A Happy and Prosperous 1945 for all of you is our greatest wish.

Plans are now underway for Louisburg to have a convenient Union Bus Station.

If a project is profitable to you why get rid of it for some one else to enjoy the benefits?

Let's everybody in Louisburg pull together for a greater Louisburg and Franklin County.

Did you ever work very hard to gain a project that you had reason to believe would be profitable to you. Likewise the power and light question.

The 1945 Legislature of North Carolina meets next week. It's your duty as a citizen to give all the information you can to your Representatives that will assist them in rendering you the best of service, and then cooperate with them.

In order to provide driveway around the new Bus Station and relieve the congestion caused by the buses stopping and loading and unloading on the streets, why can't the town step in and give a little assistance. This will be a big help to the Town in more ways than one.

of Suffolk, presided in the gift room. Mrs. Fred Leonard invited guests into the dining room where Mrs. Hilton Hudnell, of Suffolk, presided. The dining table was covered with an imported Madeira cutwork cloth of Irish linen. A wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom was cut by the couple. Misses Jane Sanderlin and Jessie Taylor Harris and Mrs. Edward F. Griffin assisted in serving ices and bride's cake.

Goodbyes were said Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Young, of Hickory.

Feeding tests have shown that it takes almost twice as much late cut hay to put a 100-pound gain on a steer as with early cut hay.

The Stars and Stripes Forever

Keep Them Flying...

Buy More War Bonds!

• Yes, the future of the Stars and Stripes is at stake. Our country has been attacked by enemies who mean to conquer the world—and us along with it.

If we lose the war, nothing you have will be worth anything. So why not invest whatever you can in the gallant struggle to make the world a decent place to live?

Even if you think you've been buying bonds to the limit of your ability, you can boost your purchases a little more! Would you give up buying a new winter coat to save the life of a fighting lad you know... your own son or your neighbor's? Apply this attitude toward buying bonds—because actually your bond purchases save lives by furnishing the equipment, ammunition and food the boys need to survive.

War bonds are the safest investment in the world. For your own sake, for your Country's sake, put every spare dime and dollar into War Bonds!

Hero Of Peleliu

1—On D-Day at Peleliu, Second Lieutenant Carlton Roub, 25, of Lindenwood, N. J., led his unit of Marines in an assault on a Jap-infested cave. 2—As Roub rushed forward, he was shot. His weapon fell from his arms. 3—Two of Roub's men ran to drag him back, but the young Lieutenant began to get up by himself. Just then, a grenade came flying from the mouth of the cave. 4—Roub leaped at the man and knocked them to the ground. 5—Then he threw himself on the grenade, landing it with his body as it burst. As the heroic Marine Corps officer was evacuated to a hospital, his only question, before lapsing into unconsciousness, was, "Are the men all saved?"
