Cotton was worth 22 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

Fuller's Esso Service Station took on a new coat of paint this week.

The editor extends thanks to Uncle John Foster for a nice mess of roasting ears the past week.

Work has already been begun on cleaning up and rebuilding the burned Opera House building.

Mrs. Tudor, who had the misfortune of falling and breaking her hip was taken to Rex Hospital in Raleigh Wednesday.

Ruffin Foster, colored, died at his home in Louisburg Saturday at 10:45 a. m. in his 94th year, being one of Louisburg's oldest citizens.

The many friends of Mr. Joe M. Card, of near Inglefield, will be glad to learn that he is improving nicely after an operation in a hospital at Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee, of Philadelphia, Pa., announce the birth of a son, Charles Floyd Lee, on July the fourth. Mrs. Lee is the former Miss Louise Gattis, of Louisburg.

Jack Ferguson, of near Clifton's pond, brought in a top of a tobacco plant Saturday that produced two stems forming a big V, which was interpreted to mean victory. Each stem had its own seed top.

Mr. L. E. Scoggin has made quite a big improvement in his drug store on corner of Main and Nash Street. He has moved his prescription department into the old Carlyle room and taking out a petition in the back of the main room. By this he increases his room in the main store room and creates a modern, commodious and convenient prescription room. The change is a very creditable and convenient one.

DOGS
Attorney General Rules On Credit For Dog Vaccination Fee

The following ruling of the Attorney General relative to tax credit for fees paid for rabies vaccination for dogs given to B. G. Tharrington applying to Franklin County may be of interest to dog owners of Franklin County: Hon. B. G. Tharrington, Inez, North Carolina.

Dear Sir:

You state in your letter of May 13 that in Warren County a credit of 75c is allowed on the dog tax when a certificate of vaccination is presented to the sheriff or tax collector of the county, and that in Franklin County only 50c credit is allowed. You desire to know whether this difference is permissible under the laws relating to the vaccination of dogs for rabies.

Section 1 of Chapter 259 of the Public Laws of 1941, which strikes out all of Section 9 of Chapter 11 of the Public Laws of 1935, provides:

"Sec. 7. Amend Section nine by striking out all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 7. That the rabies inspector shall collect from the owner of each dog vaccinated as provided for in Section five, not more than seventy-five cents for each dog, the same to be credited on the dog tax when certificate of vaccination is presented to the sheriff or tax collector of the county. Any owner who fails to have his dog vaccinated at the time the rabies inspector is in the township in which the owner resides as provided in Section five, shall have said dog vaccinated in accordance with Section eight and shall pay the rabies inspector the additional sum of twenty-five cents to be retained by him for each dog treated: Provided, that in Edgecombe, Wilson and Nash Counties, there shall be charged only fifty cents for each dog treated on the days prescribed for such treatment in Section five of this Act, the same to be credited on the dog tax when certificate of such vaccination is presented to the sheriff or tax collector: Further, provided, that in cases where dogs are vaccinated in accordance with Section eight of this Act, the total charge for such treatment shall not exceed seventy-five cents, only fifty cents of which shall be credited on such dog tax."

You can readily see from the provisions of this section that the owner of a dog is entitled to credit for whatever he pays for the vaccination of his dog, not exceeding 75c, when he presents the certificate of vaccination to the sheriff or tax collector of the county. It is possible that there is a difference in the amount charged in Franklin County from that charged in Warren County. Yours very truly, HARRY McMULLAN, Attorney General.

We do not have copy of Sec. 8, of this law before us but, the provision at the end of Sec. 7, under "Further provided" leaves a serious doubt as to the amount to be credited on taxes when paid. Giving the benefit of the doubt to the tax collector it is easy to consider 50 cents the limit.

Louisburg College News

From the office of President Patten comes the announcement that the following new faculty members and officers of Louisburg College have been chosen:

Mrs. Lauryn Mizelle has been chosen to fill a vacancy in the Department of English in the college for the coming year. Mrs. Mizelle has her degree of Bachelor of Arts from Alabama College and the degree of Master of Arts from the University of North Carolina. Her teaching experience of several years has been in Alabama and her work has been quite successful. She comes highly recommended by her former employers, as well as by Alabama College and the University of North Carolina.

Miss Jeanne Owen has been added to the faculty of the Department of Commerce. She is from Gibsonville, North Carolina, and she has her degree of Bachelor of Science from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina where she majored in commerce. In her college career she made an exceptional record and she has had two years of successful experience in teaching in the commercial field. She comes to Louisburg College with the highest recommendations from her alma mater and from her former employers.

Mrs. Ida M. Ferrell, of Clinton, North Carolina, comes to the college as housekeeper for the coming year. Her experience in institutional work indicates that she will be an acceptable addition to the administrative forces of the college.

The Wright Building of the college is undergoing repair and before the time comes for the opening of the college, this building will have been completely renovated.

President Patten also reports that the outlook for a large student body for the coming year is good. Young people are planning to prepare for the work of life and to be equipped with the best in the line of information and knowledge that is possible.

During the summer months, the Methodist, the Baptist, and the Episcopal Churches are uniting in a community vesper service on the college campus. With the great oaks, the grassy lawn, and the fine setting, it is a fit place for the churches to join in the worship of God. Such a scene leads to reverence and to a feeling that God is present.

Miss Lula May Stipe and Miss Elizabeth Harris are out in the field during the summer months in the interest of the college. Their many friends are glad to see them come in over the week-ends.

ROM N. EVANS
