us for further information and literature on the profitable fertilization of Southern crops.
