FRANKLIN COUNTY HISTORY

By REV. E. H. DAVIS

mention has been made here before. Hill was a citizen first of Franklin, then of Warren, and afterwards in his last years to the close of his life of Franklin again, residing at Midway in Franklin near the county line and squal-distant from the two county
again, residing at Midway in Franklin near the county line and
squal-distant from the two county
again. equal-distant from the two county seats, Louisburg and Warrenton, each of which had been the scene of his labors. A book in the library at Chapel Hill has this on its title-page. An Improvised Grammar of the English Language for the Use of Schools, by C. A. Hill. A. M. Principle of by C. A. Hill, A. M., Principal of the Warrenton Academy, North Carolina. Raleigh, Printed by J. Gales 1818.

The next page bears this dedi-

Dedicated to The Rev. William Bingham The Rev. Joseph Caldwell.

As a testimonial of respect from their grateful pupil and humble servant.—The Author. In the general field of author-In the general field of authorship however the name that stands out admittedly in Franklin County above all others to this date is that of Edwin Wiley Fuller, whose two books, The Angel in the Cloud, a poem in blank verse, and Sea Gift, a novel of the Civil War period, each stamped him as an author of real ability and great promise and some content of the civil war period, each stamped him as an author of real ability and great promise and some content of the civil war period, each stamped him as an author of real ability and great promise and some content of the civil war period, each stamped him as an author of real ability and great promise and some content of the civil war period, each stamped him and deeply lines descriptive of his when its end here was only a matter of days.

Then down

I bowed my face and here was only a matter of days.

Then down

I bowed my face and here was only a matter of days.

Then down

I bowed my face and here was only a matter of days.

Then down

I bowed my face and here was only a matter of days.

Then down

And join the blessed ability and great promise and gave him a reputation extending beyond County or State lines. He was a native of Louisburg, son of Jones Fuller and Anna Long Thomas. Educated at the Male Academy in Louisburg under M. S. Davis with two years at the University of N. C. and one at the University of Va. It was while he was at the latter institution that he began to write for publication. While there as a pupil what afterwards became his first volume, Angel in the Cloud, appeared as a short poem in the University magazine and was highly commended by such eminent scholars as Dr. Schele DeVere, Dr. B. L. Gildersleeve and Prof. Geo. F. Holmes, all members of the University faculmembers of the University faculty. The poem was afterwards extended and was published in book form in 1871 by E. J. Hale & Son, of New York, the author being in his 24th year. The poem is a philosophic treatise in blank verse dealing in a fascinating way with the motives of human conduct. Never without the poets charm he writes of such grave matters as humane, free will and fate or divine Sovereign.

on earth
Reach truth of theory concerping fate.
It stands as whole from every touch of man As Oceans broad blue scroll whose rubber waves

Erase the furrows of the plowing keels.

This delightful poetical treatise on matters considered altogether meta-physical or philosophical concludes with these words which should have permanent place in to a list of European low counthe memory of those of us who tries.

Man can not judge the eter-nal mind by his But must accept the mysteries of life

As purposes divine with perfect ends. And in our darkest clouds

God's Angels stand To work man's present and eternal good. It is doubtful, however, if Mr. Fuller ever touched the poets Lyre to finer effect than in the poem found in his Sea Gift, Under the Pines, based on the last words of a Confederat soldier dying at the front—"Tell them to bury me under the pines at home."

The first verse is as follows: I would not rest in the mouldering tomb
Of the grim church yard

where the ivy twines But make me a grave in the forest gloom Where the breezes wave like a soldiers plume Each dark green bough of the dear old pines.

There were published four editions of Angel in the Cloud which was the author's first volume in the matter of publication though the matter of publication though not the first one he wrote—his more popular work—the novel. Sea Glit being his first extended effort. It was written before the author had reached his 20th year though not published until 1873—publishers being E. J. Hale & Son. It attained wide popularity. At the State University where just a few years before the author had been a very popular student, the book was said to be in such constant demand at the library as to necessitate frequent library as to necessitate frequent replacements and was generally replacements and was generally known as The Freshman's Bible. This fine young man absolutely irreproachable in life and character, brilliantly endowed constant in the use and application of his varied talents never reached his 30th year. 1847-1876 are the termini of his tenure here. Yet what he did within those limits hampered as he was with business cares and an incurable disorder may well make us pause order may well make us pause and wonder whose thread of life has been so much longer. Some lines written by him a short infinitesimal U.S. I was 1 to pause million determined people set their minds to make our War Bond drives successful, the result is anything but infinitesimal U.S. I was 1 to pause million determined people set their minds to make our War Bond drives successful, the result is anything but infinitesimal.

The first adventure in author- while before his death and hand ship by a citizen of Franklin of ed to his wife in sealed envelope which there is record was by with this request, "Do not open Charles Applewhite Hill of whom this until I am well or until my dark strife With adverse fate its portent

Across the calm blue scope of heaven x x x At once With scarce a rustle in the rose leaves came A shadowy form and standing silently

Before my pathway breathed a whispered sigh
As if it loathed its office to perform

Then laid consumptions ghastly banner on my breast
Its pale folds crossed with Tatal red.
We can not do better in writ-

We can not do better in writing thus of Franklin's gifted son than to quote further from these beautiful and deeply pathetic lines descriptive of his own life when its end here was distant only a matter of days.

Capitol Square has manifested son therest in reports that a boomlet for Victor S. Bryant for Lieutenant Governor was gaingly some strength over the State. The Durham attorney by reason of long service in the Convent As The WINER

The WINER

The fellow who keeps himself

I bowed my face and longed to know mine end

T'were very sweet to leave all toil and care And join the blessed ones beyond the tide:

And still t'were sweet beyond compare to wait

Till eventide with loved ones here and share

Their trial or woe Then came a flute like voice

That thrilled the solemn air, pursue thy way Yet humbly walk and watch and if I come At midnight or at noon be ready x x x Thus I wish to live life's aim subserved to God To wear the girdle of the world about my loins So loosely that a moment will sufffice To break the clasp and lay

Thus lived and wrote this age.

Other authors in the field of will and fate or divine Sovereignty and passes easily to something or at one time resident there are less just as difficult with this farewell—

None ever have or ever will on earth

Other authors in the neid of fiction either natives of Franklin or at one time resident there are Robert Edgar Ballard, whose Myrtle Lawn, a fascinating novel dealing with the Carlist moveon earth dealing with the Carlist move-ment in Spain appeared in 1877, published by the Petersons of Philadelphia, and Mrs. George S. Baker, from whose fluent pen came The Master of Letrange and Vernal Dune in the early years of the present century, published by the Neale Publishing Co., of New York.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

a single flag in the

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

-Sunday is Father's Day.

-Patrolman and Mrs. M. H.

Bymen announces the birth of a son early Sunday. —Quite a lengthy Army Con-oy in four sections passed for your well being regardless of how foolish or old fogy you may think him.

—Sheriff J. P. Moore reports unday wit spent Sunday wit near Louisburg. the destruction of a 30 gallon steel drum whiskey still in Har-

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

of long service in the General Assembly and on the budget commission has won admiration of most Capitol Square habitues. He is personally liked and his ability is highly respected. Injection of his name into the Capitol Square habitues. He is personally liked and his ability is highly respected. Injection of his name into the Capitol Square habitues. his name into the State Campaign revived lagging interest in it.

The man of the hor is the fellow who promises to wait a min-ute for his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Raynor and Miss Louise Webb visited Raleigh

Cotton was worth 22 cents pound in Louisburg yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. King are spending this week in Philadelphia on business. phia, on business.

> Miss Helen Elizabeth Lea, of South Boston, Va., is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. C. W.

Mr. Wilson Wood, who is with the Government in Norfolk, Va., spent Sunday with his family of wedding.

the grade. . . . Its the general average that counts, not a big day or a bad day.

Patronize TIMES Advertisers

LOST An old gold gentleman's watch chain, plain. Finder will be lib-the goose that laid the golden erally rewarded by returning egg is being given an awful run same to A. W. PERSON, Louisby the lowly hen.

by the lowly hen.

contact fail the golden erally rewarded by returning same to A. W. PERSON, Louisburg, N. C. 6-18-3t

Ration News

From Louisburg War Price and Ration Board

FUEL OIL

Beunos Aires, June 16.—Opti- understand nor cultivate.

mistic observers today interpreted President General Pedro C. Ramirez's pledge that the new miliit ought to do" as confirmation that Argentina contemplates breaking off relations with the Axis.

These sources coupled Ramirez's remarks with the statement Political observers believed. Application blanks are being mailed from the Ration Office to users of fuel oil for heat and hot water in 1942. Persons receiving these are requested to fill in the blank and return to The Ration Office as soon as possible, Ration for 1943 will be issued during rez's remarks with the statement of Foreign Minister Vice Admiral Segundo R. Storni Friday that Argentina intends, "step by step, to achieve the position she should be in."

SUGAR

Ramirez experied Rami-ry as at present political observers believed that Ramirez's reiteration of Argentina's intention to remain neutral "for the present" indicated his desire not to commit his Government to a rupture immediately, but leaving it free for The Office of Price Adminis-tration has issued a bulletin stat-Ramirez expounded his Government to a rupture immediately, but leaving it free for diately, but leaving it free for future action.

Asked whether he personally were pro-democratic, Ramirez night. Argentina is the only country in the Western Hemisphere still maintaining relations with the Axis the destruction of a 30 gallon steel drum whiskey still in Harris township on Thursday of last week and pouring out five barrels of beer. He was assisted by officers Neal, Gilliam and Joyner.

T 1 1 ting that the purchase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps No. 15 and 16 is a violation of OPA regulations unless the purchase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps No. 15 and 16 is a violation of OPA regulations unless the purchase of sugar for canning or preserving. All sugar purchase of sugar for canning or preserving. All sugar purchase of sugar for canning or preserving. All sugar purchase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase open chase of sugar for canning by the use of stamps no open chase chased on these stamps must be accounted for in the proportion of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bennett 4 quarts of fruit for each pound and sons, Everett, Jr. and James of sugar used.

INSTITUTIONAL USERS

Eating establishments may now receive the July - August allot-ments of processed foods, meat, with the Axis.

CAPUDINE

"We shall try to reach a greater accord with our sister American nations, consolidating the will hand it back to the politic-ests," he said. "We shall effect practical Pan-Americanism, avoiding with our acts the rhetorical verbalism that soldiers neither will be held at a date to be determined by "time and events."

Argentina Is Expected To Break Off

Relations With Hitler Axis

President Ramirez Voices Pledge That Nation Will

"Do What It Ought To Do"

DON'T LET ANYTHING GO TO WASTE THAT YOU CAN SAVE BY CANNING. OUR GOVERN-MENT OFFICIALS HAVE WARNED US OF A COMING SEVERE SHORTAGE IN FOOD-STUFFS --- WE LIST SOME OF THE ITEMS YOU'LL BE NEEDING.

BALL MASON Jar Lids, doz. . . 25c

Jar Rings, doz. 5c Kerr Lids, doz. . 10c Kerr Tops, doz. . 25c

BALL MASON JARS

Pints, doz. 65c - Quarts, doz. 75c Essowax, Parphine, Block ... 5c Sure Jell, 2 pkgs. 25c Certo, bottle 25c

BEEF WILL CONTINUE TO BE SCARCE. THE ARMY AND NAVY ARE NOW GETTING 45% OF ALL 'A' GRADE AND BETTER BEEF. SO WHY NOT LEARN TO BUILD YOUR MEAL AROUND SOME OF THE MEATS LISTED BE-LOW WHICH WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO OB-TAIN FAIR STOCKS AT ALL TIMES.

Native and Western Lamb Native and Western Veal Fresh Pork Hams and Shoulders Fresh Pork Loins

Spare Ribs - Fresh Brains Pork Sausage - Bacon 'A' Grade Quality Frankfurters Dressed Hens and Fryers

PLENTY FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

"YOUR COMPLETE FOOD MARKET"

DONE BY ---

In fact Anything You May Need in the Printing Line

THE FRANKLIN TIMES

"Printing That Pleases"

Phone 283-1

Letter

Heads

Envelopes

Bill Heads

Statements

Hand Bills

Posters -

Placards

Louisburg, N. C.