

Need Special Care

The fresh, new look of curtains, slipcovers and linens is as important as their color and pattern. If decorative washables are to pay their full fashion value, they require fashion-conscious laundering. With a touch of starch for the fresh finish of fashion.

The proper finish for table linens is "creaseless." Iron linens flat, fold or roll for storage, but do not iron in the creases. No matter how carefully you store linens, you may find an unwanted crease or turned corner when you are ready to use them. A light puff of a spray-on-starch and a touch of the iron is the speediest answer to your problem. Lightly starched napkins are lint free.

After washing and starching slipcovers (in your automatic washer) remove from line or dryer while slightly damp. Replace slipcovers on furniture without ironing. Smooth the flat surfaces and carefully stretch seams and welts and pull pleats into place. Place an electric fan or a hair dryer near the slipcovered furniture to complete the drying. For the tailoring touch, use a whisk of a spray-on starch and a touch of the iron to the pleated skirt after the slipcover is in place. A book, wrapped in a terrycloth towel, can serve as your miniature ironing board for the ruffle touch-up.

Although pre-starched curtains and draperies should be ironed while damp, there is no need to iron completely dry. Just press out the wrinkles and re-hang draperies immediately while slightly damp. Pull draperies into decorator folds, following the pleating. The air will finish the drying job.

Thanks

I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Dr. Lloyd, and Dr. Patterson, also the staff of nurses on third floor at Franklin Memorial Hospital, for every kindness shown me while I was a patient there.

Thanks to my friends and relatives for the cards and flowers sent to me.

May God bless you.

Tasty Dish with Old-Time Flavor Tuna-Corn Country Casserole

Here's a wonderful tuna-corn casserole, easy as can be to make, and economical, too. Delectable morsels of convenient canned tuna provide hearty good taste and good nutrition, too. One serving of tuna provides more complete protein than a comparable serving of red meat. The casserole takes only minutes to prepare and then the oven does the work for you. The result—a marvelous dish with old-fashioned flavor reminiscent of Grandma's corn pudding, combined to a "T" with the delicate taste of the tuna. Tomato slices add a cheery note of color. Serve with a green salad and you'll have a meal to remember!

Tuna-Corn Country Casserole

- | | |
|---|---|
| 2 eggs | 2 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ounces each) tuna in vegetable oil |
| 1 can (10 1/2 or 11 ounces) cream of mushroom soup, undiluted | 1 cup soft bread crumbs |
| 1/2 cup milk | 2 medium tomatoes, sliced |
| 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco (optional) | 1/2 teaspoon sugar |
| 1 can (1 pound) cream-style corn. | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| | 1 teaspoon butter or margarine |

Beat eggs; stir in soup, milk and Tabasco. Mix in corn, tuna and bread crumbs. Turn into buttered shallow casserole 10x6x1 1/2-inches. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 45 minutes; remove. Cut tomato slices in half; place around edge of casserole. Sprinkle tomato slices with sugar and salt; dot with butter. Return to oven and bake 15 minutes longer. YIELD: 6 servings.

College Play Cast Announced

The cast has been announced for the Louisburg Players' next production, THE ACCIDENT, March 13 and 14.

"Miss Louisburg," Skyler Odom, fills the show's only feminine role, that of "Miss Tamovar."

Charles Massey plays the part of "Hernani" -- an unstable character who has built, and wants to demonstrate, an electric chair.

The "Premier," prospective customer for the electric chair, is portrayed by Fred Cook. "Chenko," the likeliest candidate for demonstration purposes, is played by Ron Schaefer.

Bill Williamson as "The Visitor" drops in on the precarious proceedings, but gets no help from the "Attendants," played by Mark Handier and Joe Fletcher.

Dave Garber is stage manager.

In Fashion Now

White kidskin pumps are to be favorites this summer and legs and feet bid fair to be dressed in more color and fancier than they have been for many a year.

Blue shoes, green shoes and sandals in a variety of colors are being shown.

No longer is it necessary to have neutral shades in hose. They come in muted colors and in white--very sheer. Some are fashioned of lace for very gay occasions. Black lace hose are most flattering.

Blouses are ruffy and decollete for dressmaker suits.

Ribbon bands with bows on top of the head in the same color as the dress are favorites with teenagers.

Herzler of Louisville, Ky.; three sons, J. H. Smith of Louisburg, Joe J. Smith of Lexington and Eddie V. Smith of Raleigh; one sister, Mrs. Mattie Beck Dickerson of Louisburg; and 21 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the Lancaster Funeral Home Chapel, conducted by Rev. Billy Martin, pastor of Corinth Baptist Church. Burial will follow in the Oakwood Cemetery.

Teen Club To Meet

Mrs. Paul Mullen, chairman of the Junior Woman's Club Teenage Club, announced that a Teen Club meeting will be held this Friday night at the Armory. This will be the first meeting since the activities were suspended for Basketball season, and all teens are urged to come out and enjoy being together and dancing.

Mrs. Mullen stated that there will be new records and two new ping pong tables, and that the hours will be the same, 7:30 to 9:00 for those under 12 and from 9:00 to 10:30 p.m. for the older teens.

There will not be a meeting of the club on Friday, March 13, because of the conflict with preparations for the Junior Woman's Club dance, but beginning on March 21 the committee plans to have the Armory open for the teens every Friday night.

Confidence is a plant of slow growth.
