

LOUISBURG COLLEGE NEWS

The "March of Dimes" drive was held at Louisburg College last week. The drive netted seventeen dollars. The success of the campaign is attributed to the diligent leadership of Miss Elizabeth Harris of Bunn, and Miss Joyce Meekins of Norfolk, Va.

A large delegation of students attended the North Carolina Student Conference held at High Point College, February 11-12. Those attending were: Lucy Braxton, Scotland Neck; Mary Goodwin, Edenton; Jeanette Ricks Pantego; Mary Elizabeth Midgett, Middletown; Ruth Pegram, Winston-Salem; W. S. Gardner, Macon; Fred Davis, Carthage; Talmadge Lancaster, Lakedale; Douglas Bryant, Stedman; Vivian Creech, Smithfield; Joyce Meekins, Norfolk, Va.; W. S. Powers, Lumberton; Charlotte Usher, Asheboro; Daphne Winstead, Elm City; Harold Sherrill, Hickory; Virginia Stephenson, Garysburg; Anne Goldston, Goldston; and Miss Ruth Merritt, of the faculty.

Mrs. E. H. Ould, of Roanoke, Virginia, will lead the Religious Emphasis Week to be held at Louisburg College, beginning Sunday, February 27, Dr. Walter Patten, president of the college, announced today. Mrs. Ould will speak each day at the chapel assembly and on each evening. Private conferences will be on the week's calendar. The week is being arranged under the auspices of the campus religious council. It is under the particular planning of the Reverend Forrest Hedden and Miss Ruth Merritt.

On February 14, Dr. T. C. Amick, of the Mathematics Department celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday. A banquet in his honor was held at Mrs. Beasley's Dining Room.

The following announcement has been received: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Franklin Mayerson announce the marriage of their daughter, Joan Barbara, to William H. Clatworthy, Ensign U. S. Naval Reserve, on Sunday, January 30, Princeton, New Jersey. Ensign and Mrs. Clatworthy are at home at 287 Summit Avenue, Brighton, Massachusetts. Ensign Clatworthy was professor of mathematics and engineering drawing at Louisburg College before entering the service.

Recent chapel speakers at the college chapel hour have been the Reverend H. S. Coby of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Louisburg; the Reverend Rex Campbell, of the Justice Baptist Church; and the Reverend F. H. Scofield, of the Rolesville Baptist Church.

On Thursday evening, February 24, Miss Ethel Bost, of Cornelius, North Carolina, and a returned missionary from China, who recently arrived in this country aboard the Gripsholm, will speak on "China and Chinese Youth." Miss Bost will appear at the college under the sponsorship of the Y. W. C. A.

On Saturday, February 12, the Commerce Club held a Valentine Party. Miss Marguerite Clement of Oxford, was general chairperson of arrangements, and Miss Mohn Dixon, of Elizabeth City, assisted with decorations.

GOOD CONDUCT MEDAL

The following information from H. R. Hallock, Lt. Col., C. E. Commanding, was received by Mrs. Lubella P. Jones, colored, Louisburg, having reference to her son, Morris C. (Spunk) Jones: "It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the 'Good Conduct Medal' has been awarded to your son. The 'Good Conduct Medal' is awarded to each enlisted man after one year's service, for exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity.

"These awards were made with pride and confidence. Pride in the good work accomplished in spite of the hardships of overseas service and confidence that no enemy can withstand the determined army of the United States.

"The success of an army is directly dependent on the manner in which each soldier performs his duty. It is the determined efforts of your son and millions like him that will accomplish the final defeat of the enemy and bring us all home again."

"Spunk" Jones will be remembered by the members of the Green Hill Country Club as being one of its first caddies.

PROMOTED

At a recent meeting of the Board of Education in Cincinnati, Ohio, Harry Edward O'Neal was promoted from a position as classroom teacher in Fairview School to the position of principalship of the Columbian School, a 22 teacher school.

Mr. O'Neal is a brother of Mrs. Martha O'Neal Perry, a member of the Mills School faculty.

Interested In Franklin

The following letter was received by Postmaster T. M. Harris, who turned it over to the FRANKLIN TIMES for publication in the hope that some one related to or knows of the writer, can and will write him giving him the information he is seeking: The letter follows:

Jamesville, Va., Jan. 11, 1944. Northampton Co., Va. The Postmaster at Cedar Rock, Dear Sir:

I am the boy that did live with Mr. A. E. Bobbit many years ago. I left there in 1874 December 7. I have been living in Virginia and Maryland all ever since. For many years I sailed on the Chesapeake Bay in charge of many large sail ships in the oyster and fish business. Old man Ben Griffin was my uncle and if any of his people are living please give them this letter. I want to hear from them.

Mr. Tommy Gill was Postmaster when I left. I want to come there next summer if I live. I am now 85 years old. I would be glad to hear from you if convenient.

I was married in 1881 and my wife is still living. She is 81. We have 3 children living and 3 dead, one son 48, and 2 daughters, 58 and 61. I am yet active in business. We have 10 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren. I still fish on the Eastside of the Chesapeake Bay.

Love to all old friends if any are yet living.

Yours ever, J. A. MARRION.

AWARDED MEDAL

Corpl. Edward L. Burnette, of Camp Berkeley, Texas, has been awarded the good conduct medal of his company. Cpl. Burnette is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burnette of Louisburg.

A Proclamation

WHEREAS the war has entered a decisive stage requiring the fullest measure of individual sacrifice;

WHEREAS the American National Red Cross is an auxiliary to the United States armed forces and, as such, is providing indispensable service to our troops throughout the world as well as to their families at home; WHEREAS these wartime activities, including the collection of lifesaving blood for the wounded, recreation work in military hospitals, provision of aid to families of servicemen, shipment of food parcels to prisoners of war, production of surgical dressings, operation of overseas clubs and recreation centers, and recruiting of Army & Navy nurses, all combine to save countless lives, restore hope, and provide comfort for our fighting men;

WHEREAS, through its vast network of local chapters, this agency of our people simultaneously conducts an extensive program of training and community service, while continuing with traditional efficiency to lessen the distress of those overwhelmed by disaster; and

WHEREAS this agency is wholly dependent upon individual support and personal participation and is issuing its 1944 appeal to the entire citizenship for a minimum War Fund of $200,000,000; NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America and President of the American National Red Cross, do hereby designate the month beginning March 1, 1944, as "Red Cross Month" and earnestly beseech my fellow Americans to observe it by opening their hearts to this humanitarian appeal in order that we may keep the Red Cross at the side of our fighting men and their dependents in their hour of greatest need.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed. DONE at the city of Washington this 19th day of February, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-eight.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

By the President: CORDELL HULL, Secretary of State.

INVENTION PRIZE BUYS WAR BOND FOR GUPTON BABY

O. B. Gupton, former Louisburg resident and now general foreman of the subdepot at Langley Field, Virginia, was recently awarded two cash prizes for time, labor and money-saving devices entered in the war department's contest eligible to civilians inventing such devices. It was revealed here recently by his father, R. N. Gupton, of Louisburg, Route 2.

The awards $150 and $175 were presented by Lt. Col. William H. Hine, subdepot commanding officer, following recommendation by a special committee composed of representatives of various departments at the field.

As the government code of censorship prohibits description of newly developed war equipment unless permission is granted by the war department, and as it is not known here whether such permission has been granted, the devices cannot be described. Before accepting his present

Can You Picture NORTH CAROLINA without Doctors? Today, North Carolina's doctors and nurses by the hundreds are serving with our Army and Navy from Alaska to Iran, from Australia to Italy — bringing back to health the men who are helping win Victory for the United Nations. But on the home front, other thousands of doctors and nurses are fighting doubly hard to keep their fellow-citizens of North Carolina in good health — doing everything in their power to prevent or minimize interruptions in our State's war effort. In a very real sense the well-being of North Carolinians is in the capable hands of approximately 2,500 physicians and surgeons and about 6,500 nurses. At their disposal are the facilities of 166 hospitals which have beds for nearly 25,000 patients at one time. In an average year more than 270,000 patients are admitted to these institutions. To the North Carolina State Board of GREYHOUND BUS TERMINAL Boddie Drug Store Phone 329-1 Health goes well-deserved credit for the high standards of medical care prevailing in our State. We of the Greyhound Lines pay tribute to these fellow-citizens of ours who are doing so much to make our State a finer place to live in. They're doing a big job — a vital one. Greyhound's job is quite different—but vital, too! Providing safe, convenient transportation service is particularly important now. By making near neighbors and good neighbors of all the communities we serve in North Carolina, we are helping unify the war efforts of this State — keeping them rolling toward Victory!
